Provincial headquarters of the Red Cross Society has announced the names of the high school students who will represent their Junior Red Cross Councils at the training centre to be held at Montgomery Hall in Charlottetown from July 3-13. They will attend the training course along with 15 students from Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Quebec and two from the United States.

The list includes Judy MacNeil, St. Mary's Academy, Summerside; Joyce Taylor, Central Queens, Hunter River; Patricia Neal, Queen Charlotte; Charlotte; Joyce Connolly, Birchwood, Charlottetown; Estelle Gallant, Souris; Cathy Fraser, Tignish; Barbara Gordon, Summerside High; Roger Meek, Kennington; Jean Myers, Alberton; Peter Murchison and Kenneth Rice, Parkdale; Julia MacKenzie, Morell; Charles Gorrill, O'Leary; Elva Kay Small.

Michigan; Gerard Roberts, Kinkora; and Frances Hagen, Notre Dame Academy, Charlottetown.

Benita Boates, O'Leary who will be the province's representative to the International Red Cross Study Centre being held in the United States later this summer, will be in attendance at the training centre in preparation for her American tour.

It was learned that Karan Lafore of Ohio, and Dick East of Kentucky are to be the two guests from the United States who will join their Canadian counterparts at the Island's first Red Cross training centre.

One of the entertainments being keenly anticipated by the delegates, who will be kept busy with work sessions during the 11 days of the conference, is a sail in the harbor being provided by members of the Charlottetown Yacht Club, followed by a shore supper as the guests of the City of Charlottetown.

F.A. Vanderstine Is Elected Grand Master Of Masons

F. A. Vanderstine of Charlottetown was elected Grand Master of Masons in P.E.I. at the 87th annual communication of the Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Prince Edward Island, Masonic Temple, Charlottetown yesterday.

Following the opening ceremony, Grand Lodge was called to refreshment for the purpose of receiving Deputy Mayor Walter E. C. Cox who brought greetings from Mayor A. Walthein Gaudet and members of the City Council and expressed the hope that the deliberations of the assembly would be pleasant and profitable.

Distinguished visitors from other jurisdictions were Benjamin W. E. H. PGM of Masons, Senator Benjamin Butler, grand standard bearer, Grand Lodge of Meier, Gordon S. Walker, Port Hawkesbury, Grand Master of Nova Scotia, and Frank C. Thomas, PGM of New Brunswick.

Grand representatives of other jurisdictions who were present were: for Arkansas, H. R. Maynard Northam, Colorado, P. Reagh Bagnall, Hunter River; Missouri: A.E. Lavers, Charlottetown; Columbia-Barranville, Lauchlin M. Gillis, Eldon; Columbia-Boyle, Oliver C. Bernard, Eldon.

The grand representatives and past grand officers having been received with grand honours, acknowledged the same through PGM James M. Murley who was introduced as the senior past grand master in the Maritime provinces, having been elected Grand Master of Masons in P.E.I. 40 years ago yesterday.

JEWELS PRESENTED
Masonic jewels were presented to the following members who have completed 50 or more years membership: Harry James and T. Edgar MacNutt, St. John's Lodge; Gordon Hagen and Robert A. MacPherson, Victoria Lodge.

Deferred presentations go to Daniel A. MacKinnon, St. John's Lodge; Henry Hyde and John H. Malcolm, St. John's and Andrew Tuplin, Mt. Zion Lodge.

Speaking from a profound knowledge of the past grand officers having been presented, Rev. C. R. Webber, grand chaplain, addressed the members during the service which was held in the Grand Lodge.

Following the morning session the members assembled at the First Baptist Church recreation room where luncheon was served by ladies of the Order.

Chairman Foresees Successful Parade

Plans for the Gold Cup and Saurer Parade scheduled Aug. 17 are moving swiftly to completion. It was revealed at a meeting of the general committee yesterday.

General chairman of the parade, B. Earle MacDonald, said he was well satisfied with the committee's work to date and "it seems we are going to have a highly successful parade."

