HOME.

The old grey mansion looks upon the woods,
The lawns lie green beneath the mellow light;
I hear the olden song of fallen floods,
That fills the silent hollow of the night.
That is the chamber-window whence I sprang;
Those the old oaks of many centuries,
In whose great leafy boughs I loved to hang,
And make strange playmates of the mighty trees.
The stream I leapt in boyhood dashes down
In falls and mossy windings, as of yore;
Still sleeps the sunlight on the hill's dense crown,
Whose base is ocean swept with ceaseless roar.
And once that roar seemed music—once I lay
In the rich orchard, underneath the sky,
In childish visions all the summer-day—
It seemed the whisper of eternity.
All the long solitary years of life
Forgotten, I am now again a child;
Forgotten all the earnest toil and strife,
Behold me wilful, petulant, and wild.
Again a child! On, were it true in deed,
That I might meet you, playmates of the past,
Nor this unresting spirit inly bleed
With a poor happiness which may not last.
Again a child! those wavering branches then,
Where the last echoes of the stream rejoice,
Might yield that unforgotten form again,
And I might once more hear my mother's voice.
Where southern seas under bright heavens lie
That voice has haunted oft the summer air.
Oh. come thou now, beneath no alien sky,
And teach thy sorrowing child another prayer.

HOGARTH'S RED SEA.—Hogarth was once applied to by a miserly old nobleman to paint on his staircase a representation of the destruction of Pharoah's hosts in the Red Sea. The miser, however, would not agree to to give more than half the value of the work, which at last Hogarth agreed to take. Within a day or two the picture was ready. The nobleman was surprised at such expedtion, and called to examine it. The canvass was all over red. "Zounds!" said the purchaser, "what have you here? I ordered a scene of the Red Sea." "The Red Sea you have," said Hogarth, still smarting at having his talents undervalued. "But where are all the Israelites?" "They have all gone over." "And where are the Egyptians?" "They are all drowned." The miser's confusion could only be equalled by the haste with which he paid his bill.

STITCHES IN A COAT.—There are, according to a statement made by a tailor in Boston, 25,243 stitches in a coat, viz., basting 782; in the edges of the coat, 4.590: felling the edges, faces, &c., 7,414; out of sight, in the pockets, &c., 1,982; in the collar alone, 3,056; seams, 5.359; holes, 1,450. The coat was made in two days, journeyman's hours.

A HINT TO PARENTS.—The prison statistics, in an educational point of view, clearly indicate that the cause of so many being brought up before the judge, is owing to their being so badly brought up before they arrive at maturity

ONE BUTTON WANTING.—In the late news from China a story is told of a rebel who, having killed an Imperalist soldier, dressed himself in his coat, to which he had added some buttons that were wanting, and went into the imperialist camp to ask for some ammunition. But the wretch having sown on one more button than the regulation allowance, was found out and decapitated instantly.

A wag who was standing in State-street, Boston, saw a man rolling a keg of specie from his cart to the institution for which it was intended. "There," said he to the old fellow, who was standing by him, "there you see the benefit of our institution; there is a man who came to this country six months ago as poor as poor could be, and now you see he is rolling in riches."

The gentleman who inadvertently took onr new beaver, and left an inferior article in its stead, will do us an infinite kindness by returning our own, and he shall receive our warmest thanks, and two apologies—an apology for the trouble we have given him, and the "apology for a hat" he left us.

What two places' names will describe the language of a parent who refuses to give his daughter in marrage?—Ushant, Havre. (You shan't have her.)

When an after-dinner orator, owing to a fuddled intellect, is unable to carry out his ideas, it is a pretty sure sign that he will very shortly have to be carried out himself.

A physician dislikes to meet a healthy, rugged, "never-say-die" looking sort of man, who evidently "throws physic to the dogs," and would be right glad to toss the doctor after it.

Mr. Nailrod, who prided himself upon knowing almost as much about his neighbours' affairs as they did, put the question point blank to Cloots, the executor of the late Mr. Snodgrass. "Mr. Cloots," says he, "if it is not improper—I wouldn't wish to ask the question if it is the least improper, nor expect you to answer it—will you inform me how much my particular friend Snodgrass has left?" "Certainly," said Cloots, "I don't see the least impropriety in your asking, and am perfectly willing to answer it. He left every penny he was worth in the world, and didn't take a halfpenny with him." Nailrod felt small, and went out.

