

U.P.E.I. ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

PATRICIA LUND is U.P.E.I.'s female athlete of the week for the week ending October 9. Patricia, a member of the field hockey team, played outstanding defense on the weekend in two close losses to the top team in our league, U.N.B. She also made a number of goal line stops on balls that got behind the goalie. Patricia is from Charlottetown and is in her freshmen year of a science degree.

JEAN-FRANCOIS PAINCHAUD is the male athlete of the week at U.P.E.I. J.F., a member of the fifth ranked soccer squad, played goal on the weekend recording two shutouts versus the second ranked U.N.B. Red Shirts. J.F. made a number of key stops Saturday to allow the Panthers to beat U.N.B. after a late goal on a penalty kick: He also played solidly Sunday as the Panthers won convincingly, 2-0. J.F.'s home town is Montreal, P.Q. and he is studying in his third year of a business degree.

U.P.E.I. ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

TRACEY MACEACHERN, a member of the field hockey team, is U.P.E.I.'s female athlete of the week for the week ending Sunday, October 9. Tracey played goal in U.P.E.I.'s 3-1 loss Friday to St. F.X. and also stopped a penalty shot. On Saturday, Tracey played halfback in a 6-0 loss to Memorial. Coach Barb Mullaly commented that she played heads up hockey and was very aggressive on defense. Tracey is in 1st year Arts and her hometown is Chatham, New Brunswick.

STEVE POLENZ is the male athlete of the week at U.P.E.I. for the second week in a row. Steve scored four goals on the week and his solid play at fullback kept the Panthers' opponents scores low. On Wednesday, Steve helped his squad demolish Moncton 4-1 by scoring a goal. He accounted for both goals in a 2-2 tie at St. Mary's and also netted a goal in a 3-1 win over Mt. A. Steve is in 3rd year Business and his hometown is Montreal, P.Q.
