A case of forgery was adjourned until this morning. A man charged with illegal consumption of liquor was fined $10 and costs or 20 days in jail.

MEETING CANCELLED—Word has been received from Mr. Rand Matheson, manager of the Transportation Commission of the Maritime Board of Trade, expressing regret that he is unable to be present here Tuesday night to discuss the railway proposal a pick-up and delivery. The meeting called by the Charlottetown Board of Trade for this purpose has therefore been cancelled until after the meeting of the Transportation Commission at Sackville on June 30.

DIES IN ONTARIO—Mr. George Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Collins, of Alliston, this Province, died at his home in Port Francis, Ontario, according to word received here last night. Mr. Collins had been unwell for some time, it was learned. His death occurred Saturday and the funeral would be on Tuesday, it was announced. Mr. Collins had been in western Canada for slightly more than 30 years.

FUNERAL AT HUNTER RIVER—Mr. John Wares, who died at Hunter River on Friday in his 89th year, was buried in Portage Cemetery yesterday. Services were held at the home of Mr. Ellisworth and were conducted by the Rev. W. A. McQuarrie. Pallbearers were: Messrs. Nelson Sicaud, Peter Martin, William Simpson, John Wares, Robert Stevenson, and Nelson Moore. Rev. Mr. McQuarrie conducted services at the graveside.

GOLDEN WEDDING—Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Campbell, of 649 Cornwall St. Victoria, B. C., will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary on Saturday. Mr. Campbell will be remembered as a former principal of Summerside High School, principal of West Kent Street School, Superintendent of Education and member of the board of the 105th P. E. I. overseas battalion. Their marriage took place on July 3rd, 1889 at the home of the bride, the former Miss Ella Wood, a sister of the Rev. Mr. Goldsmith, the bride being attended by her sister, now Mrs. Cyrus Moore of Union Road, and by her brother Ernest, now of Victoria, B. C., and who will attend the anniversary celebration. The six children of the marriage, all born in this province, are: Mrs. M. W. Campbell, Mrs. George H. at Ladner, B. C., Mrs. W. Wigginton at Red Willow, Alberta; Mrs. R. Baker, Mrs. E. Proffit, Mrs. Norman Gray and Mrs. M. J. Powell, all of Charlottetown. There are also six grandchildren. The Guardian joins with many friends, former pupils and comrades-in-arms in extending congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Campbell.

200 CHICKENS BURNED—City firemen answered a call Saturday night for two for slight fires but the third, about 10 o'clock at night destroyed a small barn, 200 small chickens and a dog, and owned by Mr. Harry Richmond, 215 Sundry Street. In addition the rear of his dwelling was considerably damaged as well as a portion of a private garage owned by Mr. Newell Robinson, Richmond Street adjoining the burning barn. Fire had made great headway when discovered and nothing could be done to save the barn which was leveled to the ground. The fire was believed to have originated in a brooder used to keep the baby chicks warm. Damage was unofficially estimated at several hundred dollars. A call for firemen Saturday got many of them out of bed at 4.45 a.m. when a acetylene torch in Horne's Garage set fire to a gasoline tank of a truck. Damage was slight. The second call was at 9.30 Saturday morning for a slight blaze at Mill's Meat Market on Hillsboro Street. Damage here, too, was slight.

REMANDED FOR SENTENCE—Michael Drain and Wilfred Bradley, both of Charlottetown were found guilty Saturday of being in possession of a stolen Chinese Restaurant on Queen Street when they appeared before His Honour Judge C. Gavan Duffy in criminal court. The men were remanded for sentence. They were committed to Supreme Court for trial by Superior Magistrate K. M. Martin when charges were laid last winter. Last week they pled the Speedy Trials Act. Evidence intimated the two men had been in the Union Cafe in an intoxicated condition and had refused to leave the premises. Members of the City Police force gave evidence Saturday. Mr. J. O. C. Campbell appeared for the prisoners while Assistant Crown prosecutor F. A. Large represented the Crown.

Gala Night; Presentations Made

The Oddfellows of this province had a gala night at the regular meeting of Wilsey Lodge No. 27, I. O. O. F., held in this city on Friday evening last. There were large attendance composed of a delegation of visitors from Summerside and Montague, together with a goodly number of local members who took part in the interesting services in connection with the work of the Order.

In addition to regular business of the lodge, Bro. A. B. Gill, Grand Master of the jurisdiction in which the lodge is situated, presented a forty five year jewel to Bro. James T. MacKee on behalf of Eastern Star Lodge No. 101 of Pictou, N. S., and offered some appropriate remarks on this auspicious occasion. Bro. MacKee made a suitable reply, and expressed his thanks for this high tribute from the members of the Order.

The Second Degree was conferred upon a class of six candidates by a degree team from Summerside, after which the Third Degree was conferred upon a class of nine candidates by a degree team from Charlottetown lodges, both teams doing their work in a very efficient manner which won continued applause from the members present. After the conferring of the degrees Bro. Fulton Adams, District Deputy Grand Master, presided, and called upon some members of the different lodges for remarks such as they felt suitable to offer. Brothers from the various lodges congratulated the members, who were loud in the praise of the work done by the degree teams, and expressed ideas and opinions that would be expected to improve the lodge on the order and increase the benefit to the membership.

After lodge was closed the large assemblage retired to the banquet hall where a sumptuous repast was spread before the members, which was greatly enjoyed and was followed by usual "Sing Song" under the leadership of Bro. Percy Worth assisted by Bro. Huestis of Summerside at the piano. Bro. Geo. Bonness also of Summerside contributed some excellent solos in his own inimitable style which were also much enjoyed.

TO BEGIN IN TEN DAYS—Arriving from Moncton, N. B., Friday engineer E. C. Percy of the Department of Transport, said work would begin on the development of the local municipal airport in 10 days. Word has been received from V. I. Smart, Deputy Minister of Transport, that as far as possible and with the exception of key men, local labor would be used in the work.

EXCURSION CRUISE—The S. S. Hochelaga with an excursion party of board from New Glasgow, Pictou and Stellarton arrived in Charlottetown yesterday morning and left on return at 7 in the evening. It is understood the Holy Name Society from the Nova Scotia centers named had the steamer chartered. Despite the rather cool dark day the excursionists apparently enjoyed themselves.

BURGLARS ENTER STORE—Lawlor's Store on the corner of Great George and Sydney streets was entered by burglars Saturday night or early Sunday morning and a small quantity of goods taken. Principal loot was said to be cigarettes. Value of the goods taken including some cash was said to be $13.00. Entrance was gained through a cellar hatch in a vacant house adjoining, police said. Saturday morning the store of Joseph Shama on the corner of Hillsboro and Euston Streets was reported burglarized and goods valued at $35.00 taken. Here, also, cigarettes formed major portion of the loot. Some coppers in the till were taken. Entry was gained through a hatchway in the rear
