

Poetry.

THE FAITHLESS VOW.

BY G. H. BARNES.

I knew thee when a merry child,
And men's faithful still,
Too true, for oft through manhood's breast,
Sad thoughts will send a chill.

I knew thee when in beauty grown,
Beneath the moon's pure beam,
Thou said'st that heart was mine alone,
Ah, can it be a dream?

I know thee now, thy once fair cheek
Is traced with furrows deep;
Thine eye hath lost its haughty glance,
Aye, thou hast learn'd to weep.

THE SLEEPING CHILD.

BY LEIGH HUNT.

A brook went dancing on its way,
From bank to valley leaping,
And by its sunny margin lay
A lovely infant sleeping.

It is a lovely sight to view
Within this world of sorrow,
One spot which still retains the hue
That earth from heaven may borrow.

What happy dreams, fair child are given,
To cast their sunshine o'er thee?
What cord unites that soul to heaven;
Where visions guide before thee?

Mayhap, afar on unseen wings,
Thy silent spirit soaring,
Now hears the burst from golden strings,
Where angels are adoring.

Varieties.

THE CHOICE OF A CALLING.—Dr. John M. Mason, in some one of his essays, tells a story of a young man who had been originally a maker of brooms, and had 'studied divinity' as it is termed,

Young man, it is the duty of all men to glorify God.
But he calls to glorify him in different ways, according to the gifts he bestows upon them.

The anecdote has a moral. Each man to his calling.
There is for every man his own peculiar sphere of action and influence, and the sooner he finds it out, the better for him.

An Irishman called on a lady and gentleman, in whose employ he was, for the purpose of getting some tea and tobacco.
'I had a dream last night, your honor,' said he to the gentleman.

Mr. Pitt went one evening into the Duchess of Gordon's box, at the opera house. Not having seen him for some time, she addressed him with her usual blunt familiarity.

'Do you cast things here?' inquired a Yankee the other day, as he sauntered into a foundry and addressed the proprietor. 'We do.'
'You cast all kinds of things in iron, eh?' was the next query.

FIDELITY OF THE DOG.—The Almighty, who gave the dog to be the companion of our pleasures and our toils, hath invested him with a nature noble and incapable of deceit.

THE SKIPPING ROPE.—The skipping rope, a toy which is discarded by the young girl when entering a premature womanhood, but which ought to be looked upon as a necessary article in every boy's

BROTHERLY LOVE.—'Jack, Jack!' cried a sailor, on board a ship at sea, lately to one of his companions. 'Hallo!' replied Jack;
'what is it?' 'Your brother's overboard!' 'Overboard?' 'Yes, yes, blow the lubber! he has got my sea-boots and monkey-jacket on!'

ADVICE.—Gentlemen walking the streets with canes or umbrellas should always carry them on their shoulders, for then they may get an opportunity of patting out the eyes of persons behind them.

A degree of disregard for public opinion is absolutely necessary for one's individual dignity, virtue, and happiness.

Bliss' Compound Cod Liver Oil Candy,

A new and effectual remedy for Coughs, Common Colds, Cold in the Head, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Asthma, Tickling in the Throat, Catarrh, Diseases of the Lungs and Bronchial Affections.
This favorite remedy is composed of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with other valuable ingredients, which completely disguise the repulsive taste of the Oil, without detracting from its medicinal virtues, presenting it in a form by which it can be administered to the most delicate invalid, without inconvenience. The medicinal influence of this Candy pursues the exact tract of the inflammatory action, causing cough. First, soothing the organs of the voice, its se-dativ influence, passes along the mucous lining of the windpipe into the bronchi, and allaying pulmonary irritation, giving ease and comfort to the chest, restoring the voice to its accustomed clearness and powers; Congealed Phlegm, Acrimony in the Fluids, and Obstructions in the Glands, are gently and safely discharged by easy expectoration. It never disagrees with the stomach, a common cold yields to its benign influence in a few hours, and when resorted to, before the complaint is far advanced, all danger of CONSUMPTION is entirely prevented.

DR. EVANS'S PAIN KILLER.

NO Medicine has been discovered that is so happily adapted to use internally as drops to be taken, and yet perform such wonders when applied externally as a wash, bath, or by friction.

USE IT IN THIS MANNER.
For common headache, simple bathing will answer. For sudden colds and hard coughs, [to cure immediately.] put one teaspoonful in four of molasses, and take three spoonfuls of the mixture as often as you cough. Bathe the neck, breast and sides with it to cure soreness of a cough.

