Remember When

(By The Canadian Press)

Thirty-six years ago today Ottawa Rough Riders bowed out of the Ontario Rugby Football Union. They have not gone back to the O.R.F.U., and are now in the circuit of the "Big Four" — the Interprovincial Union.

LOUIS RETAINS TITLE WITH 11-ROUND KAYO

Challenger Puts Up Stiff Battle Before Sudden And Dramatic Ending Of Scrap

BRIGGS STADIUM, Detroit, Sept. 20—After chasing Bob Pastor around 30 minutes and getting nowhere, Joe Louis knocked out the former New York collegian in 38 seconds of the 11th round tonight to retain his world's heavyweight boxing championship. Louis weighed 200 pounds; Pastor 183.

After flooring Pastor four times in the first round and once in the second, Louis couldn't do a thing with the back pedalling husky until his left shot out with sudden fury in the 11th. Pastor dropped, managed to raise himself to his knees but could not get to his feet before referee Sam Hennessey counted the full 10.

A crowd estimated at 40,000 contributed to a gross gate of around $400,000 to see Louis successfully defend the title for the eighth time since he won it from Jim Braddock in 1937.

Pastor, after his weak start came on in the eighth, ninth and 10th, and once, in the eighth, had the Brown Bomber befuddled with a two-handed sally.

Louis seemed minus just about all of the fire and fury that has chopped down his most recent opponents mercilessly, but he still packed dynamite in his fists.

Louis' Right Hand

It was Louis' right hand that had Pastor on the floor four times in the first round and again in the second the former New York University footballer was on the verge of annihilation.

On two other occasions Bob was badly hurt. Yet each time the knockout spark was lacking in Louis. Joe was slow to take advantage of the opportunities and seemed unable to box with the boy who came up off the floor, defended beautifully, and even came back to carry the fight to the champion in the later heats.

Pastor tried, however, and that in the end cost him the fight just past the midway mark of the first scheduled 20-round heavyweight title fight in a quarter century. Less than half a minute after the 11th round got under way, Louis suddenly leaped in and fired a short right and Pastor went down.

He rose to his knees at the count of four, but couldn't go any farther. There he huddled, head hanging and blood dripping from a cut over his left eye, as the referee counted.

In his dressing room later Pastor said he "didn't see the punch coming"

Eye Full Of Blood

"My eye was full of blood," he explained, "and I was blinded. The punch paralyzed me and I didn't know anything until I heard the referee count nine."

With this bout past, Louis looks forward to a return match next summer with Tony Galento, who gave him a lot of trouble for three rounds last June. Promoter Jacobs indicated he may give Pastor another crack at the champion, after Bob fights once or twice more, and immediately Jimmy Johnston, Pastor's manager, asked for Galento.

Round By Round Of Title Fight

DETROIT, Sept. 20-(CP)-Round-By round description of th eLouis-Pastor 20-round Championship battle tonight follows:

ROUND ONE

ROUND TWO

ROUND THREE

Louis jabbed twice with his left and took the same punch to his face n return. A right cross had Pastor wobbling once more. Pastor continued to back away. In close, Louis connected with a short right to the cheek. Louis sent a long left to the eye. Pastor connected with an overhand right to the cheek and a left to the jaw. Pastor landed a left under the ear as Louis continued to jab waiting for a right hand opening. Pastor sent a left that grazed the cheek and another that landed on the face as Louis continued to shuffle forward and jab. Pastor's round.

ROUND SIX

ROUND SEVEN

Louis connected with a left to the chin then repeated the punch. A short right opened a slight cut under Pastor's eye. Pastor was back pedaling and Louis was trying to find an opening. Two rights bounced off Pastor's mouth and more blood showed. Louis shot another pair of lefts to the mouth. Pastor landed a short right and then clinched. Louis sent a long left and then a right to the jaw which shot Pastor's head back. Pastor leaped in and landed lightly with a left and right to the head. A vicious right caused Bob's knees to buckle but he came back with left and right to the face. They were moving about right at the bell. Louis' round.

