

Bearing and Training of Children.

Never hamper and torment children with clothes that are 'too nice' to be anything but wretched in. They may be taught reasonable care in regard to soiling their clothes, but to see a child in a constant spiritual straight-jacket, for fear the mud-cakes, or the game of marbles, or the jolly romp will soil the knees, or 'muss' the apron, or disarrange the hair, is an indication of idiotic parentage.

Let the children have plenty of sleep. I have seen young children—almost infants—wake and make to get up two hours before their natural sleep was finished, merely because it was thought best that they should 'eat breakfast with the other people.'
