EMERALDA—tonight at the Masonic Opera House.

L. O. A.—Regular monthly meeting of St. George's Lodge to-night. Visitors welcome.

SILSBY HOSE COMPANY.—Regular monthly meeting of the Silsby Hose Company this evening at 8 o'clock, by order.

TO-NIGHT.—Mr. Vinnicombe's orchestra will be at the Masonic Opera House this evening with a choice programme.

AT OMISSION SUPPLIES.—We omitted to state before that the elegant parlor suite under the stage during the dramatic entertainment at the Opera House on Tuesday night was kindly loaned for the occasion by Mark Wright & Co.

POURCE COURT.—This forenoon David Inglis, charged with annoying Catherine McKinnon in her dwelling, was fined $1 or 4 days; James Murphy, fisherman, drunk and incapable, was fined $1 or 4 days; and John Lahey, sailor, for the same offence, was fined $1 or 4 days.

THE EASTNET.—The steamer Eastnet arrived from Halifax yesterday afternoon with a general cargo and several passengers. She left for Summerside last night about nine o'clock, and returned to Charlottetown to-day. She sails for Halifax this afternoon at four o'clock.

DON'T FORGET IT.—The managers of the tea and fancy sale in aid of the Convent de Notre Dame, to be held in the Lyceum on Wednesday and Thursday next, are making every preparation for a grand time. Arrangements have been made with the railway authorities for return tickets at one first-class fare.

A BOLD ROBBERY.—The ticket office on the ferry wharf at Southport was broken into last night and fifty cents in cash belonging to the ticket agent and also belonging to the engineer of the steamer Southport stolen therefrom. The thief effected an entrance through the wicket in the ticket office, first breaking the outside shutter and then the glass on the inside.

SHIPMENTS FROM SUMMERSIDE.—The farmer says: Mr. Doble sent away 400 lambs for the Boston market on Tuesday morning, and Mr. John Layden 200 for the same destination. On Wednesday morning Hon. Oliver Jones and Mr. G. B. Lutz of Montreal, took away five horses; Mr. J. H. Pullen took away two and J. A. Collet, of Bellevue, sent away two also. The latter go to Oxford, Nova Scotia.

SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT AT MISCOUCHE.—By telegraph we learn that Mr. Joseph DesRoches, of Miscouche, went out in a boat this morning to fish oysters. In some manner he fell overboard and was drowned. Whether he was alone at the time of the accident or not we have not been able to learn. It is said that DesRoches was subject to fits, and it is thought he was probably suffering from one when he fell out of the boat. The body was recovered and brought to Summerside to await the arrival of a coroner's inquest. The deceased leaves a large family of young children.

GOOD WORK.—The Street Committee have put down subterfuge stone crossings on Prince and Great George Streets, near the junction of Grafton, and to-day men are engaged putting down another across Queen Street, from J. D. McLeod's new store. A wooden crossing has also been put across Prince Street, from Vickers's corner, and the plankway is to be continued along the south side of Grafton Street to Church Street, near the square. There are some other sections of the city where crossings either of wood or stone would be a great boon during the sloppy weather of the spring and fall, and we trust that the good work will be continued.

THE MILITIA MEETING.—The City Hall was crowded last night by militiamen who had assembled to consider, with their representatives, the reply sent by the Minister of Militia to their last memorial. The speeches showed that the Island militia are determined to maintain their rights. The past efficiency of this branch of the service was dwelt on, and the probable deterioration that would result from the want of a resident superintendent officer, and the lack of the esprit de corps that can only be kept up when the Island is a separate military district. If the present system is continued, the officers and men unanimously declared they would resign. Mayor Haviland, Senator Macdonald and L. H. Davies, M.P., addressed the meeting, heartily sympathizing with the feelings expressed. On motion a committee was appointed to indicate to the representatives what further arguments and facts should be submitted to the Minister of Militia.

GRAND DIVISION MEETING.—The annual session of the Grand Division, S. of T., was held at North Wiltshire yesterday. After preliminary proceedings, and the initiation of a number of members, Grand Worthy Patriarch Simpson presented his report on the state of the order. The report was a very favorable one, showing, among other things, that four new divisions had been organized during the year. The Grand Secretary's report was next disposed of, and the Grand Superintendent of Juvenile Work asked the members of the Grand Division to assist him in prosecuting the work among the Loyal Crusaders. The Treasurer's report showed the order to be in a good condition financially. The plebiscite was then introduced by G. W. P. Simpson, who gave an account of the meeting held in Charlottetown some time ago. The following officers were then elected and installed for the term: G. W. P.—Rev. Mr. Kirby, Grand Secretary; G. W. A.—K. S. Wright, Grand Treasurer; G. W. B.—Wm. Brown, Grand Marshal; G. T.—D. W. Henderson, North Wiltshire; G. C.—Rev. Mr. Hamlyn, Charlottetown; G. Chap.—J. Millman, Frishtown; G. Sent.—Bro. Montgomery, Port Hill. The Grand Division meets in quarterly sessions at Cavendish in January. The April session will be held at Margate, the July session at Winsloe, and the Oct. session at Charlottetown.

