INTRAMURAL HOCKEY

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

By Phillip Brown

The other day two students informed me that a certain prof was complaining about my misspelling of "intramural". I am glad this was brought to my attention because if Sports Illustrated (the magazine I hope to work for in the future) had gotten drift of such, then it would have been good-bye to the big money.

Last week the league saw one big upset and another unfortunate loss. The unfortunate loss was Jimmy Revell (the young man who gained much recognition from that famous quote, "We will forge ahead") and his Softies' loss to Brand X. Jim blamed the loss on the poor ice surface. If the Softies continue to give unwanted excuses for their defeats, then I suggest the Commissioner place the team in a league - or world- of its own.

The big upset was M and M's loss to Freshmen.

The Freshmen goaltender, whose name is unknown to me, led the team to victory. He displayed as many moves as Horseshoe Dixon. The best part of the game was very rough. Near the end, a fight erupted between Dick Carroll and Steve Chassion. It was quickly broken up and both were suspended from the game. The final score was 7-3.

Freshmen should be honoured for their contribution to the league. As a team they have come a long way in a short period, and Dick C. has done a fine job recruiting. For example, Paul (Wilbur) MacDonald, from the Cardigan district, was signed several weeks ago. He has portrayed true sportsmanship since his taking office. Another improvement is the team's increasing mobility. Two players who should be mentioned for such achievement are Puppet MacRae and Tony Carroll. A final note, keep your spirits (Heads) high, boys, and not the sticks.
