BUDGET.—For report of Budget Speech see first page.

MAILS.—The mails arrived at 3.30 this afternoon.

I. O. O. F.—Wildy Lodge meets to-night in regular session. The degree team will please attend promptly.

PREACHING.—The Rev. A. Mackenzie M. A. will (D. V.) conduct divine services in the church, New Glasgow road, on April 22nd at 11 a. m.

THE MARITIME BANK.—The payments of the first call of 20 per cent. on the double liability of the Maritime Bank, the liquidators say, are coming in slowly.

NORTHERN LIGHT.—The Northern Light left Pictou at 5.45 this morning and arrived at Scotia shortly before noon. She will return to Pictou to-morrow morning.

NEW PAPER.—We have received the second number of the Two Edged Sword, a religious newspaper published at Fort Worth, Texas. It is an eight page paper, and is very neatly printed.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The programme of the entertainment to be held in St. Paul's School-room to-morrow evening appears in another column. We direct the attention of our readers to the same.

A NEW CANADIAN DRAMA.—The Empire contains a long commendatory review of Mr. J. Hunter Duvall's drama, "De Roberval." We regret that a copy of the work cannot yet be procured in Charlottetown.

THE POTATO TRADE.—Over 1,000 bushels of potatoes have been shipped from King's County, N. S., to the United States since the opening of navigation this spring. The price is 50 cents a bushel. Upward of 20 vessels have loaded.—E.

A SUGGESTION.—We suggest that a bulletin, recording the movements of the Northern Light be displayed in the Post Office corridor for the benefit of the public. Will the Department of Marine kindly give this matter their attention?

SCOTT ACT.—To-day is rather an eventful day for the Scott Act in Ontario. Repeat votes take place in no less than seven counties, some of which include several constituencies. Both sides are confident of success and the result is awaited with considerable interest.

HER FIRST ATTEMPT.—The Steamer Princess of Wales left for Pictou at half-past one o'clock this afternoon; but after getting as far as St. Peter's Island was obliged to return owing to the quantities of ice in the neighbourhood. She will try again shortly.

EVICTIORS.—Evictions are a serious matter in other countries than Ireland. According to figures recently published no fewer than 22,804 persons were evicted from their homes in the city of New York for non-payment of rent during the period from September, 1886, to December, 1887.

POINT DE CHENE.—A correspondent of the Moncton Times writes: The ice in the harbor is going fast, and looks black. There are large openings in different places, and with a strong southerly wind it would not take long to open navigation. Extensive repairs are being done to the wharf, and preparations are general for increased business.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.—The Bangor papers report that Daniel McDonald, the alleged Islander, who stole the money from a fellow-boarder and also from another man, was arraigned in the Municipal Court a few days ago and bound over in the sum of $300 for his appearance at the August term, and failing to secure bail was committed to jail.

AN UNUSUAL SIGHT IN HALIFAX.—Says the Herald: There are four full rigged vessels in the harbor—besides many barks, brigs, etc. It is an unusual sight to see four full rigged ships in this harbor. The large vessels, driven out of the American oil trade because of the unprecedentedly low freights, are coming here to load deals.

HIGH LICENSES.—At St. Paul, Minn., local paper publishes interviews with 200 prominent Republicans of Minnesota regarding the working of high license in that State, where the law has been in effect for eight months. It is agreed that the law has worked well in all the cities. With one exception the replies show that the sentiment is favorable to the retention of the law.

PROMPTNESS.—Says the Summerside Journal: We are pleased to learn that, during last week, Mrs. James Caldwell, of this town, received from the Independent Order of Foresters, of which her late husband was a member, the endowment upon his life of $1,000. The promptness of the Order in settling such claims, Mr. Caldwell having died on the 20th March, is highly commendable.

A TEAM FOR SHOEBURYS.—An extraordinary meeting of the Council of the Dominion Artillery Association will be held at Ottawa on the 26th April, to consider the matter of sending a team to Shoeburys this year. A team can hardly be sent if the Government do not give the association at least $3,500 in place of the $2,000 in the estimates, and an effort will be made to secure the increase.

AN EMPHATIC DENIAL.—Mr. Van Horne, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, the most emphatically denies the report emanating from San Francisco to the effect that the Canadian Pacific Railway company's line of steamers intended making that city their terminus, and that the company had entered into an alliance with the Spreckles Sugar refinery. The only basis for such a rumor is in the fact that the Parthia, which arrived at Vancouver this week, had a large quantity of freight from China to San Francisco, which was consigned to Spreckles, and which the Parthia takes direct to that port instead of having it shipped to Vancouver.

