HUTCHINSON, M. A., will (D. V.) officiate at Lot 48, on Sabbath first, the 16th inst., at 11 o'clock, a. m.; and at Birch Hill at 2.30 p. m. ST GEORGE'S L. & D. CLUB meets to-night (instead of Wednesday, the usual night of meeting.) Captain Weeks will read a paper on "The Relation of Physical Exercise to Mental Culture." REMEMBER the meeting to consider the proposed drive-way in Victoria Park, to be held in the Liberal-Conservative Committee Rooms, Cameron Block, at half-past seven this evening. A FAN, with an elaborate cod liver oil advertisement thereon, was "laid on the table" of the City Council last evening. Judging from the way it passed round it supplied a long felt want. BRIG. ZERELDE, Capt. L. Kichham, from Swansea, and Bark George Peake, Capt. D. A. McDonald, from Bordeaux, owned by Peake Bros. & Co., arrived here this morning. MR. W. D. TANTON, son of Mr. William Tanton, of this city, has become editor and manager of the Annapolis Spectator. Mr. Tanton is an experienced journalist, as well as a practical printer, and under his control the Spectator bids fair to thrive and prosper. A few days ago the committee of the Imperial Federation Association called Sir John Macdonald that by a unanimously passed resolution he had been selected to preside at the annual banquet to be given on 3rd July next in London. Sir John was obliged to decline the honor owing to press of public business. WE learn that it is the intention of the Railway authorities to run the Steamboat Special Train through to Tipish on Mondays and Fridays, returning to Charlottetown same evenings, until the summer time table takes effect, commencing on Monday, 17th inst. This arrangement will be quite an accommodation to the travelling public. Advertisement to-morrow. WE are pleased to learn that gunner R. W. Stewart, of No. 5 Battery, P. E. Island Provisional Brigade, Garrison Artillery, Montague, who has been in attendance at the Royal School of Gunnery, Quebec, has passed a very creditable examination in the several subjects there taught, and has received a first class short course, grade B certificate. THE Redpath Concert Company gave an excellent entertainment last evening. The company is made up of brilliant artists. Mr. Gilder, the pianist, is very fine; Miss Chamberlain, the whistling soloist, was superb and wonderful; Miss Christie, as violinist, is young but has a wonderful technique; Mr. Keynolds is a magnificent baritone, and a pleasing elocutionist.—The Erie (Pa.) Herald. THE Toronto Presbyterian Review says:—Miss Annie Montgomery, of Charlottetown, P. E. Island, was employed a few years ago as a female missionary by the Presbyterian Church in the United States. She is labouring in Hamadan, Persia, and is said to be facing alone an amount of work sufficient for three. The Foreign Mission Board is now making an urgent call for a brave consecrated woman to share her labours and reward. WE learn that the following changes, affecting the Inland Revenue officers at Halifax, Pictou and Charlottetown, are to be made immediately. Mr. W. M. Duxton, who for the past eighteen months has been acting-collector here, returns to his former position of deputy collector at Halifax; Mr. Samuel C. Nash, who has been acting-collector at Pictou for the last eighteen months, comes back to this city, and Mr. John H. McKay, the newly appointed collector at Pictou, takes charge of the office there. THE death of Andreas Sherman, of Purlow, Ont., by the premature explosion of a dynamite blast on the 7th, proves to have been one of the most horrible that ever occurred in this country. When found Sherman was lying on his back about 29 feet from the rock, completely dismembered. The face was not disfigured and had a look of repose. The left arm was broken and the hand slightly lacerated. The heart was found hanging to a fence, and the liver and a few ribs were picked up 150 feet distant from the body. OUR city firemen, have gone into training for the Halifax tournament, and are determined to give a good account of themselves there. About seven o'clock last evening, some fifty men—drawn from Silaby, Rollo, Tremont and the Hook and Ladder Co's—assembled at Victoria Park, and in the presence of a large number of spectators, went through ladder drill, reel races, etc. They will practice on the Park every fine evening, commencing at seven o'clock.

The market to-day was poorly attended and stock and sales were somewhat slow at the following prices:— Beef (small) 7 to 10 cts per lb; do per qtr 4 to 7 cts; mutton, 5 to 8 cts; pork (carcase) 4 to 5 cts; ham, per lb. 13 to 14 cts; lamb, 6 to 8 cts; butter (fresh), 23 to 25 cts; do (tub) 20 to 22 cts; eggs, per doz, 10 to 12 cts; clover seed, 16 to 18 cts per lb; flour, per 100 lbs, $2.25 to $2.75; oatmeal, do, $2.30 to $2.50; oats, 32 to 33 cts; hay per 100, 55 cts; potatoes, 18 to 20 cts; geese, 50 to 70; cabbage, per doz, 35 to 50; turnip, per bush, 12 to 13c; seed timothy $3 per bush; veal, 3 to 7c per lb; turkeys, 80c to $1.75; reish per bunch, 6 cents; herring, (fresh) 5 to 8 cts.

