

ABSOLUTE SECURITY.

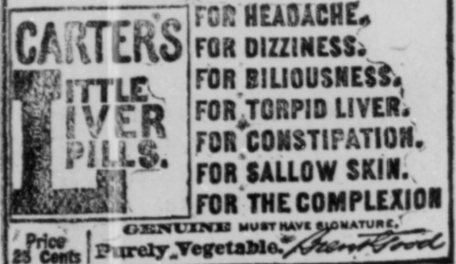

Genuine Carter's Little Liver Pills.

Must Bear Signature of

Wm. Wood

See Fac-Simile Wrapper Below.

Very small and as easy to take as sugar.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

The Relief

-OF-

Lady Smith,

of South Africa, was nothing compared to the relief that is felt by MRS SMITH, and hundreds of other women of P. E. Island, on wash day since they have started using

CILT EDGE SOAP

All first class grocers SELL it.

McKINNON & McNEVIN

WHOLESALE AGENT

Musical Education

One of the first things a man thinks of for his girls is a good musical education, and people are learning more and more that even to a boy, the ability to play a musical instrument is of great advantage.

When you get ready to buy your musical instruments—let us figure with you.

We will treat you right.

MILLER BROS

Queen Street
Conroy's Building.

Teachers

Attending the Convention, we would like you to call in and look over a large line of "School Helps," we have just received. No difference if you do not wish to buy, come in and see them. Ask to see our Wedgwood Note Paper.

MITCHELL'S BOOKSTORE

Queen St. Opp. Prowse's.

GREAT LIBERAL DEMONSTRATION

In Cavendish—About Thirty Electors Present.

The great knight—the at one time prophet of Blue Run—now the knight of broken promises and extravagant expenditures—and a few of the faithful who were notified by private correspondence met at Caveatish Hall on Wednesday evening, the 3rd inst., to devise some further means of corrupting the electorate by promises of work on New London breakwater and divers jobs of inspecting, boodle work through the district. The party heeled were present from New Glasgow, Rustico, Cavendish, Bay View, Saulny and Hope River, and the burden of their song was "more money for bood jobs—all must be satisfied before the election." Peter is provided for, but Timothy is kicking and he is so constructed that he can kick a long way—so he must be quieted at all risks. Then there is a near relative of the red hot grit boss that must have a job who ever starves. And the said boss may possibly want something himself very soon. Sir Knight explained to his admirers how binder twine had become so cheap under the management of his Government, and also how literally his promises were about to be fulfilled in respect to the cheapening of kerosene oil. He had done everything he could in the matter, even to giving the Standard Oil Co. favors to induce them to cheapen it. He hoped the "free and independent" would not hold him responsible if oil was not so cheap as he had led them to believe it would be under his benign rule. If re-elected he would use all the persuasive powers at his command to induce Mr. Rockefeller to lower the price, it was only a fraction of a cent, and thought he could promise them success. Many other matters were touched on by Sir Knight in his fatherly address. The chief ones were why his government had retained the N. P., and had attempted to fool the electors with one-sided preferential trade. It was explained that the Quebec boss of the government was not to be taken seriously down here in his disloyal utterances; but they had a good effect in Quebec, and "you know we must swallow a good deal for party's sake."

The red hot local boss gave an address which was chiefly remarkable for the number of times in which he made use of the personal pronoun. "I got the daily mail; I got the dredge; I got the grant for the breakwater and wharf; and I will arrange how the boodle is to be distributed. I am the father of 'local prohibition,' which is bearing such good fruit in Charlottetown at present." There is a tendency in persons of weak natures, who have spent much of their time in staring at the beautifully variegated habiliments which adorn knightly persons, to become all's. This is a case in point where every other sense—in fact all sense—takes a back seat, and the order is "I's front." The older Liberals who fought and bled under the grit flag when some of the now noisy ones were in their cradles were not called on to say anything. They once showed their independence by opposing a worthless candidate that the machine put up, and they have their reward.

Johnny Q—wore not from the capital to instruct the rank and file in the peculiar tactics that have been adopted for this campaign. Strange, he said, was everything; human devices are not to be ignored. He quoted the words of the "master of the situation," "Elections are not won by prayers, and advised them, by all means, not to neglect the party meetings; whatever others should be neglected."

GRIT.

BUSINESS PRECEPTS.

Keep your life insured.
Reply promptly to all letters.
As a business proposition it pays to be polite.
As a choice between evils choose neither.
Tell the truth about your goods. Merit wins generally; truth always.
Never invest where the element of chance or luck governs the returns.
Meet your bills promptly and make your collections with equal promptness.
Do not imagine that a mere business acquaintance is interested in your gains and losses.
Do not suppose that anyone is more interested in your welfare than yourself must be.
Never glance at a business man's books or papers which may accidentally be left open before you.
In general the business equilibrium is everywhere maintained. You can't buy a good horse for a dollar.
Always keep your temper, but have sense enough to know when you are insulted and spirit enough to resent it.
Learn to know the distinction between friendship and intimacy. Seek to have many friends, but mighty few intimates.
By far the greater portion of the business of the country is done on credit. If you impair or lose your credit, you are with the hopeless minority.
Call on a business man at business times only, and solely on business. Transact the same and go about your own, in order to give him time to attend to his.

