

The Call to Arms.

82ND BATTALION TO THE FRONT

Brigade Major Irving last evening received the following despatch from Deputy Adjutant General Taylor:—

HALIFAX, N. S., May 13.

You are ordered to call out two companies of the 82nd Battalion for active service in the North-west. You can make up the numbers from the officers and men of other companies. They will be attached to the New Brunswick Battalion, under Col. Maunsell.

JOHN B. TAYLOR.

These companies were in accordance with the above order called out. The companies are No. 3 of Charlottetown, under command of Capt. Stewart, and No. 4 Company of Little York, which will probably be commanded by Captain McLeod, of Hunter River, as Major Malou is in ill health. The shortages from these companies will be filled up by detachments from the various companies of the 82nd Battalion. The two companies will consist of forty men each, and three officers—Captain and two subalterns to each company. No. 3 Company, 82nd Battalion had its first parade last evening upon a very short notice. Twenty-three of the rank and file, and three officers were present. Col. Beer addressed a few appropriate remarks to the men on parade, who thus responded the call for active service with enthusiasm.

The men ordered for service will muster in the drill shed to-morrow morning at ten o'clock. It is expected they will leave to join Col. Maunsell on Monday morning.

They will be equipped as fully as possible here, which will be pretty thorough, as all the Companies of the 82nd Battalion are in possession of knapsacks, mess-tins, and other equipments.

In response to a telegram asking how many men he could furnish, Capt. McLeod, of Hunter River, replied last evening that he could furnish twenty or thirty.

Local and Other Items.

REV. GEORGE W. HODGSON is very much better.

THE letter of C. C. Gardiner, Esq., will appear to-morrow.

DR. HOBKIRK, who has been ill for some days, is worse to-day.

ROBERT A. MCKENZIE, of West Branch River John, Pictou, died suddenly on the morning of Friday last. His wife after a brief illness, died on the evening of the previous day.

A SAILOR'S BODY, washed ashore at Pictou Island, is believed to be that of Arthur Brown, one of the 13 men drowned last November while working on the wreck of the steamer Inverlath.

ANOTHER fresh lot of Seeds just received at R. K. Brace's, consisting of Clover, Timothy, Vetches, Pasture Mixture, Orchard Blue Grass, Red-top, Meadow, Fox-tail, Sweet-Vernal, &c., &c.

ANOTHER fracas between Orangemen and Catholics, in Conception Bay, Nfld., was quelled before any serious consequences occurred. Some of the combatants were severely wounded. Knives and other deadly weapons were freely used.

AMONG the passengers by the R. M. S. Nova Scotian for England yesterday was the Rev. Dr. Hill, who is to be absent for some months. Rev. Mr. Sampson, of Trinity, takes charge of St. Paul's parish during his absence.—Hc. Chronicle.

A YOUNG man named Andrew Doake, while picking up and marking logs at the mouth of the Beccaquamic, fell into the river and was drowned. His body has not yet been found. The deceased was fifteen years old and was formerly a resident of Woodstock.

Geo. DAVIES & Co's advertisement, announcing the arrival of their spring and summer goods, issued a little late for insertion to-day, will appear to-morrow. This stock has been carefully selected in the best markets, and is marked at prices which ensure a ready sale.

THE Public Temperance Meeting, on Tuesday evening, in the Academy of Music, was addressed by T. C. James, Esq., and Rev. Mr. Carruthers. The chair was filled by G. M. Barrett, Esq., of the Sons of Temperance. The speeches were eloquent appeals on behalf of Temperance and Prohibition. Mr. Carruthers, in speaking of the enormity of the liquor traffic, showed that the people of this Canada of ours, pays sixty-four millions of dollars for the privilege of drinking intoxicating liquors. The Hon. B. Rogers, of Alberton, being present, responded to a call from the chair in a short but pithy address. A vote of thanks, moved by J. W. Morrison, Esq., and seconded by John Bowers, Esq., was tendered to the speakers, and the meeting closed. Why not have a series of similar meetings held in Charlottetown at the present time. Something of that kind seems to be greatly needed.

Particulars of the Fight.

SOME PERSONAL SKETCHES.

Poundmaker Fires the Prairie and Vanishes.

TROUBLE BREWING IN THE FAR WEST.

BATOCHE, VIA CLARKE'S CROSSING, May 13.

General Middleton telegraphs:—

I have just made a general attack, and carried the whole settlement.

The men behaved splendidly. The rebels are in full flight.

I am sorry to say I have not got Riel. While I was reconnoitering this morning, Win. Ashley, one of the prisoners, galloped in with a flag of truce, and handed me a letter from Riel, saying:—

"If you massacre our families we shall massacre the prisoners."

I sent for answer that if he would put the women and children in one place, and let me know where it was, not a shot should be fired on them.

I then saw my chance and ordered a general advance. The men responded nobly, being splendidly led by the officers and Colonel Straubenzie. They drove the enemy out of rifle pits and forced their way across the plain and seized the houses.

We are now masters of the place, and my forces will bivouac here right in the heart of the action.

Shortly after the despatch of my reply to Riel, Ashley came back with another message from Riel as follows:—

Your prompt answer to my note shows that I was right in mentioning to you the cause of humanity. We will gather our families in one place and as soon as done will let you know.

(Sgd.) LOUIS DAVID RIEL.

