Breadalbane and Vicinity

Mr. L. S. Seaman recently made a business trip to Charlottetown.

Friends will be pleased that Mr. Laughlin Martin, who has been indisposed for months, is much improved in health. Mr. Martin, formerly of Breadalbane Village, and now of Rose Valley, visited friends here recently.

Mr. Bramwell Chandler, Miss Grace Campbell and Miss Frances MacMillan of the P. E. I. Libraries, attended a meeting in the Orange Hall, Breadalbane, on June 24, at which it was unanimously voted to build a community-owned library for Breadalbane and vicinity.

Rev. E. M. B. Wheelock, Saint John, district secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, visited friends in Breadalbane on June 29, accompanied by Master Lionel Stevenson, who has been attending school in Saint John and was returning to his home in New Glasgow, P. E. I.

On June 26, the ladies of Fredericton W. I. catered for a banquet which was held in Fredericton Hall in honor of the 20th anniversary of the founding of the Breadalbane Village Institute. Thirty-one, including charter and present members with their husbands, attended. A birthday cake with 20 candles was served.

Mrs. P. E. Murray, the first secretary, read the minutes of the organization meeting, the first regular meeting and called the first roll of the Breadalbane Village Institute. To the latter five members responded. A silence of two minutes was observed for the departed members. Mrs. Stanford Glover, the present secretary, read a letter from Mrs. Roland Beaton (nee Miss Janette MacDougall) the teacher of Breadalbane Village school in 1933, the year of the organization of the Institute. Mrs. Graham proposed a toast to the men who had made it possible for the attendance of the women at W. I. meetings. Mr. Cuyler Matheson responded with a speech of appreciation for the work of the W. I. members. Mrs. Hedley Woodside, the first president, cut the birthday cake. A hearty vote of thanks to the Fredericton W. I. was responded to by Mrs. Frank Cutcliffe.
