HON. JOHN LONGWORTH acted manfully at the Old Bank's meeting to-day. He offered to pay an additional call on all his shares—making the sum of $24,000 for him in all. Still, nothing could be done.

A GOOD JOKE, took place at the meeting of the Old Bank to-day. When the question of asking some other Bank to step in and take charge of the liquidation affairs of our Island Bank was under consideration. One director objected on the ground that an outside Bank might introduce a "new element of Banking." A good many present thought that that would not be very objectionable!

PROFESSOR SCHURMAN, of Acadia College, lectured in Halifax on the 3rd inst., on "John Milton." The Herald reports that the audience was the largest and most brilliant that has assembled in the hall during the course. During the hour and a half that the lecture occupied in delivery the audience sat in the most wrapt attention, the only break in the otherwise perfect silence being the applause which was again and again called forth by the magnificent periods which came so eloquently from the lecturer's lips. The students of Dalhousie are to be congratulated on their good fortune in being able to close their excellent course with such a splendid discourse as that presented to the delighted audience Friday night.

THE Bank of P. E. Island.
The adjourned meeting of Shareholders and Directors of the Bank of P. E. Island was held to-day. A letter was read from Louis H. Davies, Esq., which showed that the settlement of the Bank's affairs in England had not made the progress anticipated. A desultory discussion followed on the question of liquidation or resumption. The greater number of stock-holders present favored the latter, and we are informed that some of those present not only agreed to pay the calls upon the shares, but promised handsome donations. The meeting then adjourned until Thursday, the 20th inst.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, April 1st, 1881.
We take pleasure in stating that the Great German Remedy, St. Jacobs Oil, is being used by many ring artists now engaged with P. T. Barnum's Greatest show on Earth, united with the Great London Circus, Sanger's Royal British Menagerie and the International Allied shows. From its happy effect upon those who have occasion to employ it, we have no hesitation in pronouncing St. Jacobs Oil the best liniment which has ever been brought to our notice. It is wonderfully efficacious in subduing pain.

Land League Meeting.
A regular meeting of the Fanny Parnell Branch of the Irish National Land League was held at Lake Verd Schoolhouse, on Thursday, the 23rd ult. The meeting was well attended, there being over one hundred present, including several members of other Branches. The President opened the meeting with a well-delivered recitation, and after a few remarks, called upon Mr. Curran, who gave a short review of the political careers of Parnell and Davitt. He said if we persevere in this great movement, it will be the means of hurrying the landlord vipers from Ireland across the Eastern, as the reptiles were hurled into the Western, Ocean.
Mr. P. Mooney then gave a very spirited and patriotic address. He was followed by Messrs. D. O'Keefe and E. Kelly, each of whom related some episodes in the tenant life in Ireland.
Mr. R. Campbell then took the floor, which he occupied for an hour. He gave a glowing account of Grattan's Parliament, the great improvement of the country at that time, and showed the necessity of union in this movement if we want to see self-government in Ireland.
The President was then relieved of the chair, and Mr. Edward Kelly put in his place. After a few appropriate and well-selected remarks by the President, he proposed the following resolution, which was carried with enthusiasm.
Resolved, That the sincere thanks of the Fanny Parnell Branch of the Irish National Land League be awarded to Hon. G. W. Howland, for his patriotic and praiseworthy action, in furnishing the Hon. Justice McCarthy, Leader of the Irish party in the British House of Commons, with the history and explanatory papers of the late land agitation and final expulsion of landlordism from P. E. I., thereby arming him to meet Mr. Gladstone on equal terms. Be it further Resolved, That we fully endorse the resolutions adopted by the different Societies of Charlottetown on St. Patrick's day, in reference to a resolution to be proposed in the Dominion House of Commons.
As midnight was approaching, a motion of adjournment was carried.
PETER O'KEEFE, Secretary.

THE BOUNDARY QUESTION.

THE SUGAR QUESTION!!

EASTER HOLIDAYS!

Special Despatch to the Examiner.
OTTAWA, April 6.
The vote on the Ontario Boundary Question was reached yesterday morning at four o'clock. The Opposition were defeated by an overwhelming majority. Six Grit members voted with the Government. Mr. Blake was silent and disheartened. In this latest movement to raise bad feeling against the Government, the Leader of the Opposition has been completely out-generalled, and his followers in consequence are sorely depressed. One of them has admitted that the more activity they display, the surer their defeat and disappointment.

Yesterday afternoon was occupied in discussing the sugar question. Messrs. Patterson of Brant, and Thomas White of Cardwell, made excellent and convincing speeches on the motion. They were followed by Sir Richard Cartwright in a loud and abusive speech. The motion was lost. The House then went into Committee of Supply, Mr. Kirkpatrick in the chair. Several items were passed, after which the House adjourned for Easter Holidays until Tuesday next.

NEW YORK, April 5.
The Pacific coast newspapers are bitter in denunciation of President Arthur for his veto of the Chinese bill, and they predict that it will throw several States into the hands of the Democrats.
Papers generally commend the veto as sound, prudent, and patriotic, but admit that it will lead to a temporary defeat of the Republican party on the Pacific slope.
