

CORRESPONDENCE.

TO THE HON. JOHN HAMILTON GRAY.

In the issue of the 18th inst. you addressed a letter to the people of P. E. Island...

I would feel very much gratified, Sir, by being assisted in any way to secure the success of my project...

I may be, Sir, to the advantage of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick to unite with Canada...

To aspirants to offices of honor and emolument, the idea of belonging to such a government as the Confederation...

That Canada is a great and magnificent country, any person having an opportunity of seeing her...

Sir.—In perusing the columns of a late number of the Herald, I observed a somewhat striking article...

I am, Sir, your obedient servant, ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

I am perfectly agreed with "Georgium" and every other un-biassed advocate...

"Georgium" shall arrive the time for the Confederation of the Colonies...

Having already exceeded my limits, and only made an introduction to the subject...

When we went into Union, Sue, I was dreaming but of sleep...

These, and some other ladies, Sue, we had to go to, I know, still as we go into Union, chuck...

OUR COMMON SCHOOLS. In an able article on Education in the last issue of the Examiner...

As it is a subject upon which little has hitherto been written, it may, Sir, afford interest to your numerous readers...

Having "swayed the birchen sceptre" for a period of two years, and being thus in a position to form a pretty fair opinion...

As a greater stream than rivulet, a greater wheel revolves, so greater fields and enterprises, the Union problem solves.

On property's keen point, Our Isle's improving zone, And industry with plenty crown, The drone be only poor.

There, (said Mr. Birch), that fair-haired, bland looking gentleman, just come in one of the "honorable" and learned members...

UNION DREAMS. When we went into Union, Sue, I was dreaming but of sleep...

These, and some other ladies, Sue, we had to go to, I know, still as we go into Union, chuck...

OUR COMMON SCHOOLS. In an able article on Education in the last issue of the Examiner...

As it is a subject upon which little has hitherto been written, it may, Sir, afford interest to your numerous readers...

Having "swayed the birchen sceptre" for a period of two years, and being thus in a position to form a pretty fair opinion...

As a greater stream than rivulet, a greater wheel revolves, so greater fields and enterprises, the Union problem solves.

On property's keen point, Our Isle's improving zone, And industry with plenty crown, The drone be only poor.

There, (said Mr. Birch), that fair-haired, bland looking gentleman, just come in one of the "honorable" and learned members...

UNION DREAMS. When we went into Union, Sue, I was dreaming but of sleep...

These, and some other ladies, Sue, we had to go to, I know, still as we go into Union, chuck...

CAPTURE OF THE FLORIDA. The seizure of the Florida appears to have been a very close question...

The Florida at first anchored in the offing, but at the command of the Brazilian Admiral...

The Brazilian Admiral, however, did not strike the Florida as she was fully equipped...

The Brazilian Admiral, however, did not strike the Florida as she was fully equipped...

The Brazilian Admiral, however, did not strike the Florida as she was fully equipped...

AMERICAN AFFAIRS. PRESIDENT DAVIS'S ATTEMPT TO MUZZLE THE PRESS—HE OUTDOES LINCOLN.

The proposition of President Davis, in his late message, to place the press under the control of the Executive...

The case is very different here. We have a President who is remarkable for the conscientiousness with which he has discharged his duties...

Will the Congress of the Confederate States consent to prostitute the entire press of the Confederacy to the pleasure of the Executive?

There, (said Mr. Birch), that fair-haired, bland looking gentleman, just come in one of the "honorable" and learned members...

financial part of the question, if opposing forces do not so far perplex us as to make an understanding impossible...

The time of his deliverance being fully come, the hon. and learned gentleman appears to have been as it were forced out of himself...

Remembering, as it is quite natural he should, the having been deprived of the Premiership...

THE HON. EDWARD PALMER, A VERITABLE ANTI-UNIONIST—DECIDEDLY RETARDABLE. In our last week's issue, "It was our lot to speak" of the Hon. Edward Palmer...

But, alas! this pleasing prospect, we suddenly found, was only a deceitful mirage. The "glittering delusion" has quickly passed away...

THE DELEGATES IN UPPER CANADA. We gave, in our last paper, the speeches which had been delivered by the Island Delegates at the several places in Canada...

The first address presented to the delegates was at Belleville. They arrived there early in the day...

On behalf of the inhabitants of the town, and in common, we believe, with the whole of the inhabitants of the Province...

Col. Gray, of Prince Edward Island, replied as follows:—Mr. Mayor.—On behalf of the Delegates from the Maritime Provinces...

Col. Gray, of Prince Edward Island, replied as follows:—Mr. Mayor.—On behalf of the Delegates from the Maritime Provinces...

UNION DREAMS. When we went into Union, Sue, I was dreaming but of sleep...

These, and some other ladies, Sue, we had to go to, I know, still as we go into Union, chuck...

OUR COMMON SCHOOLS. In an able article on Education in the last issue of the Examiner...

As it is a subject upon which little has hitherto been written, it may, Sir, afford interest to your numerous readers...

Having "swayed the birchen sceptre" for a period of two years, and being thus in a position to form a pretty fair opinion...

As a greater stream than rivulet, a greater wheel revolves, so greater fields and enterprises, the Union problem solves.

On property's keen point, Our Isle's improving zone, And industry with plenty crown, The drone be only poor.

There, (said Mr. Birch), that fair-haired, bland looking gentleman, just come in one of the "honorable" and learned members...

UNION DREAMS. When we went into Union, Sue, I was dreaming but of sleep...

These, and some other ladies, Sue, we had to go to, I know, still as we go into Union, chuck...