Asthma, Phthisic and sore breasts—for speedy relief, 30 drops in molasses, and bathe freely with it clear, and keep on flannel wet in it.
For bowel complaint, cholera morbus, cholera and diarrhoea, a teaspoonful in a gill of milk and molasses, well mixed; if the pain is severe, bathe the bowels with it, and in cholera repeat the dose every hour.

For Dyspepsia and sick stomach, 20 to 30 drops in sweetened water, morning, noon and night, till all symptoms yield, and you are restored to perfect health.

For all rheumatic complaints, lame neck, swelled face, sore throat and toothache, 60 drops above, three times a day; bathe the parts well, rub with a warm cloth, and take a teaspoonful of mustard seed nightly, in milk or molasses, at bed time.

For burns, scalds, and all sores, pricks, stings or old sores, bathe well and often the parts afflicted.
For sudden colds or croup, 30 drops in Molasses, every hour, and bathe freely with it.

For canker, sore mouth and stomach, chicken pox, or measles, 30 drops, twice a day in sweet milk.

TAKE NO OTHER.

HEALTH WHERE 'TIS SOUGHT!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND STOMACH, WHEN
IN A MOST HOPELESS STATE.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Matthew Harvey, of Chapel Hill, Ardrie, Scotland, dated the 15th January, 1850.

To Professor HOLLOWAY:
SIR,—Your valuable Pills have been the means, with God's blessing of restoring me to a state of perfect health, and at a time when I thought I was on the brink of the grave. I had consulted several eminent Doctors, who, after doing what they could for me, stated that they considered my case as hopeless. I ought to say that I had been suffering from a Liver and Stomach complaint of long standing, which during the last two years got so much worse, that every one considered my condition as hopeless. I as a last resource got a Box of your Pills, which soon gave relief, and by persevering in their use for some weeks, together with rubbing night and morning your Ointment over my chest and stomach and right side, I have by their means alone got completely cured, and to the astonishment of myself and every body who knows me.

(Signed) MATTHEW HARVEY.

CURE OF A CASE OF WEAKNESS AND DEBILITY OF FOUR YEARS' STANDING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Smith, of No. 5, Little Thomas Street, Gibson Street, Lambeth, dated December 12, 1849.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—I beg to inform you that for nearly 5 years I hardly knew what it was to have a day's health, suffering from extreme weakness and debility, with constant nervous headaches, giddiness and sickness of the stomach, together with a great depression of spirits. I used to think that nothing could benefit me, as I had been to many medical men, some of whom, after doing all that was in their power, informed me that they considered that I had some spinal complaint beyond the reach of cure, together with a very disordered state of the stomach and liver, making my case so complicated that nothing could be done for me. One day being unusually ill and in a dejected state, I saw your Pills advertised and resolved to give them a trial, more perhaps from curiosity than with a hope of being cured, however I soon found myself better by taking them —and so I went on persevering in their use for six months, when, I am happy to say they effected a perfect cure.

(Signed) WILLIAM SMITH.
(frequently called EDWARD)

CURE OF ASTHMA OF TWENTY YEARS' STANDING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. J. K. Heydon, 78 King Street, Sydney, dated 10th November, 1849.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—I have the pleasure to inform you that many extraordinary cures of Asthma have been effected here by means of your Pills. One is that of a lady residing near the "Razorback," who after having for Twenty years been unable to make the slightest exertion, suffering very fearfully from shortness of breath, coughing and spitting, but is now, (to use her own expression) able to run up to the top of that mountain. Another case is that of Mr. Caton, Tailor, Hutchinson's buildings, Clarence-street, who was so dreadfully bad that he was confined entirely to his bed-room or six months, prior to his commencing with your Pills, and attended regularly by his medical man, who pronounced him to be in a dying state, yet he, likewise, to my knowledge, has been restored to perfect health by the use of your Pills, and rubbing your Ointment night and morning into his chest.

(Signed) J. K. HEYDON.

THE EARL OF ALDBOROUGH CURED OF A LIVER AND STOMACH COMPLAINT.

Extract of a Letter from His Lordship, dated Villa Messina Leghorn, 21st February, 1845.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—Various circumstances prevented the possibility of my thanking you before this time for your politeness in sending me your Pills as you did. I now take this opportunity of sending you an order for the amount and at the same time to add, that your Pills have effected a cure of a disorder in my Liver and Stomach, which all the most eminent Faculties at home, and all over the Continent, had not been able to effect; no, not even the waters of Carlsbad and Marienbad. I wish to have another Box and a Pot of the Ointment, in case any of my family should ever require either. Your most obliged and obedient Servant.

(Signed) ALDBOROUGH.
