THE JUDGES' SALARIES.

The Tariff, Chinese Immigration, &c.

OTTAWA, July 8.

Hon. Mr. Foster yesterday moved the House into committee upon the resolution to provide for an extension of bounty of $1 per 100 pounds, 70 degrees, upon raw beet root sugar grown in Canada for two years more, from July 1st, 1893, to June 30th, 1895. There was a discussion on the resolution throughout the morning and afternoon sessions, when the resolution was reported. Sir John Thompson announced that the resolutions respecting the salaries of judges would be dropped and taken up again early next session. The tariff bill was introduced and read a first time. Hon. Mr. Foster introduced a resolution allowing members to draw their indemnity for twelve days' absence during the session provided such absence was caused by public business or illness.

The Chinese emigration bill was read for the third time. The second session of the seventh parliament of Canada is now practically at an end, although the House will meet again at three o'clock, and prorogation will positively take place before Saturday evening. All business is really over, and the Commons are only waiting for the Senate to get through with the criminal code.

THE ENGLISH ELECTIONS.

Conservatives, 160; Liberals, 127.

LONDON, July 8.

The corrected election totals at midnight show the Conservative strength to be 160 in all; Liberals, 116; Irish and Parnellite Nationalists, 10; Parnellites, 1. The Irish Home Rule strength, therefore, counting the labor candidates and Irish Nationalists, anti-Parnellites and Parnellites, which are Liberals, is 127, against a Tory and Liberal Unionist strength of 160. It is generally admitted that Gladstone will be returned to power and sustained in his place by the Irish vote. There is great jubilation among radicals and socialists at the victory in Battersea won by Burns, the labor agitator, over the Conservative candidate. Thomas Sexton, Nationalist, has been ousted from Belfast by a son of the Right Hon. W. E. Forster, at one time Chief Secretary for Ireland, when he was known by the title of "Buckshot."

Camp Brighton.

At ten o'clock yesterday morning the 82nd Battalion was formed up and inspected by companies by Major Gordon, acting D. A. C., commencing with No. 1, in company drill and efficiency of officers, all of which was very satisfactorily performed. No. 3 Company of Charlottetown commanded by Capt. D. Stewart, was the best drilled company of the Battalion, making full marks in everything. Major Gordon said he was delighted with the camp throughout.

In the afternoon the Battalion was inspected by Major Gordon. The battalion drawn up in line received the inspecting officer at the general salute, after which he made an inspection of the arms and accoutrements of the men. The men were then put through some manoeuvres, such as breaking into column, forming into line, the firing exercises, etc. Considering the short time allowed for preparation the different manoeuvres were very creditably performed, showing that the men took an interest in their drill and were anxious to excel. At the close of the inspection Lt.-Col. Gordon made some remarks to the men, and expressed himself as being well pleased with the soldierly appearance they presented, as well as the manner in which they performed their drill.

The day's proceedings terminated with a grand promenade concert and strawberry festival. There was a large attendance of visitors, and altogether it was a grand success. Several sales and exercises were given by the men, and the bayonet exercise and sword dance were performed. The strawberry and cream table was well patronized and everything passed off well.

The Artillery will be inspected by Major Wilson, of "B" Battery, Quebec, to-day. Last night a lad named Scott fell from the magazine, having his arm fractured. Dr. H. D. Johnson, assistant camp surgeon, set the broken limb and the lad is doing well. Camp will be struck to-morrow (Saturday).

Supreme Court.

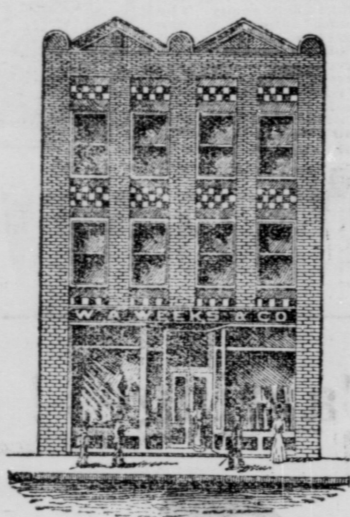

FRIDAY, July 8.

Horne vs Bank of Nova Scotia and others. The presiding judge charged the jury in this case this morning. They returned a verdict for defendants, the assignees of F. T. Newbery. John Bolger vs the city of Charlottetown. Action for backing water on plaintiff's land. This case is now on. Peters & Peters for plaintiff; Fitzgerald, Q. C., for defendants.

POLICE FENCIBLES.—At the Police Court this morning, the defendant in an assault case was fined $10 and costs, one drunk was fined $1 or 4 days, and a milkmaid's dog case was adjourned for one week. If Crossman, sent up for trial in the Supreme Court for feloniously entering the premises of E. Byrne & Co., has been released on bail in two sureties of $100 each and himself in $100.

Michael Cameron and officer Campbell are making a tour of the bar-rooms in the city, seeing how many of them are fitted up in accordance with the new law. They are taking copious notes of every place visited. Those who are not conforming with the law will be prosecuted.