On the envelope was written as follows:—"I do not like war and if you do not retreat and refuse an interview, the question remains the same concerning the prisoners."

Our loss is heavy; but not so heavy as might be expected. The killed are:—

CAPT. FRENCH, commanding scouts. LIEUT. FITCH, 10th Grenadiers. CAPT. BROWN, of Boulton's scouts. A. W. KIPPEN, surveyor. PRIVATE W. WHEELER, 90th battalion Winnipeg.

The wounded are:— LIEUT. GORDON, surveyor. LIEUT. LAIDLAW, 10th Grenadiers. MAJOR DAWSON, 10th Grenadiers. SERGEANT MAJOR WATSON, 90th Winnipeg Battalion. PRIVATE GOURY, 90th Winnipeg Battalion. PRIVATE MARSH, 10th Grenadiers shot in arm. BUGLER GAIGHAN, 10th Grenadiers. PRIVATE BARBIER, wounded in the head. PRIVATE QUIGLEY, wounded in the arm. PRIVATE MARSHALL, 10th Grenadiers, wounded in the calf of the leg. PRIVATE WILSON, 10th Grenadiers, wounded across the back. PRIVATE BARTON, Midland County Battalion, wounded in the thigh and groin—serious. CORPORAL HELLIWELL, Midland County Battalion, wounded in the face and arm. LIEUT. HELLIWELL, wounded in the shoulder. Prisoners have all been released, and are safe. Among them are Jackson, the white man who was Riel's secretary, but who is mad and rather dangerous. (Signed) MIDDLETON.

Killed and Wounded—Personal Sketches.

OTTAWA, May 13.

The following particulars are about some of the killed and wounded:—

STAFF-SERGEANT MITCHELL was a well known crack shot, having been five times at Wimbledon. He has a brother in the 90th Battalion. He is married and is about 32 years of age.

ADJUTANT MANLY is an M. A., of Toronto University, and Mathematical Master of the Collegiate Institution.

MAJOR DAWSON is a member of the firm of Dawson & Co., wine merchants. He is about 46 years of age, and in 1853 joined the 47th Regiment as Ensign, returning in 1857 with rank of Lieutenant while the Regiment was at Halifax.

PRIVATE SCOVILL is a law student. His father is in Australia.

LIEUT. LAIDLAW is a son of George Laidlaw, for some years President of the Credit Valley Railway.

LIEUT. FITCH (killed) is a member of the firm of Fitch & Davidson, wholesale grocers. He is an only son, and his parents are distracted. He was a brother-in-law of Senator Clewov, of Ottawa.

LIEUT. HELLIWELL and CORPORAL HELLIWELL, of Midland battery, are brothers, their father has been a resident of Amherstburg, Ont. Both are law students.

CORPORAL GILLIS is a Wimbledon man.

PRIVATE WHEELER, (killed) is a brother to Geo. Wheeler, who was killed at Fish Creek.

HARDISHY, (killed) is a native of Manitoba, and son of one of the old Sol-kirk settlers. He had just returned from Egypt.

CAPT. FRENCH (killed) was 38 years of age. He was a native of Ireland. He attended Dublin College, and received a diploma as surgeon in 1868. He joined the mounted police on the organization by his brother, and has a large farm at Qu'Appelle. He was a very daring fellow. Sir John Macdonald's son, HUGH J., appears to be unwounded on the Northcoast.

To Cut off Retreat of Rebels—Loss 9 Killed and 39 Wounded.

OTTAWA, May 14.

In the House of Commons yesterday, Hon. Mr. Caron, Minister of Militia, read another telegram from General Middleton as follows:—

"The steamer Northcoast and another steamer are coming up the river with Company C, the School of Infantry and Police, and will cut off retreat of the rebels."

The rebel loss is severe, but unknown. The wounded man brought in was Ambrose Jadin, of Riel's Council.

The total Canadian loss in the three days' fight was nine killed and thirty wounded."

Poundmaker Vanishes—Prairie Blazing.

BATTLEFORD, May 13.

Your correspondent was out with the scouts to-day, but found that Poundmaker had vanished. Speculation is rife here as to his whereabouts. Some think he crossed the Saskatchewan; others imagine he only moved into the heavy wood.

Before leaving he fired the prairie and woods.

A scouting party starts to-morrow to follow his trail.

Pallisades here have been strengthened and rifle pits have been dug.

The wounded in Col. Otter's last fight are doing well.

The prairie is all in a flame to the south-west of here.

Rebel Leaders Go West.

WINNIPEG, May 13.

There is nothing definitely known of the rebel leaders, but prevailing advices indicate that Riel, Dumont and others crossed the river and started west.

The Situation Out West.

CALGARY, May 13.

The Indians around Edmonton are greatly excited.

An Indian who had joined Big Bear went to White Fish Lake, and was going to break into the Hudson Bay store. He declared that the country and everything in it belonged to the Indians, and he was going to have his own. Loyal Indians standing by said that if he broke the door he would be shot. He persisted, and was immediately killed. The loyalists then fled for their lives.

Police scouts bring the news that settlements everywhere have been destroyed.

A start was to be made for Fort Pitt last Sunday.

Gen. Strange is making preparations as quickly as possible, as it is becoming more evident every day that the campaign in this region will be a serious one.

Big Bear has a large force, and without doubt, the apparently loyal Indians are with him at heart and will strike when the time comes.
