

The Wrong Image.

HOW A DUDE WAS FRIGHTENED AT THE REFLECTION OF ANOTHER MAN IN A MIRROR.

Nature had done a great deal for him; he looked like a dude that had been made to order. He was taking his first afternoon's stroll in the most recent of his spring suits, and evidently enjoyed to the full the many glances which were cast toward him.

Give the Women A Chance.

We are apparently in the midst of an epidemic of embezzlement, says the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Defaulters, forgers, and swindlers of all kind abound, and dishonesty among trusted employees is beginning to shake our confidence in human nature.

There is a partial remedy, which is worth trying. This is to employ women as clerks, and to let women handle the cash.

Young women have not the temptations of young men. They do not smoke and drink and haunt billiard-rooms. They do not spend money on hack-riding and on frail companions. They do not know how to bet; they have no chance to gamble.

Women who are so fortunate as to be given a chance to earn their living are regular in their habits. They are honest, sober, industrious, accurate, decent, and safe.

A great many women are already employed in all departments of business, and in all capacities. We doubt whether there is a case on record of one of them turning out a thief.

The Historian and His Horse.

George Bancroft still rides on horseback two hours daily and on Sunday three hours and a half. He recently received from Kentucky a proposition to know if he would pay 1,000 for the fastest walker in the state, four and half years old. He took the horse "on approval" and this is the fine-gaited animal which he constantly rides.

The National Capital.

"Mose, what am de nashunal capital?" "Do nashunal capital? Why, any fool knows dat." "Well, den, 'spose you tell us." "De nashunal capital am Washington."

CURRENT NOTES.

Dr. T. Sterry Hunt has been elected president of the Royal Society of Canada.

The Italian government has declared its determination to enforce the law regarding the Propaganda property.

Prof. Sumner says the decapitation of Mr. Morrison's tariff bill was "only an accidental collision in the irrepressible conflict."

Things in Cuba are in a bad state. Large numbers of people are emigrating to Central and South America, as a consequence of the political and commercial troubles.

The positive man makes the best lover and the best hater. He loves and hates with all his might. He is no sneak, and never sits on the fence. You know where to find him every time, and his friendship is to be prized above that of him who is "a friend to everybody," because he has no fixed and positive opinion of right and wrong.

IT is a fact worth knowing that Mrs. Sophia Potter's Bone Rheumatic Liment cannot be excelled for removing pain and soreness. It is no worthless trash, as some may suppose, simply because they have been imposed upon by others but is positively the "King of Pain." Sore throat cannot stand before its power.
