CURRENT NOTES.

Lady Anne Blount, daughter of the Earl of Lovelace, and his late Countess, Ada Augusta Byron, is said to be a speaking likeness of her grandfather, Lord Byron.

France will have a nice little bill to pay, over the Madagascar affair. It is said that the total claims sent in against France by subjects of Great Britain for losses caused by French bombardments in Madagascar, amounts to $2,000,000.

Mrs. Case and her husband, occupied seats in the compact throng on the balcony of the club-house, at the race in New York the other day. When Jay-Eye-See passed under the wire the third time, winner of the match, she threw her arms spontaneously around the neck of her husband, and gave him a hearty kiss.

Counsel for Sergt. Mason, who attempted to shoot Giteau, applied to the Secretary of War for a copy of the judge advocate general's review of proceedings of the court-martial by which Mason was tried. The Secretary refused the application, on the grounds that the document was confidential communication.

A new bug or beetle is committing depredations upon the elm trees of Massachusetts. He is as handsome a bug as ever used wings or legs. This bug or beetle, is about two-thirds the size of the ordinary Colorado potato bug.

The fashion of having a lot of sunflowers growing in a window as a guard against malaria is growing in New York. A leading florist in that city said he didn't see why a lot of sunflowers growing in a window of an apartment house, should keep off malaria as well as a bed of sunflowers growing in the yard of a house.

Even in Germany there are a few clouds upon the political horizon. It is stated that the agitation in Bavaria for the extension of the suffrage is rapidly spreading, and meetings are being held daily in all the large towns to promote the passage of a law granting a larger popular vote.

The Queen of Italy, it is related, in the course of a railway journey, stopped at a certain station, and was met by the Mayor and Municipal big-wigs in all the glory of their robes of honor.

THE Store and Dwelling House on Queen Street, now occupied by Alexander McKenzie. Possession given immediately. Apply to E. J. HODGON, 21 Water Street, or ALEX. MCKENZIE, on the premises.
