

Predicts Way Will Be Found To Use Hydrogen Power

(By Frank Carey)
 GENEVA, (AP)—Indian scientist Homi J. Bhabha Monday opened the first international atomic energy conference with the prediction that the way may be found to harness the titanic energy of the hydrogen bomb for peaceful use.

Bhabha, president of the 72-country scientific parley, said such a solution might be found within the next 20 years.

"When that happens," he said, "the energy problems of the world will truly have been solved forever, for fuel will be as plentiful as heavy hydrogen in the oceans."

Bhabha spoke as the hundreds of delegates gathered at the opening plenary session of the conference just 10 years and one day after the first atom bomb struck Hiroshima.

ENERGY AN ALLY

The conference in the Palace of Nations, designed to parade atomic energy in its role as an ally of industry and a potential boon to agriculture and medicine, will continue until Aug. 20.

The scientists will hear hundreds of papers and reports on technical phases of peaceful utilization of atomic energy.

The opening session also received a message from President Eisenhower, whose historic address before the United Nations general assembly in December, 1953, inspired the atom-for-peace program now being worked out by the international organization and the present conference.

The president's message reaffirmed the American pledge to "help find ways by which the miraculous inventiveness of man shall not be dedicated to his death, but consecrated to his life."

A TIRELESS SERVANT

Recalling his address before the UN, which is sponsoring this conference, Eisenhower declared:

"The atom stands ready to become man's obedient, tireless servant, if man will only allow it."

Touching on possible peaceful uses of atomic energy, Bhabha, who heads India's atomic program in the field, said it already has been shown that heat, electricity and electrical power can be tapped from the "fission" process of uranium, the one used in atomic bombs.

This is the process used in atomic power plants in the U.S. and Britain now are building, and in the 3,000-kilowatt station the Soviet Union says it has been operating for more than a year.

"I venture to predict the method will be found for liberating fusion and energy in a controlled manner within the next two decades."

HAD OTHER IDEAS

Until recently, most scientists felt that atomic energy could be released from hydrogen on a practical scale only by the "triggering" explosion of an atomic bomb to provide the tremendous heat needed to make hydrogen materials "fuse."

Even before the H-bomb was ever produced, however, Dr. George Gamow of George Washington University said it might be possible to release atomic energy from hydrogen in a controlled way by sending a powerful electric discharge through a thin wire placed in such materials.

Canada, whose Chalk River, Ont., plant has been producing peaceful atomic products for the greater part of the decade, has sent a 26-man delegation to the conference, headed by W. J. Bennett, president of Atomic Energy of Canada, Ltd.

which will occur. The Indian Love Call is then acted by Pauline Johnson and Roger Gardham. Another Indian (Peter Shama) arrives with the urgent news that the French are coming. Jacques Cartier (J. A. Lawson) lays claim to the Island and presents gifts to the Indian inhabitants. One of the soldiers (played by Guy Racicot) then sings in French the French National Anthem. With the arrival of the British soldiers on the scene (led by James Coyle) the choir sings "British Grenadiers."

John Fisher, Canada's roving reporter, yesterday received the key to the City from the hands of His Worship Mayor Stewart who termed him "Canada's best salesman." The ceremony was accompanied by proclamation from the Town Crier; delivered by City Clerk James A. Fullerton; piped in by Barry MacGillivray and guarded by constables Russell Downe (left) and Lloyd Archer (right).

The next scene opens with several Islanders watching the brig "Fanny" as it leaves for the California gold rush of 1849. Encouraged by some of the people watching, three of the party, dressed in sailor uniforms, dance to the Salloon Hornpipe played by a fiddler among them. Eight men in the group then get together to sing a sea chanty "Blow the Man Down." One of them asks for a Highland Fling and immediately four girls dance to Scotch music (supplied by Piper Bruce MacLaren). As an encore the lassies do a sword dance. The male octet return to sing "A Hundred Years Ago" followed by two Irish girls (Millie and Margaret Roberts) dancing to an Irish jig and the scene concludes with the male octet singing "Shanandoah."

"We must stop sniping at the Yank" said Dr. John Fisher, noted radio commentator and roving reporter speaking before a largely attended joint Service Clubs Centennial luncheon held at the Charlottetown Hotel yesterday. "Never in the history of the world has any country erected so great a monument to generosity as have our neighbours to the south of us," added Dr. Fisher.

The speaker dwelt briefly on a recent trip he made to Europe, noting the tremendous recovery evident among all of the nations. "France is willing to go along on a strictly neutral basis in the hope that some day in the near future they will be able to fool their slower thinking Slav neighbours and have their country reunited."

Seven Bathers Drowned On Ontario Beach

The three other drowning victims had gone down within a four-hour period shortly before that. Thousands of holiday-makers frolicked on nearby beaches, not knowing that tragedy was unfolding in the bay.

At the opening of the next scene the Town Crier appears with the proclamation of the incorporation of Charlotte Town in 1855. The Voice of Time announces the time as 1878, the year Prince Edward Island entered Confederation. Six young maids, carrying candelabra stand on both sides of the steps as a group of dancers (under the direction of Ivan Berrigan) arrive for the Government Ball in honor of the visit of the Prince of Wales.

"This fact," said Dr. Fisher, "is causing the Russians no small concern and in the meantime the Germans are willing to go along on a strictly neutral basis in the hope that some day in the near future they will be able to fool their slower thinking Slav neighbours and have their country reunited."

Seven Bathers Drowned On Ontario Beach

Several persons tried to rescue those who were in trouble. Most barely escaped with their lives. It was some time before the death toll was known. For an hour or more many of the 125,000 holiday-makers in the district roamed the beach, oblivious to what was going on beyond the sandbar that runs more than 100 yards into the bay. Word of the drownings came when friends and relatives reported persons missing.

Mr. Robert Large was chairman and introduced the guest speaker. The guests of Rotary were introduced by Ralph Jones. Dr. Fisher was presented with the key to the City by His Worship Mayor Stewart who referred to him as the greatest salesman that Canada has. "Not only do we sell Canada to other parts of the world but he has done a fine job of advertising our Centennial year from coast to coast," said His Worship.
