The play was directed by Mrs. Roy Silliphant while Mr. George Clow had charge of the dramatics.

The scene of the play was laid in Ireland and the ray spirit of the Irish characterized the performance throughout.

The story told of Mr. Chandler, a wealthy American and his daughter, Clare who rented Craughmont Castle from Sir Gerald, a young Irish nobleman. The ghost of Lady Mary of Craughmont, who had died many years before, appeared on moonlight nights.

On a recent visit to Ottawa Mr. J. Walter Jones, M. L. A., interviewed the Minister of Finance, Hon. C. A. Dunning, on the question of the admission of fox food duties to Canada. He pointed out that the fox ranchers in the West enjoyed an advantage over their brethren in the East to the extent of from $4.00 to $7.00 per pel on account of the cheapness of feed stuffs in Winnipeg, Edmonton and Saskatoon compared with prices prevailing in the Maritime Provinces. On his return to Charlottetown Mr. Jones called a meeting of leading foxmen at which the following committee was appointed to draft a memorial and brief for presentation to the Finance Minister: Messrs. J. Walter Jones, Colonel D. A. McDonald, D. S. O. Claude Smith, L. W. Hancock, H. W. Tidmarsh and W. H. Shaw. The memorial and brief were duly forwarded to Mr. Dunning, with the result that the Budget recently brought down in Parliament contains the following schedule: "Horse meat, tallow and other animal offal unfit for human consumption, and cereal meal, when for use exclusively in the feeding of fur-bearing animals, free." This applies to the three tariff rates, British preferential, intermediate and general. For this important concession Mr. Dunning, Mr. Jones and all associated with him on the committee, deserve the hearty thanks of our fox-breeders generally.

The funeral will take place Wednesday May 6th, at Hamilton, N. Y.

Elizabeth Cochrane passed away on Saturday, April 25th, at the home of her brother Mr. Charles Veas of North Tryon, P. E. I. Deceased who had reached the advanced age of eighty-one years had for some time been a semi-invalid. But despite her handicap she was always interested in public affairs and in the work about the home, she was ever faithful until within a few days of her death. Early in life she went to the Canadian West where she married and lived at Elkhorn, Man. but finally settled in Minneapolis U. S. A. where she became a very active member of Broadway Methodist church of that city. It is interesting to recall that her name is inscribed in one of the memorial windows of Broadway church.

It is with feelings of intense sorrow we chronicle the death of Lucy E. Gallant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gallant, Mayfield, P. E. I., which occurred in the Charlottetown Hospital on March 29, 1936, at the early age of eighteen years. Her death came as a shock to her loved ones as her condition was not considered serious, but all that loving hands could do was of no avail. She would otherwise, her strength gradually waned until her gentle spirit winged its Heavenly flight. She was loved by all who knew her, and was a general favorite among young and old. This was shown by the large concourse that followed the remains to the cemetery. She leaves to mourn besides her sorrowing parents, four brothers, namely: Lawrence and Earl North Rustico, Emmet and Paul at home, and four sisters of which three survive, namely, Jean, Annie May, Marion and Margaret who predeceased her seventeen months ago.

THURSDAY

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mrs. Mary Dooley was held yesterday morning from her late residence, 175 Sydney Street, to St. Dunstan's Basilica, thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery. Service at the church was conducted by Rev. F. MacMahon, D.D., and at the grave by Father Dougan. His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan occupied a seat in the sanctuary. The pallbearers were Messrs. Hollis Moore, James Monaghan, Frank Prunty, Emery Holloran, Arthur Worth and David Cavanaugh.

The death occurred in Aberdeen on April 11, 1896 of Alexander MacIntyre Martin, in the eighty-second year of his age. The late Mr. Martin was born in Valleyfield on October 30th, 1854, a son of Alexander Martin and his wife Flora Bruce. He was named after Rev. Alexander MacIntyre, the pioneer minister of Valleyfield. Mr. Martin was a member of the early age of eighteen to work on the railroad on the Georgetown section. Later he was transferred to the Alberton section as foreman. After more than forty years, during which he seldom lost a day through illness, he retired and continued to make his home in Alberton.

Seldom were the people of St. Teresas and vicinity more shocked and grieved than on April 1st, 1936, when it became known that Ethel McQuaid had passed away at the Charlottetown Hospital, where she had entered the previous day to undergo an operation which was performed that evening, and in the early hours of the following morning passed peacefully away. Mrs. McQuaid was the daughter of the late Hugh P. and Catherine McQuaid. The funeral took place on April 3rd to St. Cuthbert's Church, St. Teresas, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by her pastor, Rev. J. Basil Croken, who also performed the last sad rites at the grave. She has left to mourn the following sorrowing friends and relatives: one son, Mr. J. A. MacLellan of Morinville, Alberta, and three daughters, Mrs. L. S. Chambers of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. W. V. Miller of Ogen, Alberta, and Clara B. of Pasadena, Calif., to all of whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

The death occurred at her home in this city Wednesday night of Mrs. Mary Evans Coyle, widow of the late William Coyle, after a protracted illness, being confined to her bed for the past eight weeks. Of a kind, loving and charitable disposition she deceased enjoyed a large circle of friends. She was a faithful member of the League of the Sacred Heart, being one of the oldest members.

Her early education was obtained in St. Joseph's Convent, and here, by her amiable manner, cultivated a friendship which lasted to the end. Despite the fact that she had reached the advanced age of four score years, she retained an active mind almost until the call came. She leaves to mourn the passing of a kind and loving mother, the following family: Mrs. Frank Conroy, New Cross; Mrs. Robert Duncan, C.H.Y.; Charles of the C. N. R.; Frank of the Marine Department, and Victor, druggist, all of this city, and to whom the Guardian tenders heartfelt sympathy.

The death occurred on April 29, 1896 of Murdoch MacDonald, Bellevue. The late Mr. MacDonald was born in Bellevue on August 7, 1864, a son of Frederick MacDonald and his wife Mary MacLeod. He spent his life on the farm where he was born, enjoying the confidence of his neighbours and the devotion of his family. Of a quiet disposition, he was well read on world affairs, and deeply versed in the early history of the Murray Harbour Road settlement. He will be greatly missed in the community and especially in the home where his passing breaks a happy married life of forty years. He is survived by his wife, nee Isabel MacLeod, one brother, John in California; one sister, Christine, Mrs. Donald MacPhee, Heatherdale; three sons, Lauchlin, Walter, Bridgeport; Conroy, Milton, and Wallace at home; and one daughter, Mabel, Mrs. James MacEachern, Mermaid. The oldest son, Frederick died about twenty-eight years ago at the age of ten.

The death occurred on April 29, 1896, of Mrs. Allan MacDonald, Valleyfield East in the 85th year of her age. Her maiden name was Sarah MacPherson, the daughter of Duncan MacPherson and his wife Effie MacDonald, Head of Montague. For the long period of sixty years she resided in Valleyfield East where she was beloved by her family, her neighbours and her many friends. A true Christian, her chief interest was centered in her home. She was a member of the Valleyfield Church for over forty years. Her death is the first break in a family of twelve.

The late Mrs. MacDonald is survived by her husband, five sons, Daniel, East Millinocket, Maine; Duncan, Millinocket, Maine; Woodcock, Washington; Alexander, B.C.; Angus, Valleyfield East; and five daughters, Mary, Mrs. George Sinclair, Haverhill, Mass.; Euphemia, Mrs. T. Currie, Elmada, P. E. I.; Margaret, at home, Catherine, Mrs. William D. Montgomery, Valleyfield West; and Priscilla, at home. All the members of the family excepting Murdoch and Alexander were at home for the funeral services.
