MOTORMAN O'REILLY CASE.

He was Cured of Diabetes by Dodd's Kidney Pills, Everything else Failed.

TORONTO, May 30.—(By Telegraph.) With reference to his experience with Dodd's Kidney Pills, and Diabetes, Mr. T. H. O'Reilly, Toronto Street Railway motorman No. 624, writes corroborating the report of his cures.

Mr. O'Reilly says:—"For three years I suffered horribly, in spite of all the medicines I tried. Not one of them gave the same relief. I endured the torture of scalding pains while urinating, and all the other agonies of diabetes.

"Finally I was induced to give Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial. The very first dose did me good and I got better and better with each succeeding dose. Three boxes worked a thorough and complete cure."

CURIOUS STATISTICS.

What a Healthy Man Consumes in Seventy Years of Life.

Taken all in all, a healthy man with a good appetite and moderate thirst consumes in 70 years 96½ tons of solid and liquid foods. If the consumer weighs, say, 150 pounds, he will eat and drink during his lifetime 1,280 times his own weight. Transforming all this foodstuff into mechanical labor, the strength derived would be sufficient to lift 87,600,000 tons one foot from the ground or to raise the Forth bridge at Edinburgh, which weighs 264,600,000 pounds, to a height of 1,235 feet.

Excluding the first 20 years of a lifetime, the quantity of cigarettes consumed by a regular smoker who smokes a dozen every day would in 50 years reach the number of 219,000, or a monster rolled cigarette more than 16 feet in length and about 5 feet thick, beside which the tallest man would resemble a veritable dwarf. A cigar smoker consuming six of his favorite brand a day would during his lifetime smoke a gigantic cigar of more than 16 feet long and almost 2½ feet thick. It would weigh 4,410 pounds and would take the suction power of a steam engine to puff it.

As the smoking habit is not necessary to existence it is easily seen how much money a smoker wastes in the course of years. A pipe smoker consumes in his lifetime a half ton of tobacco.—New York Herald.

The Cave Dweller as an Artist.

We must remember that there are no such things as lines in nature. Whether we use them to represent a human profile, the depth of a shadow, the darkness of a cloak or a thundercloud, they are mere conventional symbols. They were invented a long time ago by a distinguished sportsman who was also a heaven born amateur artist—the John Leech of his day—who engraved for us (from life) the picture of a mammoth on one of its own tusks. And we have accepted them ever since as the cheapest and simplest way of interpreting in black and white for the wood engraver.—George du Maurier in Harper's Magazine.

The Music That He Found on a Necktie.

"The other day," said a young bachelor, "I received as a gift a necktie, marked across one end of the white satin lining of which I found a bar of music. I don't read music myself, but I took this to somebody that does, and what do you think it was? 'Elest be the tie that binds!' I thought that was pretty lick, eh?"—New York Sun.

DOES THE EMPLOYMENT OF LABOR

BENEFIT A COMMUNITY?

OF COURSE IT DOES

D. A. Bruce employs more people manufacturing custom and ready-made clothing than all the staff of the largest dry goods house in the province (possibly twice as many). He is prepared to give employment to three times the number if a more liberal patronage is extended in the purchase of home made clothing. He is confident he gives better value than any importing clothier, who merely acts as a middle man between the foreign manufacturer and local consumer, taking his money and sending it abroad to pay for foreign labor. The product of the local manufacturer should have preference —it's the best.
