Mighty Mouse Leading Habs

By CHRIS ANNETT

Wall welcome back to Sports Front you avid-readers of sports. Perhaps some may have noticed that this column has been absent from the paper for more than a month and a half now. It was not supposed to happen that way but due to a web of unforeseen circumstances that is the way it happened.

A lot of water has gone under the bridge in the sporting world since I last wrote on this page (most of it tears). Right now the attention of most Canadians is centered on the British Empire Games and well it might be. Before the Games began officials were optimistic all right but the medal output of the Canadian contingent has exceeded the hopes of the most avid supporter.

Swimmers have been the big guns thus far and led by Elaine "Mighty Mouse" Tanner, the squad has set the Commonwealth pool fraternity afire with its showing. Before the Games got underway, Ted Simpson, the coach of the swimmers, stated that he thought we are putting together the strongest team Canada has had in a long, long time.

Up until yesterday the swimmers had garnered five gold medals as compared to Australia's seven, with four of them coming in the Women's events. The Australians had dominated the men's competition and how. The "Down Under" boys must have had fans thinking that they swam to the top of the medal tree. Up until yesterday they had won nine gold medals and had shattered eight WORLD records. They only managed to tie the world mark in their ninth win and were a long way below the mark in the tenth final which Canada won when the Aussies were disqualified.

Track and Field chipped in with the expected honors, except for Bill Crothers who got out-manoeuvred in the turn and finished a dismal fourth but shooters made up for that as they took five medals. Weightlifters also showed well. And enough about the games.

WHAT A RACE

And not running either. Where else except in the National Baseball league could a club lose a single game and drop from first to third place after approximately 100 games had been played. Where else could the seventh and ninth place teams topple the league leaders with alarming regularity.

Well that is the case now and things do not appear as if they are going to get any less exciting in the months to come as no less than seven teams still have a legitimate crack at the title. As it is now the Pirates are in great shape but one can almost count on the fact that they will have a small slump before the end of the year and even a small slump can mean disaster. The Dodgers lost three straight games to the Braves and fell three games off the pace but probably still the team to beat. Due to their strong pitching rotation of Koufax, Drysdale, Osteen and Stojak it is hard for them to lose two or three games in a row. After all they lost three games to the Braves but all of them were but one run.

The Pirates, despite their exalted position, have problems. The best double play combination in the loop and the strongest offense in the loop have been holding them above water but should the pitching staff run out a streak of poverty look out. After all, Bob Veale, Vern Law, Woody Fryman and Steve Blass are not known as being anywhere near the best in the National.

Nevertheless the Pirates are entertaining a team batting average 20 points higher than the runaway leaders in the American loop, the Baltimore Orioles, and it is the runs that count in any game.

The Giants to win will have to find one more pitcher because despite the 34 wins of Perry and Marichal they are having troubles on the mound. Both with their starters and their bullpen. They were the power all right but the four members of "Murderer's Row" as it is known are the only starters on the roster who are sure starters. By the end of July no fewer than six basemen had been used and the situation is not getting any better.

St. Louis, Cincinnati and Atlanta all have shown signs recently of putting on the pressure but it appears now as if Houston are out of the race. The Cinderella team of the National loop, they were in third place for the better part of the first half of the year, lost momentum in June and since then they have not been able to beat even the Chicago Cubs with any degree of consistency.

In the American Loop the Orioles are making a run-away not only because they are strong but because the other clubs are just now capable of putting on the pressure. The Tigers had only to beat the Red Sox for the other evening to tie the Orioles margin to nine games but of course they lost. Baltimore has lost five of its last seven games but still is a rosy 11 1/2 games in front of the rest of the pack.

RAMBLINGS

The Bike Shop, hit by fire earlier this week and saved only because of speedy work on the part of the fire department, will be back in business as usual next week and this is extremely good news for most sports fans. It would be bad news indeed with all the playoffs in softball, and baseball coming up if officials could not find a place to purchase regulation balls. What would local fishermen do if they were to lose all their lures. As one witty fireman pointed out during the fire, at least now all the lures in the shop are water-tight.

