CONVICTION.—On the 13th inst., before Wm. Heard and Wm. Brown, Esqs., Alexander Neil McPherson, of Murray Harbor Road, Lot 57, was convicted of presenting a pistol and threatening to shoot John McDonald, of same place, in a dispute over a line fence, and was fined $20 and costs. It was proved that plaintiff first threw a stone at defendant, and both parties were bound over to keep the peace for six months, in bonds of $200 each.

A CIRCUMSTANCE in connection with the concert last evening is worth recording. Shortly before the time for opening, it became know that the pitch of the piano did not agree with the instruments. Our townsman, Mr. Vinnicombe, was called for, and in the incredibly space of fifteen minutes re-tuned the instrument throughout, much to the surprise of Ronconi and the other members of the company, who spoke highly of Mr. Vinnicombe's work.

THE annual report of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, Halifax, N. S., for the year 1886, is to hand. From it we learn that the Institution is yearly growing in size and increasing in efficiency, but that the supply of funds is not sufficient to secure the improvements necessary. Of the 78 pupils in attendance—43 males and 35 females—Nova Scotia contributed 48, New Brunswick 16, Prince Edward Island 8 and Newfoundland 6. There were 28 cases of diphtheria during the year but no deaths. The Principal cautions the public to beware of begging mutes, none of whom are sent out by the institution.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

The Stanley Expedition.

LONDON, Aug. 1.

A despatch from St. Paul de Loanda, dated July 31st, says that Wm. Jannsan, the Governor of the Congo Free State, writes from Boma that since receiving the news of the arrival of Stanley at camp on the Aruwhimi River no message has arrived from the Upper Congo, and that the first news of any accident that may have happened to Stanley must be brought by a Congo state messenger who is expected in a few days.

Railway Smashup.

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 1.

A smashup occurred on the Intercolonial Railway on Saturday night or Sunday morning, at St. Mose station, near St. Flavie. A flat train at the station was run into by another flat from the north. This in turn was run into by a wrecking train. Considerable damage was done and two men hurt but not dangerously.

Big Damages.

AUGUSTA, GA., August 1.

There are two breaks in the canal. The damage will probably shut up the factories for some days. The loss to the city from the high water is about $100,000. The loss to the planters cannot at present be estimated. It involves almost the total destruction of crops in the Savannah Valley. The river is falling rapidly.

An Important Announcement.

LONDON, August 1.

Sir James Ferguson, Parliamentary Secretary for the Foreign Office, announced in the Commons to-day that the United States and Great Britain were making progress in adjusting the Canadian fisheries dispute. The Government were hopeful of attaining a satisfactory settlement, soon.

The Bicycle Race.

LONDON, August 1.

THE PEOPLE SAY

—That the jubilee fishermen only caught four mackerel.

—That the opposition boat was a little more successful, taking in nineteen.

—That a prominent member of the now defunct Keppoch Packing Co. would have been there - if he hadn't got left.

—That the tricycle has arrived.

—That the short cut across the Square is being taken advantage of to a very large extent.

—That the fish market on Queen's Wharf is looking up.

—That THE EXAMINER leads the van for news.

It was so hot in Illinois last week that half a dozen eggs left out in the sun were hatched, and six chickens pecked their way through the shells and into the wicked world. It's a solmn and awful fact.

Marshal, Miss., boasts of a bady 11 months old that whistles. Battle Creek has got a baby boy three years old that spends all his pennies for cigars, and has been known to smoke five in one day.

The Empress of Austria walked twenty-five miles the other day without resting. She had probably been informed that her husband had been seen flirting with a chorus girl in another city, and being in a hurry to get there, concluded to walk instead of taking a German express train.

The question that is agitating the courts of Albany, N. Y., just now is, "Is lager beer intoxicating?" Of course it is. Does anybody suppose that people would bother themselves drinking it if it wasn't. When people want to drink something that is not intoxicating they find water to answer the purpose, it is cheaper than lager beer.

A church social and hugging bee at Elk Creek, Neb., broke up in a row recently. A withered remnant of a man, aching for a smack at a sweet 16 or thereabouts, blew in 15 cents and was blindfolded. The manager ran his wife against him, and the squeeze he gave her made her back ache. When the bandage was removed and he discovered the swindle he howled like a wild man, smote the manager on the jaw, and choked the treasurer till he refunded.
