PUTTING ON OF CHRIST CHRISTIAN'S NEW YEAR DUTY

"What is it that has been the same that shall be. What is it that has been done? The same that shall be done. Nothing under the sun is new, neither is any new thing to be expected. Behold this is new. For it has already gone before us in the ages that were before us." (Ecclesiastes 1:9-10.)

Judgment Given For Appellant
Judgment in favor of the appellant in the case of The Queen vs. John Sterling Gass was handed down yesterday in the Supreme Court by Judge George J. Tweedy, Q. C.

Gass, with R. R. Bell, Q. C., as counsel, made the appeal after being convicted in Queen's County Magistrate's Court on a charge of driving while impaired. Conviction at that time ordered a fine of $65 and costs in addition to a three month suspension of the appellant's driver's license.

In his judgement, Judge Tweedy ordered that the appeal be set aside, that the evidence against the accused be dismissed and also that the fine which Gass had paid be returned to the appellant.

J. P. Nicholson represented the Crown.
