Would "extra" money make your summer vacation "extra" special? Then here's how to get it: make up a list of articles around your home which you no longer need. Out-grown children's playthings, for instance, or perhaps that old washing machine, an idle bike, sports equipment, or just about anything that others can use.

Next, Dial 8506 and describe what you have to offer in a fast acting Guardian-Patriot Want Ad! P. E. I. folks are always on the lookout for second-hand articles in good condition. And because the Guardian - Patriot carries many of these in Want Ads they turn to its classified columns to fill their needs. If you have what they are after, they'll make quick contact and offer cash.

To get busy now rounding up articles around the cellar and attic which you no longer need and offer them to thousands in these widely read columns. Here you'll reach many many local prospects

IN MEMORIAM
DOUGLAS — In loving memory of Oliver Wellington Douglas, who passed away July 11, 1957
Today we are thinking of someone. Who was always kind and true. Whose life was a ray of sunshine. Dear Oliver, that someone was you. We all remember, we all care. Your name is whispered in our prayers. A smile a tear, a thought, sincere. How often we wish that you were here.
A life made useful by kindly deeds. A helpful hand to others needs. A beautiful life has come to an end. He died as he lived—everybody's friend.
Sadly missed and fondly remembered by Mother, sisters and brothers.

DOUGLAS — In sad and loving memory of a dear husband and father, Oliver W. Douglas who passed away suddenly at the V.G. Hospital, Halifax, on July 11, 1957.
The pain was great, the shock severe. We little thought death was so near.
Away in that beautiful garden, God took our darling to rest. He picked him out from among us all. Because he knew he was the best.
Sadly missed and always loved by his wife and children.
