Premier Is Surprised By Fine Flower Show Display

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN

Premier A. W. Matheson officially opened the 7th annual Provincial Flower Show yesterday afternoon at the Baptist Church Hall Summerside amidst a panorama of brilliant blooms that were expertly displayed in all their glorious splendour.

Premier Matheson said: "I was indeed pleasantly surprised. I never expected to see anything as grand and beautiful as this. "He congratulated the Abegweit Chapter I.O.D.E. which sponsor the show and also the residents of Summerside, who, he said, "always work together." The Premier added that without this cooperation and the leadership of the I.O.D.E. such a fine show could never be presented.

Mayor W. A. Currie, who introduced the Premier, brought greetings from his Council and the citizens of the Town. He stated the flower show had promoted interest in flower culture and home beautification in this Province and extended his congratulations to Mrs. Leslie Simmons, convener and her committee as well as the other members of the I.O.D.E. Abegweit Chapter.

Miss Wanda Wyatt, regent of the sponsoring body was chairman of the opening ceremonies during which she told of the distinguishing marks of the floral emblem of P. E. I. the lady slipper, and her description of this beautiful flower was very informative.

A special prize is being awarded for the best basket of flowers representing the colors of this flower.

Miss Wyatt expressed sincere thanks to the convener, Mrs. Simmons, who, she said had done double duty due to the absence of Dr. Henry Moyse who on vacation. Miss Wyatt added that the inspiration and assistance Dr. Moyse had rendered in the past were greatly missed. She stated she believed this year's floral display to be the most beautiful yet and expressed the hope that everyone would throughly enjoy the 7th provincial flower show.

World Cyclist Will Attend Exhibition At Crapaud Today

CRAPAUD — Attending the Crapaud Exhibition today will be Hollywood world cyclist, Walter E. Devine, who has arrived in Prince Edward Island where he will remain for a short stay before proceeding to Nova Scotia and Newfoundland to complete his tour of Canada.

Travelling by bicycle for the past five years, he has completed 72,000 miles and covered every state in the United States, Mexico and almost all the provinces of Canada.

Yesterday Mr. Devine addressed the school children of Crapaud on the safety rules of cycling. He intends to visit the Provincial Building in Charlottetown where he will obtain a document certifying to his visit to this Province.

After completing his tour of Canada, Mr. Devine wil leave for South America and then Europe to continue his world tour which he expects will take seven more years.

Is Remanded For Sentence

SUMMERSIDE — A resident of Duvar, appearing in Magistrate's Court, Summerside, charged with breaking, entry and theft, pleaded guilty, and his case was adjourned for sentence.

A Sea View man also had his case adjourned for entence when he pleaded guilty to a charge of common assault.

Found guilty of possession of liquor not purchased at a vendor, a St. Peters resident was fined $25 and costs. A fine of $100 and costs was imposed on a man from Elmsdale found guilty of driving while impaired.

Condition Of Injured Boy Has Improved

SUMMERSIDE — Some improvement in the condition of 12-year-old Cedric Arsenault of Urbainville was reported last night by Prince County Hospital officials.

The youth was one of five cyclists run down by a car on Sunday afternoon near Abrams Village as the result of which he sustained a lacerated lung.

Another Urbainville youth, Raymond Arsenault injured in the same accident is reported to be in good condition.

The other three boys escaped serious injury but were treated at Prince County Hospital for minor cuts and bruises.

S'Side Tax Appeals Said To Total 133

SUMMERSIDE — A total of 133 tax appeals have been received at the town office at Summerside, and it is expected that hearings will begin within ten days.

Since appeals must be made within twenty days of receipt of the tax notice, it may be assumed that the period has expired. In a few cases, however, the tax bill may have been delayed and was not received until a later date, in which case the time would not have expired, but the officials explained that any appeals received now would be carefully checked to see if they are within the required period.

TRUCK BLAST KILLS 4

MONSELICE, Italy (AP) — A truck trailer loaded with explosives blew up Monday in front of the hospital in this town near Padua, killing four men in an adjoining bar. The trailer jolted loose on a curve and overturned. Killed were a father, his two sons and a nephew. They were engulfed in flames from the blast as they sat at a table in an open-front bar alongside the street.

Another Large Congregation At Alberton Church

ALBERTON — The main body of Alberton United Church was filled to capacity for the second of a series of evangelistic services being conducted this week by Rev. H. B. (Jim) Jones, under auspices of the Men's Association.

The opening hymn-sing and the worship were conducted by Rev. Robert Latimer, assistant minister of Trinity Church, Charlottetown.

The service of praise was led by the O'Leary charge brotherhood choir under direction of Mr. James Peach of Slemon Park.

Rev. Heber Kean, minister of O'Leary church was present with the choir. As special selections the choir sang, "My Jesus, I Love Thee," and "Have Thine Own Way, Lord." Rev. Mr. Latimer sang a solo, "Jesus, I Come."

Mrs. Keith Rogers of Charlottetown was pianist and Rev. Robert Crooks of Elmsdale was organist.

Rev. Mr. Jones related to the congregation the story of how he came to give his life to Christ and of his call to the ministry. Forty-seven rededications and decisions have been made during this missioin which is now in its third day.
