

BY virtue of a Writ of Alias Statute Execution to me directed, issued out of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature, at the suit of John McMurdo Cannon, John Alexander Black and John Hoosee Barry, against Joseph Wightman, I have taken and seized, as the property of the said Joseph Wightman, All the Right, title and freehold interest of the said Joseph Wightman, in and to all that tract of land on Lot 52, near Montague Bridge, commencing on the west side of Montague road, at the North boundary of land in possession of Man-eah Rowe, and bounded on the South by said boundary, bearing south 74dg. 30min west for the distance of seventy-eight feet, bounded on the West by a line running thence North for a distance of seventy-two (72) feet and bounded on the East by Montague Road aforesaid, having a front thereon extending from the aforesaid place of commencement of seventy (70) feet, and bounded on the North for a distance of sixty-four (64) feet by a line, if continued, that would intersect the rear line at a distance of eleven (11) feet North from the angle of seventy-two (72) feet aforesaid, and bounded thence by a right line to said angle at seventy-two (72) feet, making a distance of twenty feet as the angle from the west end of the sixty-four (64) feet to the angle of seventy-two (72) feet or rear line of the land. Also, all that tract of land being a small Island known by the name Thrum Cap, situate in Albion Bay, including an area of three acres, a little more or less, which said tract of land or Island is particularly marked on a plan or survey of reserved lands adjoining Royalty of Georgetown, and kept in the Office of Registrar of Deeds. Also, all that piece of land in Lot sixty-four, commencing at a stake fixed on the North bank of South River, twenty-eight links east of the wharf; thence North 10deg. west eighty-eight links; thence West 3deg. South one hundred and thirty links; thence West 30dg. North one hundred and thirty-seven links; thence North 12deg. east two hundred and forty-eight links; thence East 8½deg. north, seven hundred and seventy-eight links to the shore of South River, and thence following courses of shore to place of commencement, containing two acres and 13-16 a little more or less. Also, all that piece of land in Lot fifty-nine, commencing on the south side of Whim Road, on said Lot 59, and on the division line between the former properties of the Trustees of Lord Selkirk and the Messrs. Montgomery, it runs from thence along said line in a southerly direction until it strikes boundary of Lot sixty-one; thence along said boundary east for the distance of six chains and twenty-five links; thence North to the Whim Road, and thence to place of commencement, containing fifty acres, more or less. Also, all that piece of land on Lot fifty-nine, conveyed to the said Joseph Wightman by Deed from Sir Graham Montgomery, commencing at a square stake fixed on the north side of Whim Road in the west boundary of land in the possession of Joseph Wightman and running by meridian of one thousand seventeen hundred and sixty-four; thence North for distance of twenty-four chains; thence West ten chains; thence South one chain and eighty-six links; thence West eight chains and eighty links; thence North ten chains; thence West forty chains and forty links; thence South to Whim Road aforesaid; thence Eastwardly along said road to place of commencement, containing two hundred acres, more or less. Also, all that other piece of land in Lot 59, commencing at a stake fixed on West side of road leading from Montague River to Murray Harbor, in the south boundary of land formerly in occupation of Thomas Parsons; thence running West eighteen chains and ten links; thence South twenty-two chains and fifteen links or to the Whim Road; thence East along said road sixteen chains on to road leading to Murray Harbor aforesaid, thence along said road to place of commencement, containing thirty-seven acres, more or less. Also, all that other piece of land in Lot 59, commencing at a stake fixed in south-east corner of tract of land demised to Alex'r McDonald and running west 3dg. 30m. south sixteen chains; thence South 3dg. 30m.

east thirty-seven chains and fifty links; thence east 3deg. 30min. north sixteen chains; thence North 3deg. 30min. west to place of commencement, containing sixty acres of land, more or less. Also, all that piece of land in Georgetown, commencing at a stake fixed on south side Water Street, at the north-west corner of water Lot number twenty-two, in said Town; thence running southerly along western boundary line of said Lot, one hundred feet; thence at right angles westwardly sixty-two feet until it meets a Street laid out in said Town called Wood Street; thence along said Wood Street northwardly until it meets Water Street aforesaid; thence along said last mentioned Street eastwardly to the stake or place of commencement. Also, all that piece of marsh land purchased by said Joseph Wightman from Cummings, in the year 1837, commencing at a square post fixed at a small creek at the head of marsh, thence following various courses of the margin between the upland and marsh westwardly and south westwardly to a stake on the point of upland on the shores of Albion Bay; thence South 45deg. east to channel of said creek; thence following various courses up the same to place of commencement, containing six acres and one rood. Also, all that tract of land at St. Andrews Point, Lot fifty-nine, commencing on the west side of the old French burying-ground, on the south side of Montague River; thence bounded by land in the occupation of Roger Westaway, south 50° west thirty-eight chains; thence also bounded by Westaway's land south 30° west seventeen chains and fifty links; thence bounded by land purchased by Edward Thornton, south 55° east thirty-one chains and fifty links, to Albion Bay; thence along shore to place of commencement, being bounded by Albion Bay and Montague River, containing, exclusive of reservations, one hundred and seventy-nine acres, more or less.
