WHY DO YOU SUFFER

From Rheumatism, When an Application of Griffiths' Menthol Liniment Will Relieve All Your Suffering in a Few Minutes? It is an Antidote for Any Pain.

Mr R. A. Pilgrim of Pilgrim Bros., soda water manufacturers, Hamilton, writes: A short time ago I was attacked so badly with muscular rheumatism in my wrist that it caused my arm to swell to the elbow, the pain being almost unbearable. Griffiths' Menthol Liniment was applied, and in a few minutes the pain left me, and in less than six hours every trace of swelling and soreness had entirely disappeared. It certainly does cure rheumatism. Price 25 cents, by all druggists.

The Old Man Had Changed.

A Lancaster county man once came to a Philadelphia portrait painter with a request that he paint a picture of his father. "Very well." said the artist; "have the old gentleman come in when next in town, and I will give him a sitting." The man replied: "He can't do dot; he is dait."

"Oh, well, then, you have a photograph of him?"

"No; I don't got no fottograf of him eider."

"Well, how do you expect me to paint the portrait of your father when I cannot see him and have nothing to give me an idea of his appearance?"

"Vell," he replied, "I dinked maybe of I dolt you aboul him you can baint him from dot."

"All right," said the artist, "describe him."

"Vell, my fadder was not so dall und not so short; he vas not fat und not so din." And so the honest fellow proceeded to describe his father as he recalled him.

The artist undertook to paint the picture, and in due course it is completed, and the Lancaster county man comes in to view the results of the artist's efforts. As the canvas is disclosed he gazes long and reverently upon the picture of his departed parent. Then he feelingly remarks: "Yah, dot is mine fadder! Mine fadder vat I loafed so much! But, ach himmel, fadder, how you haf changed!"

A Beautiful System.

The Memphis Scimitar tells of a recent bride whose husband noticed that she was keeping an itemized account of the household expenses. In looking it over one day he noticed at the bottom of each page or two the letters "D. K. W." This somewhat puzzled him. He really found it very difficult to keep from thinking about what these letters could possibly mean. It occurred to him that possibly his wife was saving out some money to buy something for him. But then he knew that his initials were not "D. K. W," and this did not prove a satisfactory solution to the matter.

So one day when his wife was in a real good humor he took her in his arms and asked what she meant by "D. K. W, 50 cents," "D. K. W., $1" and the like.

She replied: "'D. K. W.' stand for 'don't know what.' Whenever I went to balance my account at the end of each page and found I had spent money for which I could not account, I just put in a sufficient amount, with the item 'D. K. W.,' to make it balance just exactly."

The Wheelish Expression.

"Do you see that interesting looking young man?" asked the young woman.

"The one with the furrowed brow and the scared look in his eyes?"

"Yes; don't you think he has a mobile face?"

"Emphatically. It is an automobile face."

An Old Fashion Revived.

"They seem to be reviving an old fashion in feminine apparel over in the Philippines."

"What's that?"

"Hoops."

"Really?"

"Yes. They were around the barrels that held Mrs. Aguinaldo's captured frocks and things."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