ROUND EIGHT

ROUND NINE

They exchanged a series of straight lefts with no effect. Pastor sent a left to the face and took a right and left to the head in exchange. Pastor connected with a straight left to the jaw. Louis fired his left to the nose and was again waiting for a right-hand opening. Louis missed with his right and Pastor put three light lefts to the jaw as Louis countered with two lefts. Pastor's right grazed Louis' chin then Louis stabbed three times with his left. Louis put a left to the nose and took a left hook on the chin at the bell. Pastor's round.

ROUND TEN

They exchanged lefts to the face which did no damage. Pastor sent a short choppy left to the chin. Louis speared Pastor with his long left. Pastor backed away and continued to jab. Pastor sent a short right hook to the chin and then received two hard lefts on the face. A short right to the mouth hurt Bob. Louis sent two short lefts to the face and a long left under the eye. Both stabbed with lefts and Pastor backed away. A short right opened the cut under Pastor's left eye. A long left raised a slight mouse under Louis' left eye at the bell. Pastor's round.

ROUND ELEVEN

Again they boxed, throwing light lefts, and then Louis hit Pastor with a long left and followed with a short right in mid-ring and Pastor was unable to get off his knees as referee Henessy counted ten to give Louis a victory in 38 seconds of the 11th round.

Browns Push Three Runs Across In 16th Inning To Defeat Red Sox 11-8

NEW YORK, Sept. 20—Steve Sundra ran his American Baseball League victory string to 11 games without defeat by scattering 11 hits as New York Yankees bagged their second straight game from Chicago White Sox 8-4 today.

At Boston, darkness was threatening to end the struggle at a tie as St. Louis Browns hammered three runs in the 16th inning to take the longest game of the season from Boston Red Sox 11-8.

In Washington Cleveland Indians used Washington Senators as a stepping stone to undisputed possession of third place in the league, beating them 7-2 behind the six-hit pitching of Mel Harder.

At Philadelphia, the Athletics came from behind twice to defeat Detroit Tigers 5-4 in 13 innings.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20—Carl Hubbell outpitched Bill Lee at Chicago today to give New York Giants a 4-2 National Baseball League victory over the Cubs. The veteran southpaw effectively spaced eight hits and both runs scored against him were unearned.

At Cincinnati, Bucky Walters won his 26th pitching victory of the year and gave the Reds a ninth-inning 3-2 triumph over Philadelphia. The Reds' vaunted hitting attack still was missing but afield they backed up Walters in flawless fashion.

In St. Louis, the Cardinals' spirit overran Brooklyn with two rallies in the late innings for a 10-4 conquest that kept them still within 2 1-2 games of the league-leading Cincinnati Reds.

A doubleheaders between Boston and Pittsburgh was rained out.

Will Form Pre-season BowlingLeague

Representatives of four bowling teams are asked to be in attendance at the Charlottetown Bowling Alleys tonight at 7 o'clock with the intention of forming a pre-season City League and allowing as many of the bowlers a chance to get in some trundling in these uncertain war times. The idea promises to go over big and the following teams are asked to have representatives present: Ted's Taxi, Jimmy's Taxi, Roops and the Five Aces.

SCHOOL TEACHERS WON'T LOSE

GLACE BAY, N. S., Sept. 19—(CP)— School teachers here who serve in Canada's armed forces during the war won't lose out financially.

On return from war service, the school board decided last night, teachers in the army will get their jobs back and will be paid the difference between the amount they received in the army and what they would have earned on the basis of present salary.

No Changes To Be Made In Plans For Running Of Nat. Hockey League

DETROIT, Sept. 20—(AP))—Officials of the National Hockey League decided today at their annual meeting that no change would be made in 1939-40 plans because of the war and the complications it may cause in Canada.

President Frank Calder of Montreal said he understood some players already had enlisted in Canadian units but that the League policy would be to "carry on" indefinitely.

Canadian conscription does not seem to be an immediate likelihood, Calder said.

It was decided to hold a benefit game for the family of Babe Siebert, veteran star and playing coach of the Canadiens who drowned this summer.

One rule change was made. The penalty shot distance was reduced from 30 to 28 feet.

The International team title and Hamilton Russell Trophy went to the German team when they finished play last night a half-point ahead of the Polish side. The war was reflected in the presentation ceremony when the crowd perfunctorily applauded the Germans and wildly cheered the Poles.