Halifax, 12th July, 1853.

ARCHIBALD SCOTT, Esq.

SIR,—As the Agent of various Fire Insurance Companies, I beg to bring under your notice my PATENT ARTIFICIAL SLATE. This composition has been upwards of, three years extensively used in New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island, the Canadas and Nova Scotia, principally for covering shingled roofs, as yon will perceive by the accompanying circulars of certificates. It has been severely tested, and proved most success fully its fire proof qualities under most extraordinary circumstances; so much so, that I am of opinion that Fire Insurance Companies should encourage its general appiication to all kinds of wood building (where the color would be no objection to its being used, such as he back walls of dwellings in the city, out houses, ware-houses, &c., as well as the roofs) by lowering the premium of insurance on such buildings as are covered.

I have the honor to be, sir,,
Your obedient servant,
J. W. ROSS.
Patentee and Manufacturer

Halifax 14th July, 1853.

SIR,—In answer to your note of the 12th inst. I consider the use of your "Artificial Slate Paint" on shingled Roofs, as greatly diminishing the risk against Fire—I have frequently reduced the premiums on Buildings in the Country, upon its application,

I am, sir, your ob't servant.,
ARCH'D. SCOTT.
Insurance Agent.

The Wonder of the World!

Devines' Compound Pitch Lozenge.

THE Great Remedy is at last discovered, and COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA. COSTIVENESS AND CONSUMPTION have lost their terror, and vanish as as if by magic before this Sovereign remedy. Was it ever before known that, Hopeless cases of Consumption were crred for less than $5?

Truly, if any individual is to be pitied, and needs sympathy, it is the consumptive,—always expecting to get well, and yet the painful evidence of decay almost "makes the inner soul shrink with the outer flesh."

"Some bloom as roses bloom,
And live as roses live,
A single morning space!"

While others, in more mature life,—by some imprudence and a slight cold neglected,—in the hectic flush, the painful cough,

"The prints of their parting steps appear."

All we ask is this one question:—If you have got mucous membranes, or any other members of the body that are "heirs to ills."—are you not interested n this great remedy, DEVINES' COMPOUND PITCH LOZENGE

GLEASON'S PICTORIAL.

ON the first of January next, Gleason's Pictorial will commence its sixth volume, and will appear vastly improved in all respects, with a superb new heading, new type and dress throughout, and will be printed upon the finest paper. As the proprietor of the Pictorial has purchased the entire good will of Baruum's New York Illustrated News. and has merged that journal in the Pictorial, the public will reap rhe advantage of this concentration of the strength of the two papers upon one, both in tho artistic and the literary departments. The same brilliant host of contributors and artists will be engaged on Gleason's Pictorial as heretofore, aud a large addition is also made to the corps, both in talent and number. The most liberal arrangements have been completed, and such as will enable the Proprietor to produce by far the finest illustrated journal yet published, and much superior to the present issue of the paper. The columns of the Pictorial will constantly be beautified by all that can please and instruct in art and nature, and its literary department will fully sustain the high reputation it has so long enjoyed.

The pages of Gleason's Pictorial will contain views of every populous city in the known world, of all buildings of note in the eastern or western hemisphere, of all the principal ships and steamers of the navy and merchant service; with fine and accurate portraits of every noted character in the world, both male and female. Sketches of beautifnl scenery, taken from life, will also be given, with numerous specimens from the animal kingdom, the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, and will present in its mechanical execution an elegant specimen of art. It will contain fifteen hundred and sixty-four square inches, giving a great amount of reading matter and illustrations—and forming a mammoth weekly paper of sixteen octavo pages.

LIVER COMPLAINT,

DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE, CHRONIC OR NERVOUS DEBILITY, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, AND ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM A DISORDERED LIVER OR STOMACH;

Such as Constipation, inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin & Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of evil, and Great Depression of Spirits, can be effectually cured by

DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, No. 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are, withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

Read and be Convinced.

The "Philadelphia Saturday Gazette," says of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.

"It is seldom that we recommend what are termed Patent Medicines, to the confidence and patronage of our readers; and therefore when we recommend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgotten after they have done their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universally prized, and which has met the hearty approval of the faculty itself."

"Scott's Weekly," said, Aug. 25—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon a weak system."

MORE EVIDENCE.

