Firemen Called To Crystal Rink

Summerside firemen were called out about three o'clock yesterday for an alarm originating at the Crystal Rink. Some person had set fire to several packing boxes in the middle of the ice and the smoke coming through the roof was seen by a passerby. There was no danger of the building burning down from this blaze. It was apparently only done by way of diversion from the arduous task of demolishing the building.

Each summer for the past several years, vandals have made a complete wreck of the interior of the building and it has had to be rebuilt every fall. This year they have got a quick start on the job.
The rink was closed for the season on Friday and yesterday it looked as if a miniature cyclone had swept through it. A whole section of the promenade had been ripped up and thrown on the ice. There were holes in one wall almost big enough to drive a truck through. It must have been hard work on somebody's part and as it had no useful purpose it is apparently being done for the love of destruction. The building is owned by F. Earle MacDonald.—S.

Funeral Saturday At Montrose

Owen Gordon of Alma, whose death occurred suddenly on Wednesday morning, were held from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Brenton Ram-Rev. J. M. Sheen, was assisted by Rev. C. O. Howlett, minister of Alma Baptist Church, who read the Scriptures. Hymns sung were, "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Abide With Me". A solo, "There's A Beautiful Place Called Heaven," was sung by Rev. Mr. Sheen. Pall bearers were Messrs. Wallace Dalton, Frank Barbour, Howard Dunbar, Hudson Fridham, Frank Shea and Russell Hardy. Flower bearers were four grandsons, Messrs. Kenneth Gordon, Heber Ramsay, Alton Gordon, and Leigh Matthews.

Despite difficult travelling conditions many friends assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to a Christian gentleman, a good neighbor and friend. Also present were a large number of his brethren of the Masonic order who conducted their beautiful rite of farewell at the grave. Interment was in Montrose cemetery.

25 R.A.F. Students
Arrive To Join
S' Side Station
The ranks of those undergoing air training at the Summerside air station under the North Atlantic air training organization was swelled over the week end by the arrival of approximately 25 Royal Air Force student navigators.

They came to Summerside from London, Ont. where they have been for the past two weeks being familiarized with R.C.A.F. and Canadian customs and they are the first of what is expected to be a steady flow of students from the United Kingdom to receive air training in Canada. They hold the rank of provisional pilot officer and while here will have the same status of Canadian flight cadets.
On graduation they will be commissioned as well as receiving their navigators global wings.

They arrived in Summerside on Saturday evening by train and were welcomed to the station that evening by the commanding officer, Group Captain H. G. Richards O. B. E. Their course which is exactly the same as the course for Canadian students, will commence on Tuesday after the Easter week end.—S.

Special Services
At Summerside
On Tuesday and the concluding evenings of the special services at Summerside in connection with Holy Week, Dr. McGregor Fraser, Head of the Philosophy Department of Acadia University, continued his sermons on the "Principles of our Truth." He stated that central to Christianity is the Person of Jesus Christ. In Him we see utter purity of motive linked up with the most worthwhile expression in outer activities and in character. He gave himself to mankind, not merely in isolated acts, but in His entire Being, and in order that He might redeem people from every manner of sin—their zeal for good works constituting the first test of their redemption.

On Tuesday and Wednesday evening the services were held again in the Baptist Church, where a vocal solo, "A Legend," by Tschaikowsky, was rendered by Mrs.
Clarence Mercer, with Mr. James Peach as organist. On the following evening the soloist was Mr. J.
H. Leuty, singing "Pardon Us, Gracious Lord" by Bach. On Wednesday evening the service was in the Presbyterian Church, the choir singing "The Old Rugged Cross," with Mrs. Cleve Whalen, the organist. On Friday evening in Trinity United Church, the organist was Miss Mary Geldart. The meetings were well attended and the choirs of the different churches led in the singing of the congregational hymns.—S.

Robbery Case Is Continued At Summerside

The preliminary hearing of two local men charged with robbery with violence continued in Summerside Police Court on Saturday before Magistrate E. H. Strong, K.
C., and now stands adjourned until Tuesday. Cross examination of the complainant, Mr. Roy Ford of Northam, by one of the accused resumed where it had left off the previous Wednesday, when court opened and only concluded when the Magistrate assured the accused that he could ask more questions if he wished before the hearing is concluded.

The Crown alleges that between $40.00 and $60.00 was stolen from Mr. Ford.
Camille Arseneault, an employe of Messrs. R. T. Holman Ltd. gave evidence that he saw the two accused together on the afternoon of Monday, March 19th, the day of the alleged assault, to the residence of John Arthur's tin shop between 1 and 1:30 p. m. He saw them through a window from the top floor of Holman's store.

Willard Hogg, employed in Holman's produce office, testified that he had called police that afternoon after being advised that somebody had been assaulted.

Cst. Arthur Andrew of the Town Police gave evidence that he saw the two accused together several times on the afternoon of the day in question. He said that with Chief of Police Peter White, he had responded to a call from the rear of Holman's store where he found Mr. Ford, who appeared to be in a condition of shock and was bleeding from the mouth. He seemed to be sober. Cst. Andrew testified that later that afternoon in company of Cst. Elmer Matheson he had arrested the two accused on a warrant. When found they were standing together on First Street in front of Maynard Perry's barber shop eating a chicken.

When Cst. Andrew had concluded Mr. Harold Goodwin, who is representing the Crown, stated that this concluded the case for the prosecution and the court was then adjourned until Tuesday.—S.

Restaurant Property Bought By Legion

An important business transaction took place in Summerside on Saturday when the local branch of the Canadian Legion purchased the Olympia Restaurant property on Water Street from Mr. J. Heston Gaudet. This property is located directly across from the C.N.R. Station and the Legion intends to renovate it as a home for the branch.
It is a large two-story wooden building and was rebuilt two years ago after being partially destroyed by fire.

