IN MEMORIAM

HERRING — In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. Montford Herring, who passed away June 30, 1957.
One sad and lonely year has passed
Since our great sorrow fell.
The shock we received that evening
We still remember well.
She bid no one a last farewell
She said goodbye to none
The heavenly gates were open wide
A loving voice said "come".
As angels keep their watch up there
O, God, please let her know
That we down here do not forget
We love and miss her so.
Exer remembered by husband and family.

HERRING — In loving memory of Mother, Mrs. Montford Herring, who passed away June 30th, 1957.
This month comes with deep regret,
It brings back a day we'll never forget.
You fell asleep without goodbye,
But memories of you will never die.
Lovingly remembered by Jean, Don and boys.

SHAW — In loving memory of Aubrey C. Shaw, who passed away July 1st, 1956.
Asleep in God's beautiful garden,
Away from all sorrow and pain,
Someday when life's journey is over,
We shall all be together again.
Sadly missed and always remembered by wife Elva and daughters Olive, Inez and Eleapor.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Irwin, Dr. Laidlaw, the nurses and staff of the P.E.I. Hospital to the Clergy and to all those who sent flowers, cards and letters. Also those who visited me while I was a patient there. Thank you.
Mrs. John Currie.

We wish to sincerely thank our kind friends and neighbours who sent messages and cards of sympathy, and all who helped in any way, during our recent sad bereavement. A sincere thank you.
Mrs. Carrie MacNeill
Mrs. Oliver Paynter.

IN MEMORIAM

WILLIAM B. GRAHAM

There passed to his eternal reward at Murray Harbor North, on April 3rd, William B. Graham in his 80th year.

Willie B. as he was affectionately known was born in Murray Harbor North, the son of the late Adam and Janet Graham.

Until his retirement, the deceased was a successful farmer and general handyman in the community. A bachelor, he lived alone since the passing of his mother some years ago. A sister, Lizzie also predeceased him.

Being of a kind and genial nature his ready wit, keen sense of humor and infectious smile, made him a friend and companion to all with whom he came in contact.

A man of high intelligence and keen observation, he was a studious reader and possessed an abundant knowledge of the history of the early pioneers in this area.

During his lifetime he took an active interest in the affairs of the community and for many years was treasurer of the presbyterian Church, of which he was a devoted member. He was a Post Master of the Loyal Orange Order and a life member of St. Georges Lodge A.F. and A.M.

The day preceding his demise he was around about his home as usual and spent some time in the evening conversing with friends, who frequently visited him. At noon, the following day, a neighbor calling on him, found that he had peacefully passed away in his sleep. A fitting close to a useful and well spent life.

The funeral services, largely attended, were held in the Presbyterian Church on April 6th and conducted by the pastor, Rev. M.C. Currie, who based his timely and appropriate message from the Gospel of St. John 14:2. Hymns sung by the choir were 'The Lord's my Shepherd' 'The Haven of Rest' and 'What a Friend we have in Jesus'.

The masonic burial service was conducted by the brethern of St. Georges Lodge, who fittingly interred their late brother with full Masonic Honors. The Pallberarers brother Masons were: Stanley Llewellyn, Howard Reid, Cameron Clow, Hazen MacLure, Percy McPherson and Garnet Reid.

Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.
Far though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

In loving memory Babe.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. PETER A. GALLANT

The community was saddened April 17th when it became known that Mrs Peter A. Gallant, nee Eugenie Blanchard had passed away at her home in Oyster Bed, at the age of 83. She had been ill for five weeks.

Aunt Janie, as she was fondly called by many, led a very active life until a couple of years ago A fervent Catholic, she was always ready to lend a hand when called upon in time of death, birth, or sickness. She spent most of her life as practical nurse.

During her illness, she was visited many times by her devoted pastor, Rev Joseph Leclair, who administered the last rites of Holy Mother Church.

Her husband predeceased her in 1937, a son, Mathias, met accidental death in 1936 while working in U. S. A Another son, Stanislaus died in 1931 after a very short illness, when she herself was ill. she will be sadly missed by her family and a host of friends

She leaves to mourn, a daughter Aldona, R.N. who lived at home and nursed her tender'y through her illness. Another daughter, Lucille, Mrs Angus Doucette of Oyster Bed; Cyril, also of Oyster Bed, and Angus of Moncton, N.B.

The funeral mass, which was very largely attended, was celebrated by the pastor; Rev. Clarence Pitre, a former pastor conducted the service at the grave.

Among those attending the funeral were Mrs. Angus Gallant, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Arsenault, all of Moncton, N. B., Alban Gallant, Mrs Jacques Gallant and son Clem, of Souris, Eric Arsenault, Mrs. Anita Maddix, Rene Maddix, Mrs. Anthony Gallant all of Egmont Bay.