NERVOUS troubles are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which enriches and purifies the blood. It is the best medicine for nervous PEOPLE.

PLAN TALK

To Catarrh Sufferers

Every person suffering from catarrh in its many forms, knows that the common lotions, salves and douches do not cure. It is needless to argue this point or to cite cases of failure, because every victim of catarrhal trouble knows it for himself if he has tried them.

A local application, if it does anything at all, simply gives temporary relief; a wash, a dave or powder, does not reach the seat of the disease which is the blood.

The mucous membrane seeks to relieve the blood of catarrhal poison by secreting large quantities of mucus, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils descending to the throat and larynx, causing an irritating cough, continual clearing of the throat, deafness, indigestion and many other disagreeable and persistent symptoms.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal treatment; a remedy which will gradually cleanse the system from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion always present in the mucous membrane.

The best remedies for this purpose are Eucalyptol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, but the difficulty has always been to get these valuable curatives combined in one palatable convenient and efficient form.

Recently this has been accomplished and the preparation put on the market under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; they are large pleasant-tasting lozenges, so that they may be slowly dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane and finally the stomach and intestines.

An advantage to be considered also is that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, morphine or poisonous narcotics, so often found in catarrh powders, and the use of which often entails a habit more dangerous than the disease.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cts for full sized package and are probably the safest and most effective catarrh cure on the market.

THE PROVINCIAL CHANCE.

Some of the Talk it Has Produced in Political Circles.

(Montreal Gazette)

There are evidences of a pretty little family quarrel over the appointment of the new premier of Quebec. The old Liberals are angry over what they call the passing over of Mr. Robidoux, and blame Mr. Tarte for the whole affair. A strong effort is being made to patch up the breach but Mr. Robidoux's friends say they will take their revenge at the proper time.

The Presse, referring editorially last night to the matter, says that the utmost efforts were made to induce Mr. Robidoux to enter the new Cabinet, and that a promise was even made to him that he would be appointed judge immediately after wards if he would only consent to enter the Cabinet. "For four years they have been making me play to that music, that would suffice Mr. Tarte," was Mr. Robidoux's answer, according to the Presse. Messrs. Tarte and Fitzpatrick, the Presse adds, managed the whole affair. "The old Liberals at Montreal" goes on the Presse, "feel humiliated by the choice of Mr. Parent, owing to the intervention of the federal authorities, and a prominent Liberal is reported to have said: "It is simply legislative union disguised. Ottawa designates the prime minister of Quebec, admits one and abstracts another and arranges to impose upon us general elections to renew in the province, elections for which there is no reason, which Mr. Marchand refused to agree to, despite Mr. Tarte's most pressing demands and which neither the majority of the Liberal members in the Legislature, nor of even the old Cabinet itself wished for. It is therefore the Ottawa Government which governs and the Provincial Government exists simply to register its wishes."

Mr. Robidoux is also credited by the Presse with the intention of presenting himself against Mr. Tarte at the parliamentary elections, and he is reported as saying: "It is time to know who is de trop in the Liberal party, Tarte or I." The Premier, in conclusion, suggests that Sir Wilfrid should place at the disposal of Mr. Parent the $500,000 or $600,000 a year due to the province for the development of agricultural and colonization and for public distribution. This compensation, it says, would be particularly welcome when Quebec is engaged in a life and death struggle against its more powerful rivals.

A GORGEOUSLY BOUND

Work of art has just been issued at an outlay of $100,000, for which the publishers desire a manager in this county, also a good solicitor; good pay to the right party. Nearly 100 full-page engravings, so numerous paper, illuminated covers and binding; over 200 golden lines in the Morocco bindings; nearly 50 golden roses in the cloth bindings. Sells at sight; presses running day and night so great is the sale. Christian men and women making fortunes taking orders. Rapid promotions. One Christian woman made clear $300 in four weeks taking orders among her church acquaintances and friends. Write us. It may lead to a permanent position to manage our business and look after our large correspondence, which you can attend to right at your home. Address J. A. Knight, Secretary, Corcoran Building, opposite United States Treasury, Washington, D. C.

ENTERTAINED THE LADIES.

Maritime Provincial Club Entertained the Ladies.

Covers were laid for about eighty of the sons and daughters of the Maritimes Provinces a few days ago, in the large banquet hall of the United States Hotel, Boston. The occasion was a banquet tendered by the Maritime Provincial Club to the lady officers and members of the newly formed Ladies' Auxiliary which was instituted on the 13th of September. About thirty ladies were initiated on that occasion under the supervision of Mr. A. C. Chisholm, President of the Maritime Provincial Club, assisted by Messrs D. A. McDonald and W. J. Fisher.

