

Local and Other Items.

WE may state for the information of our correspondent "Enquirer" and others interested, that we cannot publish the affidavits for the defence in the case of Alley vs. Duchemin without the permission of Judge Peters, who is at present in New Brunswick.

THE market was well attended to-day. Beef and pork were largely in excess of demand. Prices are as follows:—Beef, small, from 5 to 12 cts.; do quarter from 3 to 7 cts.; mutton, from 4 to 8 cts.; lamb, from 5 to 8 cts.; geese, each, from 30 to 40 cts.; ducks, from 25 to 30 cts.; chickens, per pair, from 25 to 45 cts.; butter, fresh, from 20 to 23 cts.; do tub, from 12 to 18 cts.; potatoes, from 45 to 50 cts.; hay, from 45 to 50 cts.; oats, from 25 to 30 cts.; flour, per 100, from $2.85 to $3; oatmeal, per 100, from $2.50 to $3; pork, from 3 1/2 to 4 cts.

DR. CAPEL died in the Jail of this City this morning, where he has been incarcerated for his last fifteen years. The particulars of his incarceration, as far as we can learn, are: His wife, for some reasons, made application for a divorce. The case was tried and a judgment granted for separate maintenance, which amounted to fifty pounds sterling—half his yearly income. This he refused to pay, and he was in consequence imprisoned. His remains will be interred in the Mount Edward Cemetery on Sunday.

THE mails for the present week have been very irregular. Those via Shediac were received Tuesday and Wednesday at noon respectively, instead of the evening previous. On Thursday evening at 10.15 the mail for that day was received, being one and a half hours overdue. The boat hugged the wharf at Summerside all day yesterday, and did not leave for Shediac until 9 o'clock this morning, and may be expected to return with a double mail this evening. The Nova Scotia mail has been received regularly; the steamer will however, miss the last trip of the season to Hawkesbury, which she should have made yesterday, having been detained at this port by the storm. She left at the regular hour this morning, and will return at the usual time this p. m.

JOHN GAFFNEY, Esq., has received a letter from A. L. Murdoch, Esq., Manager of the Farmer's Club Fair, of Massachusetts, stating that the samples of P. E. Island grain forwarded him have been awarded a diploma, at the above Fair. Mr. Murdoch is forwarding to Mr. Gaffney some samples of early potatoes, corn and hay seed, which were highly recommended by the judges at the Fair. It is stated that the potatoes will harvest in the garden in forty or fifty days, and in the field in thirty days earlier than the Early Rose or any other variety. They are called the "Massachusetts Perfection." Mr. Murdoch writes that the Hay Seed, called the "Red Tod," is from the Marshfield Marshes, and from better hay than can be found in the State, as it will keep horses as well without grain as they are now kept with English hay or timothy with grain.—Summerside Journal.

OWING to the great demand for potatoes and the reasonable prices paid for this commodity, the complaint against low markets has almost died out, and the farmers and merchants have been able to meet one another more cheerfully than was anticipated in the early part of the season. Still, the exceedingly low price of grain is causing the farmers to grumble, now that the roots are nearly all sold off. The price of oats is lower than has been experienced for many years, and there is scarcely any demand for what has hitherto been the chief article of export in this Province. We understand that very large quantities remain unsold towards Launching, Grand River, and numerous sections of the country. Very few vessels are engaged in the trade this fall, which is something we are not accustomed to on this Island.—K. C. Advertiser.

At the meeting of the Summerside Temperance Reform Club, held on Monday, the 4th inst., the following officers were elected for the current term: President, R. McC. Stavert; 1st Vice, Miss Ackerman; 2nd Vice, John McKenzie; 3rd Vice, Mrs. R. T. Holman; 4th Vice, Edward Dooling; 5th Vice, Mrs. Ruggles; Recording Secretary, David Schurman; Financial Secretary, Mrs. J. D. Reid; Treasurer, Daniel Stewart. The Club celebrated its first anniversary on Wednesday night. Stirring addresses were delivered by the Revs. P. Doyle, Neil McKay, R. B. McDonald and J. F. Betts, Angus McMillan, Esq., and Mr. Bartlett. This gentleman's speech was more especially directed to the young men. Choruses by the choir and music by the Band enlivened the proceedings of the evening. At the close a large number signed the pledge, and the club starts on its second year under circumstances which hold forth encouraging prospects of continued success.

THE Postmaster at Montague has been charged with tampering with papers passing through the office at that place. The Advertiser says: "Our business has been tampered with by the Postmaster at Montague during the past summer in a most outrageous manner. We allowed this to pass over in silence, expecting that the impudent fellow would be kicked out as soon as possible. This week our subscribers in Gasperaux and Sturgeon complain that they have not yet received the last Advertiser. There is a sequel to this story. Would the election of Mr. Anquet, or the allusion to the orchard last week have anything to do with it? We shall yet see. The Postal and Railway regulations as now arranged are such that the courier cannot reach the above mentioned places before ten or eleven o'clock on the Saturday night after our paper is issued. But this past week no paper at all was received. These political headquarters are not exactly the places to keep Post Offices in, and the sooner the Deputy Inspector of Post Offices makes a note of this, the better for all concerned. We are determined to lay on the lash in future wherever we detect either malice or neglect.

Alley vs. Duchemin.

To the Editor of the Examiner.
SIR,—In your evening issue of the 13th inst. you publish the "important decision" in the case of Alley vs. Duchemin Bros. You give the plaintiff's affidavit for obtaining the injunction and the evidence of several of the neighbors, confirming the plaintiff's statements; but you did not give the affidavits or the defendants' evidence for dissolving the injunction. Why not publish both sides of the case, so that the public may know the whole facts of this "important decision"? I fear there is some mistake about the statements of the pressure, the steam boiler, vibrations, buzzing, distant thunder, etc., etc. Yours, &c.,

An Ottawa despatch says: "Mr. Teale, of Utica, N. Y., will start a woollen factory, employing at least 100 operatives. The city gives him 99 years lease and exemption from taxes for ten years, and a bonus of one thousand dollars, the city holding a lien on the property."

On Tuesday last, while Mr. Donald J. Gillis, of Miscouche, was on his way home from Summerside, he ruptured a blood vessel, which resulted in instant death. This sad accident took place near the residence of Charles Green, Esq. Dr. Gillis was sent for, but before he arrived life was extinct. Mr. Gillis was an old and deservedly respected resident of Miscouche, and his sudden death will be very much regretted in that locality.—Journal.