This property came into Mr.
Gaudet's possession in 1905 when he purchased it from the late James Breuhalt. In those days it was a produce warehouse with sales out in front and for several years previous to this Mr.
Gaudet had operated a small tobacco shop in a corner of the building. In 1904 he had commenced to manufacture ice cream under the trade name "Olympia" and this well known product is still made by Mr. Gaudet in a modern plant located next door to the building which has been sold.

For a few years after Mr.
Gaudet purchased the building a barber shop occupied the front of the building but Mr. Gaudet was not long before Mr. Gaudet opened a restaurant and it has been used for this purpose till the present, although for approximately ten years the operation has been carried on by tenants.

For some years after Mr.
Gaudet purchased the building the upper floor was a hotel operating under the name "The Waverly House" but later this portion was made into a dance hall. Lately it has also been used as a large dining room for clubs and other groups in conjunction with the restaurant downtown.

The Legion has been contemplating the erection of a new building for some time and a year ago they purchased a property on the corner of Spring and Foundry Streets for this purpose. This lot will likely be for sale now. It is understood that the purchase price of the Olympia is $18,000. The Legion intend to completely renovate the ground floor to provide for members lounge room, a Lan-dies Auxiliary room, a land room, office, etc. The upstairs for the present will be kept as an auditorium and dance hall and it is understood that there is a possibility it may be leased for the purpose of catering to public dinners, luncheons, etc.

Recently the Legion has been occupying temporary quarters in the old curling rink on St.
Stephens Street.—S.

Bedeque Notes

Several people from Bedeque, Central Bedeque and Lower Bedeque, attended the funeral of the late W. S. Muttart, Carleton, on Wednesday afternoon.

community is being extended to the family of the late Mr. W. S.

Special Easter Services Held At Summerside

Special Easter services were held in Summerside churches yesterday with large congregations in attendance in all cases.
At the Baptist Church the usual Sunday morning service was held, the choir sang two anthems "Bells Of The Morning" and "Alleluia, Christ Is Risen." The topic of the sermon by the minister, W. A. Harper was "Easter Was Inevitable." The organist was Mr. John Leuty. In the evening the Easter Message was told in pageant song and story. Mr. James Peach was the organist. Mrs.
Clarence Mercer sang "My Heart Ever Faithful." Miss Elizabeth Harper sang "The Joyful Easter-tide" and Mr. John Leuty sang "The Strife Is Over." The narrator for the pageant was Mrs. Frank Jenkins. A tableau of spring was presented by the children under the direction of Mrs. Bruce Johnston. The Scripture reading was by Ruth MacFarlane.

At the Church of Christ the morning service opened with a hymn followed by communion. The children brought the message of Easter in verse and song. The minister, Rev. W. O. spoke briefly on being risen with Christ. A special Easter service was held in the evening. The theme "The Road To Victory," by Scripture reading in-terpersed with solos, quartets and choruses told the story of Jesus Christ from his triumphant entry into Jerusalem to the time of the Ascension. The narrator was Ira Crozier.

At the Presbyterian Church Rev.
Donald MacKay preached a sermon appropriate to the Easter time. The theme was that the fact of Easter demonstrates that our fellowship is with the living Savior. Because Christ lives, we live also. He emphasized the living Christ over the mere teachings of Christ. During the evening service the choir sang two special anthems and the film "The Second Chance" was shown.

At Trinity United, Rev. K. G.
Sullivan, delivered an Easter sermon in the morning, taken from St. John. Anthems were "God So Loves The World" by Shakey and in the evening "Wake Up, My Glory" by Maker and "Christ The Lord Is Risen." At both morning and evening services there was an exceptionally large attendance of the congregation.

At St. Mary's Anglican celebration of holy communion was held at eight and eleven in the morning. The altar was beautifully decorated with flowers donated by members of the church in memory of departed loved ones. An impressive and appropriate Easter sermon was delivered by Ven Archdeacon G. R. Harrison, both at eleven o'clock service in the morning and at the seven o'clock service in the evening.

At the church eucharist at eleven o'clock service in addition to the other musical portions of the service, a special Easter anthem
"If We Believe That Jesus Died An' Rose Again" was rendered.

The solo parts being taken by Mrs.
Dorothy Wyatt.
At St. Paul's the regular Sunday Masses were celebrated at seven, eight, nine thirty and High Mass at eleven. The children's mass at eight o'clock was celebrated by Rt. Rev. G. J. MacLellan, V. G., with the girls' choir rendering beautiful Easter hymns. The nine shirts and the eleven Masses were celebrated by Rev. A. J. Mac-Leod and the sermons at both Masses were delivered by Rev.
Joseph LeClair. The altar was most beautifully decorated by the Sisters with flowers donated by the members of the congregation.—S. cellaneous shower.

wedding march played by Mrs.
Winsloe Watts. Joan Watts and Arlene Clow then brought in the heavily laden baskets of gifts, which were opened by Vaunda Stewart and Marina Ward. The accompanying verses were read by Mrs. Bob Craswell and Audrey Kitson while Mrs. Errol Stewart arranged the gifts on the table.

Mrs. Winsloe Watts, on behalf of the Women's Institute, then read a nicely worded address and Mrs. Hibbert Tremere presented Barbara, who was a valued member, with a beautiful piece of silver.

Barbara, in a few well chosen words, thanked everyone for the lovely gifts and also thanked the girls who had taken part and arranged the shower. Everyone then joined in singing, "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow," after which the bride-to-be was heartily bounced by her girl friends.

The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in social intercourse, and a sing-song led by Mrs. Winsloe Watts. Some also enjoyed a game of cards. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies, after which everyone departed wishing Barbara many years of wedded happiness.
