Beauty

Is desired and admired by all. Among the things which may best be done to enhance personal beauty is the daily use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. No matter what the color of the hair, this preparation gives it a lustre and pliancy that adds greatly to its charm. Should the hair be thin, harsh, dry, or turning gray, Ayer's Hair Vigor will restore the color, bring out a new growth, and render the old soft and shiny. For keeping the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, there is no better preparation in the market.

"I am free to confess that a trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor has convinced me that it is a genuine article. Its use has not only restored the hair of my wife and daughter to be

Abundant and Glossy,
but it has given my rather stunted mustache a respectable length and appearance."—R. Britton, Oakland, Ohio.

"My hair was coming out (without any assistance from my wife, either). I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, using only one bottle, and I now have as fine a head of hair as any one could wish for."—R. T. Schmittou, Dickson, Tenn.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor in my family for a number of years, and regard it as the best hair preparation I know of. It keeps the scalp clean, the hair soft and lively, and preserves the original color. My wife has used it for a long time with most satisfactory results."—Benjamin M. Johnson, M. D., Thomas Hill, Mo.

"My hair was becoming harsh and dry, but after using half a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it grew black and glossy. I cannot express the joy and gratitude I feel."—Mabel C. Hardy, Delavan, Ill.

Nobility.

True worth is in being, not seeming—
In doing each day that goes by—
Some little good—not in the dreaming
Of great things to do by and by.
For whatever men say in blindness
And spite of the fancies of youth,
There's nothing so kingly as kindness,
And nothing so royal as truth.

We get back our mete as we measure,
We cannot do wrong and feel right,
Nor can we give pain and gain pleasure,
For justice avenges each slight.
The air for the wing of the sparrow,
The bush for the robin and wren,
But always the path that is narrow
And straight, for the children of men.

Tis not in the pages of story
The heart of its ills to beguile,
Though he who makes courtship to glory,
Gives all that he hath for her smile.
For when from her heights he has won her,
Alas! it is only to prove
That nothing's so sacred as honor,
And nothing so loyal as love!

We cannot make bargains for blisses,
Nor catch them like fishes in nets;
And sometimes the thing our life misses
Helps more than the thing which it gets.
For good lieth not in pursuing,
Nor gaining of great nor of small,
But just in the doing, and doing
As we would be done by, is all.

Through envy, through malice, through hating,
Against the world, early and late,
No jot of our courage abating—
Our part is to work and to wait.
And slight is the sting of his trouble
Whose winnings are less than his worth;
For he who is honest is noble,
Whatever his fortunes or birth.
—Alice Cary.

Coleman Notes.

A public meeting was held in the school-room at Brae, Lot 9, on Friday, 13th inst., for the purpose of choosing a candidate to contest the Second District of Prince County in the Conservative interest. After appointing A. J. McDougald, M. D., to the chair, the meeting was opened.

The first speaker was Donald McLeod, Esq., who in a stirring speech showed the way this part of the district had been neglected.
Mr. Angus McKinnon was the next speaker. In a very neat speech he defended the present Government, showing the necessity of a Conservative candidate to be elected in this district.

Other speakers, Strang Hart, A. P. Brennan, Esq., W. T. Rogers, F. K. McKenzie and others heartily endorsed the views of the first speaker.
A resolution was laid on the table asking Mr. Angus McKinnon, of Coleman, to be nominated as a proper person to represent us. Several of those present spoke at some length, almost unanimously agreeing that the latter be nominated. The chairman then divided the house on the resolution, and, with the exception of eight or ten, all present agreed to support Mr. McKinnon at the coming election.

As Mr. McKinnon is a strong supporter of the Conservative party we think his chances are good at the coming election, as the present members are neglectful of their duties.
Mr. McKinnon also carries on a large business in this place and is well liked by all that have any business with him.
ELECTOR.

Boston Market Prices.

BOSTON, Dec. 12.
POTATOES.—Receipts for the past six days, 116,000 bushels; previous six days, 88,500 bushels. Chenangoes are coming along freely, four cargoes arriving on Wednesday. The demand holds up well, however, and prices have advanced 2 to 5 cents during the week. The receipts of New York, Maine and New Brunswick car stock at the roads have been only moderate with a fair trade at generally higher prices. Some lots of New York Burbanks and Stars are selling in a small way at 65c., but this is not a reliable quotation for the general market. We quote:—

P. E. Island Hebrons.....65 to 60
" Rose.....65 to 60
" Stars and Burbanks.....60 to 60
" Silver Dollars.....60 to 60
" Chenangoes.....55 to 58

EGGS.—Receipts for the week: 2 boxes, 123 barrels, 8,165 cases; last week, 100 boxes, 495 barrels, 4,719 cases. Receipts have been heavier this week, and included a larger proportion of new laid. Prices for extra fresh stock are ruling lower, 25 cents being about top for extra eastern, and extra Michigan and western have to be sold at 25 and 26 cents. Island firsts sell at from 24 to 25 cents.

FISH.—Mackerel dull, and in the absence of demand quotations are nominal.

Personal.