THE SEAL FISHERY.—Newfoundland anticipates the seal fishery of this year will turn out well. The long continued easterly winds forced the ice close to the shores and filled the bays. Large bodies of seals have been carried within reach of the people on the shore, and it is pretty certain that in Notre Dame bay and White bay not less than 100,000 seals have been taken by the people on shore. From the steamers which have gone north excellent accounts have been received. Most of the sealers do not intend to return until the people of Newfoundland have had for several years. Seal oil, however, is only half its former value in the market, owing to cheaper oil displacing it.

Local and Other Items.

Just received, per Northern Light, an elegant line of English and Scotch tweeds. Also nice line of Spring and Fall O. C. Call at once and get first choice.—McLeod & McKenzie.

THE INCH-ARRAN.—Mr. Geo. Fuchs, the popular manager of the Bruce, Fuchs, House, Moncton, resigns his charge on the 1st June, to take the management, next summer, of the Inch-Arran at Dalhousie.

CHURCH SERVICES.—Rev. J. Hutchison, M. A. will (D. V.) officiate at New London, North, or Long River, on Sabbath first, the 22nd inst., at 11 o'clock a. m., and at Kensington, at 3 o'clock p. m.

NEW WHARF PREMISES.—It is reported that the Boston, Halifax and P. E. Island Steamship line have leased the new wharf property owned by P. Paint, Jr., at Port Hawkesbury, and known as the "American wharf," for their line of steamships.

WRECKED.—The Halifax Herald says: The schooner L. Holifex, Captain Kerr, from this port, Nov. 1st, for Victoria, B. C., has been wrecked, and her crew landed at Liverpool, G. B. She was last reported in the Straits of Magellan, having been ashore, and lost both anchors and chains.

THE ICE BLOCKADE.—We learn from one of the passengers in the Northern Light that there is a large body of ice still off Georgetown; that the outer edge of it is grounded in three fathoms, and piled up ten feet out of water. It extends from Georgetown harbor seaward for a distance of seven or eight miles. It will take heavy westerly winds to break up this ice blockade. There is no difficulty now in getting into Souris harbor. The Journal reports that Summerside harbor is rapidly opening up; that the channel is clear of ice for some distance below the wharves.

THE NEW BISHOP.—Arrangements are being made for the consecration of the new bishop of Nova Scotia, which takes place on the 26th inst., at St. Luke's Church, Halifax. The Metropolitan, Coadjutor, and Bishop Williams of Quebec will be present, and probably one or two more bishops. Admission to the church will be by ticket. St. Luke's Church will hold about 1,200 persons. The Rev. James Simpson left this afternoon to go to Halifax by way of Souris. Rev. S. Weston-Jones leaves on Monday next. The consecration is looked forward to with great interest by members of the Church of England.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Mr. Welsh's Speech.

SIR,—The friends of Mr. Welsh, P. M., are far from pleased with the treatment that gentleman is receiving from the organ of the Grit party. Mr. Davies' speech on the trade question was embellished in many respects preparatory to its publication in the Patriot, but Mr. Welsh's speech was treated in a very different manner. I observe that a rejoinder of Mr. Welsh's, to a rude interruption from Peter Mitchell, is entirely left out by the Patriot's report. That rejoinder was one of the most brilliant ever made in the Canadian Parliament, and reflected infinite credit on Mr. Welsh and the Province he represented. Mr. Mitchell had said some very silly thing (which is nothing new for him) when our "Commodore" cast a withering look at him and said: "Oh, you shut up." Now, this magnificent rebuke, couched in such elegant words, is expunged by the Patriot from Mr. Welsh's speech. What is the use of our representatives studying their language and uttering "thoughts that breath and words that burn" if a mean, jealous editor will suppress them at his pleasure.

PLAIN TALK.

Ch'town, April 18, 1888.

The Pledge.

SIR,—I was furnished on Tuesday night with a card of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, on which the pledge is printed. It appears to me the pledge is deficient, inasmuch as it does not bind us down not to receive the attentions of, or to see any young man who indulges in exhilarating or stimulating drinks. I think if the pledge was amended so as to embrace this proposition, the young men would be soon brought to their bearings. The inconveniences we would temporarily suffer would be amply repaid by our future happiness.

Yours truly,

LEAP YEAR.

A Chicago despatch says: While policemen Bartlett and Bold, of the Chicago Avenue station, were out with a 200 foot chain marking the saloons that were within the prohibited distance of churches and schools, they went into Fred Younger's saloon, corner Garfield and Lincoln avenues.

"You will have to quit business here; that's the orders," said Policeman Bartlett. "Why?" "Because the first Lutheran Plattdeutsche church is up stairs, and after this you can't keep a saloon within 200 feet of any church, much less run a saloon in the same building."

"But, mein Gott, I am the pastor of the church," answered the astonished saloon keeper. "The officers retired to present this new phase of the case to Captain Shadd."