SOILED, Crumpled, Unseasonable, but absurdly cheap.

Tomorrow, Friday, we will close out a lot of samples of LADIES' WHITE WEAR.

We are well aware that Wool Vests would be a more timely subject. Not only are these goods out of season, but they are soiled and crumpled.

BUT The cotton is all right, The wool is all right, The embroidery is all right, The stitching is all right, The shape is all right,

AND The price is all right.

At the same time we will close out the Handkerchiefs recently decorating our store at a "just what you'd notice" price, viz., a cent a piece—not more than six to one customer.

BEER BROS. We show superior value in Women's and Children's Wool Vests and Hosiery.

Weather Bulletin. Toronto, Nov. 2, 10 a. m. Winds mostly southwesterly and southerly; milder weather, becoming showery.

LITERARY NOTES.

Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney has taken up the pen again, and has written a series of familiar letters to American girls for publication in the Ladies' Home Journal during 1893.

Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett has been induced to revise "Little Lord Fauntleroy" in a series of articles just completed for the Ladies' Home Journal, in which she tells "How Fauntleroy Really Occurred," and traces the character of the story, the development of the character as he lived under her own eyes, and describes Fauntleroy as he is to-day—her own son.

Mr. Stockton's New "Pomona." Frank R. Stockton is to give us his delightfully interesting "Pomona," the heroine of "Huddler Grange," in a series of twenty letters which he has written for the Ladies' Home Journal under the title of "Pomona's Travels." The quaint girl is taken abroad by Mr. Stockton to satisfy her heart's longings for a social boom and to move among the English aristocracy, and in these letters addressed to her old "Huddler Grange" employer, "Euphemia," she tells her experiences abroad with her husband. The letters really constitute a serial story and will run through the entire year of 1894 in the Journal.

Personal. The doctor has advised Prince Bismarck to pass the winter in seclusion in North Italy.

Messrs George J. Rogers and George W. Gardner have arrived home from the World's Fair.

There were registered at the Hotel Davies last evening, William M. Hall, Montreal; J. G. Bunting, do; T. D. Graham, Halifax; W. M. Webster, Quebec. Thomas H. Mahoney and Patrick McKeever, two of the best known potato buyers coming this way, arrived at Summerside last evening in the Northumberland. Mr. Mahoney arrived in Charlottetown this morning.

W. J. Smith, of Truro, N. S. was registered at the Queen Hotel this forenoon. The arrivals last evening included, Miss McGregor, San Francisco; Geo. Forbes, Vernon River; W. H. Manson, Summerside; Frank Brazil, Summerside; Rev. J. H. Turnbull, Stellarton; S. M. Norris, Toronto.

DIED. At 174 Western avenue, Brighton, Mass., on October 25th, Peter S. Hughes, aged 49 years.

To Dispel Colic. Headaches and fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, in colds or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Fig.

An Ancient Oracle. A Modern Wonder!

The most ancient oracle was that of Dodona; but the most famous was that of Delphi. Croesus rendered himself renowned for the magnificent presents which he gave to that of Delphi.

It is difficult to determine which is the oldest of these remedies in origin. There are many that claim ancient origin without being able to show a record of good works. These old mixtures are fast disappearing; soon their names will be forgotten.

Modern science and research has produced the famous Harvard bronchial syrup, the most wonderful of all cough remedies. No other cough medicine of the present day can show such a record of marvellous cures; no other has attained such popularity. All classes of our country have tested Harvard bronchial syrup for coughs, sore throat, enlargement of the tonsils and irritation of the bronchial tubes, and have received almost instant relief and cure. It requires but one trial to convince the most skeptical that Harvard bronchial syrup has no equal in this world as a reliever and banisher of every form of throat and bronchial trouble.

TO-DAY the tearing down of the World's Fair buildings in Chicago commences. The process of demolition will continue throughout November, as considerable time will be required in removing the temporary structures, the erection of which involved such a large expenditure of time and money. The work of destruction will begin with the administration building, by which the United States is most distinctively represented.

We represent values in GENTLEMEN'S WEAR not to be laughed at or passed by, simply because you cannot duplicate them in the city. Our OVERCOATINGS represent the best goods in the foreign markets, and sold as close as can possibly be done consistent with goods and trimmings. Our SUITINGS are universally admired by all who see them. Because we have the exclusive right to those goods we can keep a more choice line of them, with the express object of catering to the most fanciful taste. Our FURNISHINGS are certainly of a high order, including the latest novelties manufactured. Dressing Gowns and Smoking Jackets of the latest designs. Call at your convenience.