Mr. Charles H. Caban, of the Halifax Herald editorial staff, is spoken of as a possible candidate for the representation of Shelburne County in the Nova Scotia Legislature. Mr. Caban would make a very efficient representative.
The young Prince Albert Victor, now making a tour in India, is having a good share of adventures, and adventures of a somewhat dangerous kind. Two have already been chronicled, where he was nearly pitched off the back of an elephant, and where the horses drawing his carriage ran away and nearly spilled the royal occupant. He has just dogged a third mishap. At Mysore the Prince was watching the tying the process of elephants, when one of the animals, being no respecter of persons, got loose and charged full at the distinguished visitor. Instantly there was confusion and dismay. Colonel Sanderson, one of the Prince's attendants, gallantly rushed

Local and Other Items.

CHRISTMAS DAY—this day week.
UNLESS more care is given to the hair, the coming man is liable to be a hairless animal; hence, to prevent the hair from falling use Hall's Hair Renewer.

A PUBLIC APPEAL.—It is stated that the managers of the school for the blind, Halifax, will make a public appeal for $10,000 to add a new wing to the building.

THEATRICAL.—The Boston Comedy Company will give a performance in Moncton on Saturday evening. The piece will be the "White Slave."

The special quality of Ayer's Hair Vigor is that it will restore the natural growth, color and texture of the hair. It vitalizes the roots and follicles, removes dandruff, and heals itching humors in the scalp. In this respect, it surpasses all similar preparations.

JOURNALISTIC.—The Moncton Daily Times is at hand this morning in an enlarged form. Each of the twenty-eight columns is lengthened about an inch and a half, giving altogether nearly two columns of extra space. Good!

SALVATION ARMY TROUBLE.—Patterson, N. S., has a Salvation Army trouble. The captain was fined $5 and costs and cautioned against further obstructing the sidewalk. They repeated the offence, when three of the soldiers were arrested.

MANY an otherwise handsome face is disfigured with pimples and blotches, caused by a humor in the blood, which may be eradicated by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the safest blood medicine in the market, being entirely free from arsenic or any deleterious drug.

BURIED ALIVE.—A case of premature burial has developed at Madison, Wisconsin. A month ago diphtheria appeared in the home of a prominent family. A young domestic was terribly frightened, and desired to go to her home in the country. The attending physician would not permit this, as her assistance was needed by the family. A child died of the disease, and this, with her horror of the disease, caused the girl to take to her bed. She apparently died in a few hours, and was at once buried by the authorities. A few days ago her parents obtained permission to remove the body to the country. Upon opening the casket they discovered that the body was lying on its face, the hair was wrenched from the head, and the flesh torn from the face and hands.

P. E. Island Horses.
From a well-known local horseman, who is well acquainted with that prominent dealer in horseflesh, Mr. W. S. McKie, a Telegraph reporter learned something of the P. E. Island horse trade. Mr. McKie commenced to deal in horses some ten years ago, and since that time he has handled more than 3,000 P. E. Island horses. A large number of these animals have gone to various portions of the States of Maine and Massachusetts. In these states, as well as in St. John, for the past three years, Mr. McKie has sold an average of 100 horses per year. During the spring and summer season the animals brought to the city have been drivers and family horses, for which customers are always found in this market.
In the fall and winter season a class of horses suitable for the lumber woods, weighing up to 1,600 lbs. and sometimes heavier, are brought by him to this market. These have been disposed of to all the leading New Brunswick lumbermen and have given satisfaction. The drivers and family horses brought in the summer have been sold here by Mr. McKie to a number of the leading business firms, private individuals, and proprietors of livery stables.
Out of the last lot of horses brought here two were sold to Yarmouth people and a like number went to Grand Falls, the rest being bought in the city. Mr. McKie has disposed of about 200 horses in this city during the last three years. The horses are purchased in all parts of the Island, those which are bought in the spring and summer running up to about 1,000 lbs., and the fall animals for heavy team work 1,600 lbs. and over. Mr. McKie left this city for Charlottetown last Thursday afternoon and will not likely visit St. John until the opening of navigation.—St. John Telegraph.

Destitution in Dakota.

URGENT APPEALS FOR AID MADE TO ALL CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.
A special despatch to the Chicago Herald from St. Paul, Minn., says that A. A. Paine, a school teacher residing in Mackintosh County, North Dakota, arrived here yesterday and told a harrowing tale of distress in the northern parts of that county. The settlers there are all Germans, with the exception of six Russian Jew families, and Paine is the only man there speaking English. He brings a petition from the settlers appealing for aid, and stating that unless provided with clothing they will suffer severely from cold, and are in danger of starving for want of food. Paine himself had a pair of overboots on his feet, but he determined to secure assistance for the poor settlers if it took every cent he had. One man, who recently had dinner at Paine's house, said it was the first time he had tasted meat in two months. A long and pathetic letter has just been received from Geo. A. Morse, a prominent citizen of Gaulton, Faulk County, S. D., telling of the suffering among the farmers there, owing to the failure of their crops. An urgent appeal for food and clothing is made.
