

Miscellaneous Items.

The sensitive plant kept in darkness during the day and illuminated during the night, had in three days accommodated itself to the diurnal state, opening in the evening and closing in the morning.

Hidden Fees.

Among the many for a man's health and his peace of mind, the most important is to be free from the fear of disease. With B. B. B. to overcome the system, however, no danger is anticipated, as every dose brings the sufferer a long step towards recovery, and a permanent cure always results.

Experiments prove that there is a diurnal period belonging to vegetables.

A Crying Evil.

Every crying evil should be promptly removed. Sick headache is a crying evil affecting thousands of persons, which can easily be removed by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters, the best known stomach, liver and bowel regulator, and cure for sick headache from whatever cause arising.

Night-blowing plants, which had been kept in cellars lighted by lamps, exchanged night for day in their time of opening.

The Blood is the Life.

Good health without pure blood is simply impossible, and to secure pure blood is of absolute necessity, especially in spring, when the blood is very impure. Burdock Blood Bitters is the remedy, without an equal in the world of medicine. It drives out all poisonous humors of the blood from a common pimp to the worst scrofulous case.

Even the definition of the phrase "good weather," depends entirely on the point of view, remarked the man who keeps umbrellas to hire.—Washington Star.

A Wonderful Change.

Gentlemen, For twenty years I suffered from rheumatism, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, etc., and received no benefit from the many medicines I tried, but after taking five bottles of B. B. B., I can eat heartily of any food, and am strong and smart. It is a good medicine and has made a wonderful change in my health.

Mrs. W. H. Lee, Harley, Ont.

At last.—I have at last come to the conclusion, said Mr. Stalate, "So glad," murmured his fair victim, glancing at the clock.—N. Y. Herald.

Greatly Benefited.

Dear Sir,—I have been using B. B. B. for cancer of the breast during the last two years and four months, both internally and externally, and have been greatly benefited. Have had cancer over seven years, and no medicine ever did me so much good as B. B. B., and will be pleased to answer any questions as to the use and benefit received from this remedy.

Mrs. E. Elliot, Watford, Ont.

"If there is anything I dislike," said Bliggin, as the sister returned his witty efforts, "it's a man who won't take a joke." Washington Star.

Harassing headaches make many lives miserable, needlessly so, when a prompt cure like Burdock Blood Bitters is obtainable.

Tastes differ. Some people can see beauty even in a looking-glass; others can not.—Boston Transcript.

Rev. Wm. Hollishead.

Pastor of the Presbyterian church of Sparta, N. J., voluntarily writes strongly in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla. He says: "Nothing I know of will cleanse the blood, stimulate the liver or clear the stomach like this remedy. I know of scores and scores who have been helped or cured by it."

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy, yet efficient, action.

A man's political friends are not always the men he would like to trade horses with.—Columbus Post.

For all forms of female weakness D. Williams' Pink Pills are an unfailing specific. Mr. Thomas Strachan, Postmaster, Robellion writes:—My female weakness, has been attended by four of the best doctors in our section. She began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and two boxes have done her vastly more good than all the medicines she took from those doctors. Sold by all dealers.

"That remains to be seen," as the boy said when he split the ink on the tablecloth.—London Answers.

It is a lamentable fact that pride often wears patent-leather shoes and begs its tobacco.—Columbus Post.

We're not waiting for the bats and moles but for men and women who have eyes and use them, who have brains and reason! There's a new world for them—suffering and sickly as they are—a new world created from the brain of a skillful physician—a discovery—the "Golden Medical Discovery."

Years ago Dr. Pierce found out that the secret of all chronic bronchial, throat and lung trouble lay—in the beginning at least—in impure blood and the weak tones of the system; that the way to cure these effects was to remove the cause, that human nature being the same, the same result might be looked for in the nearly all cases. No content was he that the exceptions were uncommon that he took the risk of giving the medicine to those who did not benefit for nothing, and the results have proved that he was right.

"And 'Golden Medical Discovery' is the remedy for the soul! The only guaranteed Liver, Blood and Lung remedy. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

She: Will you take a part in our theatricals? He: Aw, weally, I aw, should so like to. What shall I take? She: Tickets. Judge.

SKODA'S GERMAN SOAP. "Soft as Velvet," "Pure as Gold," that tells the whole story. Most highly recommended. It is elegant. At all Druggists. Price, 25 cts.

Waiter—Will you have salt on your eggs? Guest—No, thank you. They're not at all fresh.—Pick Me Up Fox pains in the stomach bowels or kidneys, use Johnson's Anodyne Liniment internally.

"Miss Sharpe proposed to Cholly last night. 'Did he accept?' 'He had to. Her father was in the house.'—New York Press.

GIVE Johnson's Anodyne Liniment a fair chance, and it always "gets there" when needed.

Man in a wagon (who has bought an unsound horse from a Quaker)—"No, I don't expect you to take him back. I only want you to lend me your hat and coat, so that I can sell him to somebody else."

After the Grip Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore your strength and health, and expel every trace of poison from the blood.

Young Man—Do you think your sister would like to marry and leave you? "The terror: "Oh, yes. She said she would have married long ago if it hadn't been for me. Life has been a hell."

LOWER ARCADE, March 8, 1886 J. H. Patten, Esq.—I ear Sir,—I have found your "Opeleka" Cough Mixture to be the best selling of any cough mixture kept in stock, and hear it highly spoken of by those that have used it.

Physician.—I called to collect those bills which I sent you. Mr. Squills: You are perfectly welcome to them, doctor. Here they all in one packet.—Pharmaceutical Era.

"So that young heires has promised to marry you?" "Yes, in three years." "Isn't that a good while to wait?" "It may be, but she's worth her wait in gold."—Washington Star.

From Friend to Friend Goes the story of the excellence of Hood's Sarsaparilla and what it has accomplished, and this is the strongest advertising which is done on behalf of this medicine. We endeavor to tell honestly what Hood's Sarsaparilla is and what it will do, but what it has done is far more important and far more potent. Its unequalled record of cures is sure to convince those who have never tried Hood's Sarsaparilla that it is an excellent medicine.

"That's an angel of a house!" said she. "Not quite," he replied. It only has one wing.—Harper's Bazar.

A HAPPY HINT.—We don't believe in keeping a good thing when we hear of it, and for this reason we take special pleasure in referring sufferers with Piles in any form, bleeding, protruding, etc., to Betons's Pile Salve, the use of which will prevent a vast deal of suffering and inconvenience.