J. G. Moore, Esq., of the Daily News said, October 31st:—

"DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We are trying this renowned medicine for a stubborn disease of the bowels, and can with truth testify to its efficacy. We have taken the contents of two bottles, and we have derived more benefit from the experiment than we derived previously from years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our first physicians."

Hon. C. D. Hineline, Mayor of the City of Camden, N. J., says:

"HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organ, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration, is really surprising It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver and nervous system, the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a trial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can For sale wholesale and retail at produce evidences of the same merit."

THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE, No. 120 Arch street, next door below Sixth. Philadelphia, and by respectable dealers generally throughout the country.

In this mammon-worshipping Age, it is rare to find a man place his usefulness to the public, before his interest. During a late visit to the 'City of Spindles,' we were presented by a professional friend, to the celebrated Chemist, DR. J. C. AYER, whose name is now perhaps, more familiar than any other, at the bedside of sickness, in this country. Knowing the unprecedent popularity of his medicines, and the immense sale of them, we had expected to find him a millionare, and rolling in wealth. But no, we found him in his laboratory, busy with his laborers, among his crucibles, alembics, and retorts—giving his best personal care to the compounds, on the virtues of which, thousands hang for health. We learned, that notwithstanding his vast business, and its prompt returns in cash, the Doctor is not rich. The reason assigned is, that the material is costly, and he persists in making his preparations so expensively, that the nett profit is small.—American Farmer, Phil.

CHERRY PECTORAL,

For the rapid Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

Among the numerous discoveries Science has made in this generation to facilitate the business of life—increase its enjoyment, and even prolong the term of human existence, none can be named of more real value to mankind, than this contribution of Chemistry to the Healing Art. A vast trial of its virtues throughout this braad country, has proven beyond a doubt, that no medicine or combination of medicines yet known, can so surely control and cure the numerous varieties of pulmonary disease which have hitherto swept from our midst thousands and thousands every year. Indeed, there is now abundant reason to believe a Remedy has at length been found which can be relied on, to cure the most dangerous affections of the lungs. Our space here will not permit us to publish any proportion of the cures effected by its use, but we would present the following:—aud refer further enquiry to my American Almanac, which the agent below named, will always be pleased to furnish free, wherein are full particulars, and indisputable proof of these statements.

Office of Transportation, Laurens R. R., S. C., Aug. 4, 1853.

J. C. AYER. Dear Sir,—My little son four years old has just recovered from a severe attack of malignant Scarlet Fever, his throat was rotten, and every person that visited him, pronounced him a dead child. Having used your CHERRY PECTORAL in California, in the winter of 1850, for a severe attack of Bronchitis, with entire succes, I was induced to try it on my little boy. I gave him a tea-spoon-ful every three hours, commencing in the morning, and by ten o'clock at night, I found a decided change for the better, and after three days use he was able to eat or drink without pain.

Its use in the above named disease will save many a child from a premature grave, and relieve the anxiety of many a fond parent.—For all affections of the Throat and Lungs, I believe it the best medicine extant. A feeling of the deepest gratitude, prompts me in addressing you these lines,—but for your important discovery, my little boy would now have been in another world.

I am yours, with great respect,
J. D. POWELL, Supt. Trans., L. R.R.

Rock Hill, (Somerset Co.,) N. J., July 21, 1852.

Dr. J. C. AYER,—Since your medicine has become known here, it has a greater demand than any other cough remedy we have ever sold. It is spoken of in terms of unmeasured praise by those who have used it, and I know of some cases where the best they can say of it, is not too much for the good it has done. I take pleasure in selling it, because I know that I am giving my customers the worth of their money, and I feel gratified in seeing the benefit it confers.m

Please send me a further supply, and believe
Yours, with respect,
JOHN C. WHITLOCK.

Almost any number of certificates can be sent you, if you wish it.

Windsor, C. W., June 26, 1852.

J. C. AYER. Sir; This may certify that I have used your CHERRY PECTORAL for upwards of one year; and it is my sincere belief that I should have been in my grave ere this time if I had not. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, and I do not overstate my convictions when I tell you it is a priceless remedy.

Yours very respectfuliy,
D. A. McCULLIN, Attorney at Law.

Wilksbarre, Pa., September 28, 1850.

DR. J. C. AYER, My dear Sir,—Your medicine is much approved of by those who have used it here, and its composition is such as to insure and maintain its reputation. Invariably recommend it for pulmonary affections, as do many of our principal physicians.

I am your friend,