It is always fun to hear athletes quip back at sportscasters after they have been defeated but the master at it was Archie Moore. Don Dumphy who covered the Archie Moore - Rocky Marciano battle for the heavyweight leaped comments of each fighter. He found himself in front of into the ring after Marciano had KO'ed Moore to get the Moore who had risen to one knee and thrusting the microphone in front of him queried "What are your immediate plans?" Shot back Moore, "High up on the list is getting up."

Cleveland Tops Yankees 3-2; Orioles, Senators Split

NEW YORK (AP) — Gary Bell got late inning relief help from Bob Allen and Luis Tiant and earned his 13th victory of the season Friday night as Cleveland Indians edged New York Yankees 3-2.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Frank Robinson's two-run homer over Baltimore's 2-1 victory over Washington in the first game Friday night, but the Senators came back to win the nightcap 4-1 behind homers by Ken Harrelson, Fred Valentine and Jim King.

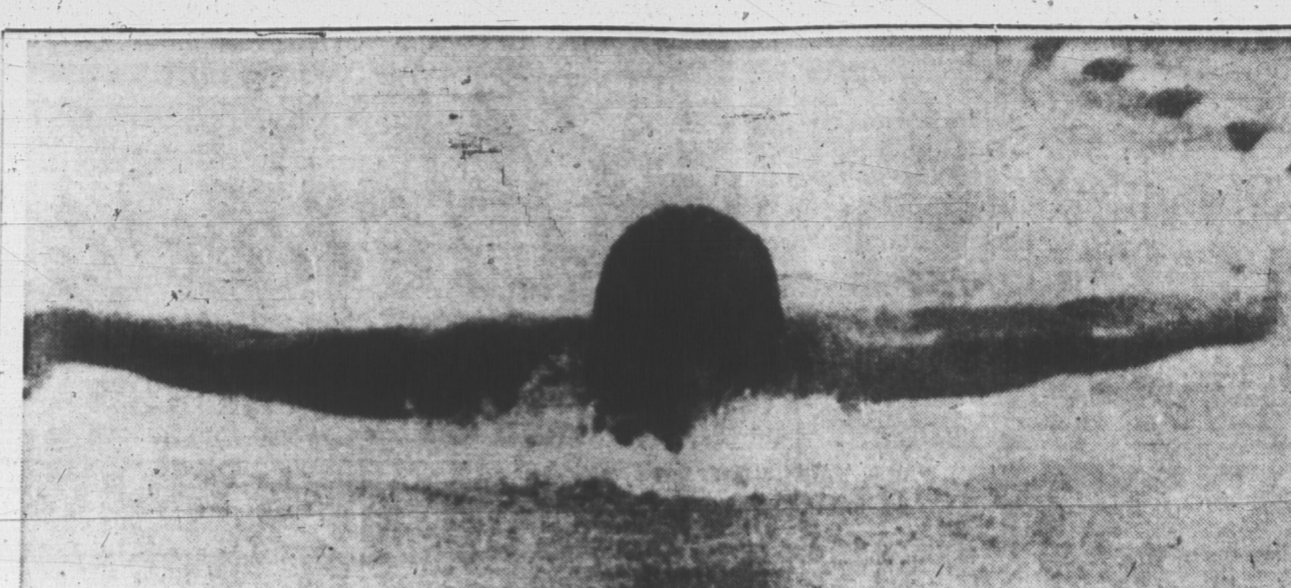

Robinson's homer, his 34th, off Pete Richert in the third inning, gave Moe Drabowski victory in his first start of the season. Drabowski's single ended off Robinson's homer.