After initiation of members, the ladies proceeded to the election of officers and the following were installed for the remainder of the present year:—

Miss Lily Mitchell, President.
Miss Annie Bradley, Vice-President.
Miss Theresa Gallagher, Rec. Sec'y.
Miss Barbara McDonald, Cor. Sec'y.
Miss Margaret Fisher, Treasurer.
Miss Florrie McDonald, Warden.
Mrs. A. G. McDonald, Fin. Sec'y.

At the banquet President Chisholm of the M. P. Club presided, and introduced the speakers of the evening. On his right sat Miss Mitchell, President of the newly formed Ladies' Auxiliary. Prominent among the members present were Dr. William Johnston, Dr. John R. McKinnon and Mr. D. A. McDonald. After dinner speeches were made by President Chisholm, Miss Mitchell, Dr. Johnston, Messrs. Joseph Grant and D. A. McDonald. Song and story were interspersed.

The affair was very enjoyable and contributed greatly to a better understanding of the aims and objects of both societies. All the speakers dealt with problems confronting both clubs, and urged cooperation in order to carry on the work for their mutual advantage. Enthusiasm for the work was most marked, and on all sides were heard expressions of wishes that the future may hold many opportunities for similar reunions. The following ladies and gentlemen were present: Misses Tillie Mitchell, Annie Bradley, Margaret Fisher, Barbara McDonald, Lizzie McDonald, Nellie Pheasant, Nellie Cashon, M. A. McDonald, Katie McDonald, Margaret J. McDonald, Flora S. McDonald, Annie McDonald, M. E. McDonald, Elizabeth McDonald, Mary McAdams, Annie McInnery, Katie Carroll, J. McPhee, E. H. Fisher, B. L. Campbell, Helen C. McKinnon, Nellie Gallagher, Mary Mitchell, Nellie Mitchell, Clara Cunningham, Mrs. Cassie M. Gillis, Messrs A. G. McDonald, D. A. McDonald, J. Grant, W. D. McDonald, John McKenzie, J. A. Gillis, A. C. Chisholm, W. J. O'Donnell, W. J. Fisher, C. F. McPherson, A. D. McPherson, R. McLean, J. McLellan, Alex. Chisholm, J. A. McDonald, James Chisholm, J. C. Drohan, J. H. Chisholm, Dr. Wm. Johnston, Dr. McKinnon, Joseph Fortune.

SOLOMON SLOW'S ADVICE.

What I Would Do or Have Done if I Were Boss.

I would do away with the death trap called the steamer Southport.

I would have our School Board tell us why they grant favors to one pupil and refuse others.

I would keep our street clean.

I would run our watering cart properly.

I would add more policemen to the force.

I would let our police do their duty.

I would like to know what our Liquor Licence Inspector does to earn his salary.

I would enforce the Liquor Act.

I would close all bars at the time specified by the Act.

I would ask Premier Farquharson if he does not know that his famous act is violated more than one hundred times a day and every night with his full knowledge and consent.

I would have our Premier tell us if he is not aware that hundreds of dollars are being wasted in the job at the Provincial Building.

I would like to have Sir Louis (our own Sir Louis) tell us what the fishery officers do to earn their big fat salary. But by the way, they have to draw their salary; I suppose they think that is work.

I would get our Admiral another pleasure yacht—one all for himself. It is not fair to have other officials using his.

I would, oh yes, I would, get a nice private yacht for the agent of the Department of Marine. It is not fair for him to be subject to the wishes of our Admiral.

The Brant is a nice little pleasure boat; but, well, we are here and you are there.

I would let the public know what it costs per year to run the steamer Brant.

SOLOMON SLOW.

—The Hamilton Herald (independent) observes: "A few days ago the Herald said the Tories had no constructive policy to put before the people in this campaign. That criticism has been weakened by the publication of Sir Charles Tupper's manifesto. A constructive policy is outlined in that manifesto, it is a good policy, too."

—The Mail and Empire reports that Lieut.-Col. Hughes has returned from the war, having made a fine record as a soldier of the Queen. By his friends he will be received as the visitor should be. Another battle awaits him, and we rather think he will be victorious in that also.

A New Over Coat

You can do without it, but will you, when you can buy one made of best English all wool Whipcord, same as seen in cut for $10.00.

No, of course you won't, but you were a little doubtful about it when you thought you'd have to pay $18.00 for it, weren't you now.

Come Soon

As you can and get the first choice of one thousand new overcoats we've opened up the past few days.

Suits to suit you $8, $10, $12, $14, $15, $18.

Pants by the thousand, 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2, $3, $4, $5.

Furs, Furs, Furs,

The ladies' and children
Pretty Boas,
Elegant Ruffs,
Handsome Collars,
Wearable Jackets.

All Fur, all well lined, some of them have very elegant lining according to the price.

We've bought furs for two large stores this year and so have bought more than any store in P. E. I., therefore bought them just a shade cheaper, when they're sold to you they're just a shade cheaper, see.

Here's the cheapest place on P. F. I. to get you furs.

Our furs are elegant and durable — easy to buy.

PROWSE BROS.

The Leading Fur Men and Clothiers.