The "top ten" of the Prince County Hockey League season is as follows:

Looks as if there will be two from Ontario, Preston Vikings, in the top ten. The rink of Prince Edward Island's top ten is the MacDonald Brier at Charlottetown on March 2 Saturday at Moncton, a rink competing in a series of Islanders won the New Brunswick championship and will represent our neighborhood province in the Brier. A Summerside boy, David Silliphant, is the mate of the winning foursome. David was skip of the schoolboy curling rink which represented Summerside high school at the Brier.

G A Pts

If he really counts for anything, David should have been on the Brier. His father, Ralph was one of the best hockey players on the island in his day, and his mother (at that time Irene Linkletter) was a member of that fabulous team, the Crystal Sisters. We saw them play at the Preston Vikings rink from Ontario, but it was close, and it the curling rink with a hand saw that had skating, stick-handling and shooting a bit better than the curling rink's hockey. David's interests were in other sports, especially in football and football and played for Dalhousie when he attended the university, but his first love seems to be curling.

Are Champions Again

Harold Nabezy, the skip of the New Brunswick champions, and his team have won the Brier for the second time. Toy-Toy Departs

Lloyd "Toy-Toy" Gallant has gone to Halifax to play for the Seabrooks, and his absence has been felt in the ranks of the Junior B team. Coach Grant Grady and his benchwork would rather see "Toy-Toy" come home than Bill Bailey, but not enough, perhaps, to "toy the rest" of the body, and certainly not the Junior B team. Centennials Arrive Home

Centennials Arrive Home

The Charlottetown team was composed of "B" players in the tournament. The Centennials welcomed Orsinalville, Quebec, and the team of St. John's. In their next contest the opposition was much stronger in the form of the team from St. John's. The team from St. John's was the Grand Champions of the "A" division for the whole tournament.