John Miller pitched one-hit ball through four innings of the second game and had a 1-0 lead on Andy Etchebarren's bloop single following Brooks Robinson's triple.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — New York Mets exploded for five runs in the third inning and right-hander Jack Fisher continued his mastery of St. Louis Cardinals, defeating them 5-2 Friday night.

The Mets pounded on an old nemesis, Ray Washburn, beating him for only the second time in 10 tries. Washburn and Ron Piche were the victims of the five-run outburst.

BOSTON (AP) — Carl Yastrzemski lined four straight hits, scored three runs and drove in a pair Friday night, helping

Mighty Mouse Stuns Fans In British Empire Games

KINGSTON, Jamaica (CP) — Gilmour Boa of St. Catharines, Ont., and Elaine Tanner of Vancouver won gold medals in shooting and swimming respectively Friday to raise Canada's gold production to 11 at the British Empire Games. The gold medals gave Canada a post-war high.

Boa, 42-year-old veteran of three Olympic Games, captured the 22-calibre small-bore rifle title, the second gold won by Canada in shooting.

Miss Tanner, 15-year-old superstar considered the most versatile swimmer in the Commonwealth, won her second individual gold medal in the women's 110-yard butterfly and completed a double in that difficult style of swimming.

The Canadian Mighty Mouse easily beat two English girls, Judy Gegan and Ann Barner to win the butterfly in 1:06.8, just 5-10ths of a second off her Games record set in a heat. Miss Gegan won the second-place, silver and Miss Barner the third-place, bronze.

Two Aussie gold medal winners found they couldn't collect their medals because the band got water in its instruments during the storm and could not play the Australian national anthem, forcing the medal ceremony to be postponed.

Ian O'Brien of Australia recaptured his world record in the 110-yard breaststroke he lost to Egon Henninger of East Germany a week ago.

O'Brien won the gold medal with a time of 1:08.2. Henninger clocked 1:08.4 in Leipzig last Friday to improve O'Brien's official world mark of this time in Tuesday's heats.

O'Brien, who also has set a world 220-yard backstroke record in the heats, thus established himself as the world's greatest breaststroke swimmer.

Peter Reynolds, 21-year-old Australian, won his fourth gold medal, this one in the men's 110-yard backstroke, again beating Ralph Hutton of Ocean Falls, B.C., with Jim Jackson of England third.

A pair of Toronto swimmers, Alex Fedko and Jim Shaw, finished sixth and seventh. Their times were the same—1:05.2. Both Reynolds and Hutton saved their strength over the first length. Then, after the turn, they had an exciting duel before Reynolds drew away over the last 15 yards.

For Hutton, it was the fifth time he got a silver in the Games. He also has a bronze. The women's medley was strictly a two-way battle between Miss Tanner and Miss Murphy.

The little Canadian girl was about 20 yards in the lead after the butterfly leg, 15 yards ahead after the backstroke, but only five yards in front when the breaststroke was completed.

MISS MURPHY steadily cut the deficit, but over the final freestyle stroke, Miss Tanner, though clearly tired, managed to thwart Miss Murphy's brave bid. The Canadian finished about a yard in front.

In the women's 110 butterfly, Marion Lay of Vancouver, gold medal winner in the 110-yard freestyle, was fifth with a time of 1:11.1 and Marilyn Corson of Parry Sound, Ont., sixth in the same time.

In the men's 110 breaststroke O'Brien's dazzling time was 4.7 seconds ahead of New Zealand's Tony Graham, who won the silver medal. Malcolm Tucker of England captured the bronze. Len Chase of Montreal was fifth in 1:14.1 and Bill Mahony of Vancouver seventh in 1:15.2.

Ronald Jackson of Australia captured the men's 1,650-yard freestyle gold medal and Kathy Wainwright, another Australian, took the women's 440-yard freestyle title, again lowering her world record.

BEAT TEAM-MATE Jackson beat his team-mate, Bob Winkle, the Olympic 1,500-metre champion, who could do no better than fourth.

Sandy Gilchrist of Ocean Falls, B.C., was second and Hutton third.

