Group: Luba
 Title: Luba

This Montreal based five piece band have released quite an impressive debut album.

Luba's Rock/Pop style has received acclaim from club audiences where ever they have played.

Their hit single, "Everytime I See Your Picture", is included on this specially priced, 4 song mini album.

Lead Vocalist, Luba Kowalchuk, (now you know why they just call her Luba) has a very strong voice, reminiscent of Pat Benatar.

All songs on this record are potential hit singles. Keep a lookout for Luba in the future.

Group: Streetheart
 Title: Dancing With Danger

"Dancing With Danger" is Streethearts follow up L.P. to their 1982 hit singles, "One More Time", and "What Kind of Love is This". Although the new material may not be as "catchy" as that found on their previous recors it is better equipped to survive the test of time.

The groups popularity over the past several years can be credited to the many talented musicians that have contributed to their sound, (i.e. the group's experienced vocalist, Kenny Shields as well as guitarist Paul Dean and drummer Matthew Frenette who are currently with Loverboy.)

Best songs include, "Dancing With Danger" and "Too Hot to Stop".

Group: Don Henley
 Title: I Can't Stand Still

This debut solo album from the long time "Eagles" member, Don Henley, is already making waves as it rushes for the number one position on the pop charts. The albums first hit single, "Dirty Laundry"-- a song about news hungry reporters, brings back sounds from the Eagles classis "Hotel California".

The record also includes guest performances by Eagles guitarist, Joe Walsh, and songwriter, Bob Seger.

Best cuts include, "Dirty Laundry", "Johnny Can't Read", and "I Can't Stand Still".
