

MISCELLANY.

For the Examiner.
ACROSTIC.
TO MISS

Lov'd one! lone one! let not dark'ning clouds of sorrow,
O'er thy sweet placid brow, suspend in gloomy weight;
Until thou see'st Hope's star forbid to rise to-morrow
In cold set, seal'd beneath the depths of fate.
Scan thy own mind, where virtue dwells in modest worth;
And Heaven be thine, when thou hast left the scenes of Earth.

St. Peter's, Sept. 14th, 1847.

J. M. K.

A PRETTY THOUGHT.
The night is Mother of the day,
The Winter of the Spring,
And ever upon old Decay
The greenest mosses cling.
Behind the clouds the starlight lurks,
Through showers the sunbeams fall;
For God, who loveth all His works,
Has left his Hope with all.

I TOLD YOU SO.

Old Hodges was ever annoyed with the din
Of "I told you so, dear—I knew it would be;"
Till his patience at length becoming quite thin,
He resolved upon taking a regular spree.

His spree being o'er at the end of the week,
He turned himself homeward, disgusted with life,
The tears, in big drops coursing down his wan cheek,
As he thought of his home and his termagant wife.

On reaching the house he sat himself down;
"Old woman," said he, "I am going to die:
I swallowed a millstone as I came up from town."
"I told you so," was her only reply.

Farm for Sale.

NINE Miles from Charlottetown, with a long lease, and situated in the old and pleasant settlement of Covehead Road. The usual custom in advertisements of this kind, is to designate all lands under tilage, as being in a high state of cultivation: in the present instance, the growing crops, consisting of about 15 acres of wheat, oats and barley, 3 of potatoes and 9 of hay, very little inferior to the crops around Charlottetown. 6 acres of fallows preparing for wheat next year, 8 acres of grass depastured two years. 10 acres have been reclaimed from a wilderness state within the last four years, and 40 acres more can be, at the trifling expense of about eight shillings per acre. The house and buildings are not new, but they are warm and convenient. There is also a large and productive garden, secured by a dyke, and a paddock of 2 acres of permanent pasture, similarly fenced, with a never failing stream of water running throughout. About 500 longers will complete the enclosure of the whole farm. A diary can be produced, showing the management of every acre of the cultivated land for the last four years; therefore, even a stranger to the soil of the Island, will be enabled to judge of what should and what should not be done hereafter. This property embraces many rare advantages, with only one material disadvantage, e. i., the rent is two shillings per acre; yet it is now cheaper than many farms, even were they free from rent altogether.

Further particulars can be known by applying to THOMAS PREEDY, Keeper of the Colonial Building, Charlottetown.