Jackson won all by himself, finishing a full eight seconds ahead of Gilchrist. The Australian's time was 17:23.9. Gilchrist clocked 17:33.9, Hutton 17:38.9 and Gordon Eby, Prince Rupert, B.C., 18:03.2 for sixth place.

Miss Wainwright, 17-year-old Sydney bank workers, lowered her world mark to 4:38.8 when she raced away by herself in the 440 freestyle. Australia swept all three medal places. Jenny Thorn was second in 4:44.5 and Kim Herford third in 4:47.2.

Miss Wainwright set the world record of 4:39.6 in the heats.

Canada's two freestyle finalists, Miss Hughes and Louise Kennedy of London, Ont., were fourth and seventh respectively. Miss Hughes clocked 4:50.7, Miss Kennedy 5:03.5.

EQUALLED WORLD MARK Miss Tanner won the silver medal in the women's 220-yard backstroke as England's Linda Ludgrove took the gold. Margaret MacRae of New Zealand captured the bronze. Miss Ludgrove's winning time of 2:28.5 equalled the world record held by Japanese swimmer Sato Tanaka.

Miss Ludgrove, 18, thus completed the women's backstroke double for the second successive Games. It also was her third gold medal.

Miss Tanner was the only swimmer to give the English champion any kind of a battle and took the silver with a clocking of 2:27.7.

Boa's shooting gold medal, won by Jim Lee, Vancouver-born Chinese-Canadian who captured the centre-fire pistol title earlier this week.

Boa, a former Queen's prize winner at Bixley and winner of the 1954 world small-bore championship in Caracas, Venezuela, won by two points over Brian Lacey of New Zealand, the silver medalist. John Murphy of Australia took the bronze.

WON OLYMPIC BRONZE Boa represented Canada in three Olympics — 1956-60-64. In 1956, he won a bronze in the small-bore rifle and in 1964 was fourth in the small-bore rifle.

In winning his gold here, Boa scored 587 out of a possible 600. Lacey had a total of 585 and Murphy finished with 581.

Conditions for the final shooting event were extremely difficult, with severe gusts of wind and heavy rainfall whipping across the Waikeia range near the national stadium.

England won the gold medal in the event and Australia took the silver. In the final, England defeated Australia 5-2 and collected its eighth gold medal in eight fencing events.

Bernard Drives The Shiek To Driving Park Double

The lesser lights in the Stab at the Charlottetown Driving Park last evening got their chance as the fast classes rested up for Old Home Week and shine they did, making bettors wish that they had never attended.

Security Scott got the evening off to a bang-up start as the Art Craig owned gelding combined with Harold Aber, winner of the first dash to pay $35.00 in the first double, but then let his backers down in the sixth race, the first half of the second daily double Irene Mir came out of nowhere to take the second half of the double dash in a time of 2:12.3 and Security Scott slipped to show place. In the seventh dash, a single, Don MacNeill, driving Chief Operator for E. Heustis showed the big gelding deserved the name as he ran the field behind him.

Emmett Bernard was the only driver who managed to take his entry to a double dash win on the card as he teamed the Shiek to wins in the third and eighth dashes. Both of these dashes figured in ratings, the quinella on the third and the Exacta on the eighth. The Shiek led Chummy D. to the wire in the first dash in the third to pay $18.80 in the Quinella and then Jimmy Gallon, who had placed seventh the first time out took place money in the seventh, bringing about a $33.60 pay.

Mr. MacElevyn Key won as expected in the fourth dash as Clarence Woolbridge teamed him in good position but the pacer was shunted into second spot the second time as 20-1 longshot Timmie H. came back from a fourth place finish to grab top honors. The final double dash event of the night saw Armond's Buddy and Ohio's Orphan, with identical summaries of 1-2 and 2-1, but the 2-10.3 mile that Clarke Smith drove the second time out was enough to give the Orphan top honors.