A FACT which even political economists are apt to forget, is that a manufacturer's rate of profit is not the only essential element to success; the aggregate profit at the end of the year is of far greater importance, and this, in most cases, is greater out of a low rate of profit, than out of a high rate, because of the increased business, which the lower price gives rise to. It was on this principle that Messrs Tuckett & Son acted in introducing their now famous "Myrtle Navy" tobacco, and to this principle they have ever since adhered. This is one of the reasons why the people of Canada are smoking the best tobacco which can be produced, at a cheaper price than other people can buy a similar article.

Fatal Boating Accident.

Two Men Drowned.

We regret to learn that a fatal boating accident occurred at the entrance of Charlottetown Harbor this afternoon. Four men, viz: M. Dooley, F. Coyle, Art O'Neill and Thomas Donovan were engaged in hauling in lobster traps when the boat upset. One sank immediately, and the other started to swim for the shore, but sank when within a short distance of it. The other two clung to the boat, and were rescued by the Messrs. Taylor, of St. Peter's Island. Of the two who are saved one is Donovan, and from the description it is thought the other is Coyle.

The Irish Situation.

ENGLAND WITHIN MEASURABLE DISTANCE OF CIVIL WAR.—THE ULSTER ORANGEMEN TO BE DISARMED.

NEW YORK, May 9.—Justin McCarthy, Home Ruler, cables that there is a great reaction against the Chamberlain and Hartington doctrine. The debate on the second reading is sure to last a long time, perhaps two or three weeks. Gladstone is quietly preparing for a dissolution, if such steps be necessary. T. P. O'Connor cables that the feeling of the members of the cabinet against Chamberlain is accentuated by the publication of his letter to Bolton. Gladstone's speech on Monday will not go beyond the position he assumed in his recent manifesto. He will show that the affirmation of the principle of self-government is the only question for the House to decide at the second reading; and that amendments and compromises belong to the committee stage. Having thus indicated the willingness of the government to consider modifications, and having defined the time for discussing them, he will call upon the liberals to stand by him, at all events for the second reading. The retention of Irish members at Westminster will be declared an absolutely open question, but no terms of settlement on this or any other issue will be made until the principle of the bill is accepted or rejected. James O'Kelly, home rule M. P., cables: Chamberlain is acting in concert with Lord Churchill, and both are conspiring to provoke a civil war in Ulster, if that is necessary to prevent granting home rule to Ireland. Quantities of arms have been distributed to Ulster farmers and laborers. The government has introduced an arms bill with the view at the proper moment to disarm the Orange body in case they should pass from threats to action. Wolesey and Beraford's connection with this conspiracy has been known for a long time and though it may be denied, the correction of Johnstone's rather foolish statement may be relied upon. A Whig member of Parliament cables that pending the decision of the Irish question, members refuse to listen to anything else. He believes the second reading of the home rule bill will be carried by a small majority, but the land purchase measure will undoubtedly be rejected. The liberal party will not have that at any price, because the constituencies are up in arms against it. Nor would home rule pass but for Gladstone's adroitness in holding out a prospect of modifying it in committee to an extent to satisfy his supporters. Rumors of Lord Wolesey's declaration are probably exaggerated, but quite true, and he makes no secret of his sympathies with the men of the north. In any case he assured there is great trouble impending in Ulster, and there would be little inaccuracy in applying Gladstone's words on a former occasion to the present state of affairs: "England is within measurable distance of civil war."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little shrub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-centa bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. [Feb 4 eod wky]

THE Outlook was Good. Miss Joy—Madam, Mr. Foster has come to take me out for a drive, may I go Madam? Madam—You know, Miss Joy, the rules of Yassar do not allow it unless you are engaged. Are you engaged to Mr. Foster? Miss Joy (doubtfully)—No, No, but if you let me go, I shall be by the time we get back.—L&C.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

(SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.) The Situation at Home. LONDON, May 10. Mr. Gladstone explained his Irish Home Rule Bill in the Commons yesterday, in a lengthy speech. He was followed by Hartington, who denounced the scheme and moved its six months' hoist. The debate was adjourned till Thursday. It is the opinion of the lobby, that if defeated, Gladstone will resign, and ask for a dissolution of Parliament, but that the Queen will summon Lord Hartington to form a Cabinet.

Retaliation. WASHINGTON, May 10. In the House to-day, Dingley, of Maine, introduced a bill to limit commercial privileges of vessels of foreign countries in the ports of the United States to such purposes as are accorded to American vessels in ports of such foreign countries. Frye introduced a similar bill in the Senate.

The Proper Action. DIGBY, N. S., May 10. The excitement here, over the seizure of the David Adams, by the Lunenburg, continues to be great, and the fishermen maintain that the Dominion Government is taking the proper action.

The Indian and Colonial Exhibition. At the opening of the Exhibition His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, on behalf of the Royal Commissioners of the Exhibition presented Her Majesty, the Queen, with an address, to which she was pleased to reply as follows:—

"I receive with the greatest satisfaction the address which you have presented to me on the opening of this Exhibition. I have observed with a warm and increasing interest, the progress of the execution of the duties intrusted to you by the Royal Commission, and it affords me sincere gratification to witness the successful result of your judicious and unremitting exertions in the magnificent exhibition which has been gathered together here to-day. I am deeply moved by your references to the bonds of union which now exist between every part of the Empire."