"We have still some time to go," he said, "and already we have enough floats, bands and marchers to put on one of the biggest parades ever seen in the city."

Float chairman Ivan Deberly told the meeting that 15 floats at least will be entered in the parade with a 16th a good possibility.

Late entry is that of DeBios Bros., who made the announcement yesterday.

Band committee chairman George V. Fraser said six bands are certain to enter the parade.

Parade scheduled for 10 a.m., on the morning of the 17th will touch off an entire day's activities in the harness racing world.

Other special features are planned for the afternoon and the evening will see the staking of the rich Gold Cup and Saurer Free-For-All at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

The Maritime's best race horses will be entered.

The race will be covered by the top sports writers and sports broadcasters in the Maritime.

Third Fire Flares In Women's Prison

MONTREAL (CP)—The third fire within 24 hours broke out Wednesday night in the Montreal women's jail on Fullum Street.

Firemen said it appeared to be serious. Equipment from two stations was sent to battle the blaze.

Both earlier fires were set deliberately, officials of the jail said today. The jail holds 56 women.

7 Undersized Lobster Cases Heard In Souris

SOURIS — A total of seven cases of possession of about 10 short lobsters, Colton Chapman, Murray Harbor was fined $25 and costs or 30 days on a charge of possession of liquor, not purchased at the vendors. The charge had been laid last winter, however the accused had left the province before he could be brought into court. Sentence arose after the police arrested him recently.

The charge of assault, laid against Preston Earl Jenkins, Red Point, by his wife was withdrawn by her. She also paid the court costs.

Malcolm Daggie MacLusky, Souris East, charged with possession of liquor not purchased at the vendors, Kenneth Trainor, Souris had his case adjourned until July 11 on the charge of possession of illicit spirits under the Excise Act.

Howard John MacDonald, Albion Cross, charged with possession of liquor not purchased at the vendors, Kenneth Trainor, Souris, charged with causing a disturbance in a public place by being drunk.

Three cases of possession of liquor in a place other than a vendor, Kenneth Trainor, Souris, charged with causing a disturbance in a public place by being drunk.

Car Ditched, 3 Injured At South L.

SOURIS — Two residents of Murray River and one from Montague are in the P.E.I. Hospital, following an accident last night when a 1959 Ford sedan, believed to be driven by Mrs. Ethel Hunt of Murray River missed a turn and went into the ditch.

The other occupants in the car were, Alva W. Allan, Montague, and Mrs. Frank Horton, of Murray River and possibly a child. The accident occurred near South Lake.

They were taken to hospital in Charlottetown by Dingwall ambulance. However the extent of their injuries is not known.

VIP Aircraft Strongly Urged

OTTAWA (CP)—The government's VIP (Very Important Persons) transport plane has been sent back to the manufacturer to get the "bugs" out of it.

Jack Hunter, superintendent of flight operations for the transport department, said Wednesday the new $1,200,000 jetliner has been sent back to Lockheed Aircraft Corporation at Burbank, Calif. for "a complete electrical inspection."

The jetliner had already been sent back to the factory once for overhaul after engine damage.

With 122 points a piece were Ivan Cormier, Richmond; Heather and Janet Jones, Pownal; Wayne Helen and Carol Dickson, New Glasgow.

The official ceremonies including the guest speakers' appearances will be at 1:30 p.m. after the chicken barbecue dinner at 12:30.

There will be Junior, senior age during spring training camp.

The plane probably will be put back in service in September.

Nfld. Not To Ask For Sask. Doctors

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Health Minister James McGrath said Wednesday that Newfoundland, experiencing a shortage of doctors, will not deliberately try to attract doctors from Saskatchewan.

"We would be glad to have them," Dr. McGrath said in an interview, "but we don't feel that we should embarrass a sister provincial government by making any specific offers to get them."

Calico, fine cotton cloth originating in India, is mentioned in chronicles earlier than the Christian era.
