

Charlottetown, July 28, 1877.

A TIME TO BE UP AND DOING.

In the recent disturbance and robberies, there is surely a practical admonition to be up and doing. If effectual means be not promptly and resolutely taken to stamp out thievery and rowdism, thieves and rowdies will soon make Charlottetown anything but a safe or pleasant place to live in.

It seems hard that honest and respectable people should be burdened with the expense of keeping up a police brigade sufficient to quell, by the strong arm, any and every disturbance which the rowdies of our town may create, and to drive from our midst the army of thieves which infests our borders.

A BOLD ROBBERY.

The liquor store of James Byrne, Esq., was boldly entered on Friday morning at an early hour. The thief tore up a small hatch in the front of the shop, got into the cellar, and from there made good his entrance to the store.

SCENES OF RIOT AND DEATH IN CHICAGO.

We collect the following telegraphic report from the St. John Telegraph: CHICAGO, July 26, 4 a. m. Chicago was a scene of much disorder during yesterday and last night.

THE RIOTERS DEFEY THE POLICE. A M. 11.—At ten o'clock the police had a fight with the mob on Newburg Avenue.

THE CAVALRY CHARGE THE MOB. NOON.—It is reported a squadron of mounted Veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, with drawn sabres, charged the 16th street mob.

THE REGULARS OPEN FIRE WITH GRAPE AND CANNISTER.

1.15 P.M.—At 1 o'clock the artillery left their quarters for the scene of conflict, which is now at the corner of Halsted and 16th Sts., and five minutes after the booming of cannon showed that the regulars had opened on the mob with grape and canister.

A correspondent at the scene confirms this. The slaughter will be terrible.

THE CITY IN THE HANDS OF THE INFURIATED POPULACE.

New York, July 26, p. m. A Chicago special says a mob, ten thousand strong, are fighting the police at Halsted street viaduct. The mob threw a Chicago, Burlington and Quincy incoming passenger train off the track at the viaduct and mobbed an outbound train.

The Southwestern part of the city is in the hands of an infuriated mob. The city is all excitement and the wildest rumors are flying around.

WASHINGTON, July 26—5 p. m. The War Department has issued orders authorizing the use of the United States troops to quell the riot in Chicago, and by to-night there will be twelve companies of United States regulars in that city.

EVERY RAILROAD WORKSHOP CLOSED.

CHICAGO, July 26—6 p. m. Among the railroad buildings closed by the mob are the workshops of the Michigan Central, Illinois Central, Chicago and Alton, North Western, Milwaukee and St. Paul, Chicago, B. and Q., Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, and Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railroads.

All the men connected with the freight business on the roads have either quit voluntarily or through compulsion. Besides these the rabble caused the men to suspend operations in several manufacturing factories.

THE GREATEST VICTORY.

The New York Irish World, discussing the Twelfth in Canada, reviews the action of the Irish Catholic societies in Montreal, and goes on to speak of the Orangemen in this strain:—

"Very great credit should be given to the representative Orangemen, too, who, in convention assembled, waived their right to parade. This conquest of the feelings by the judgment is the grandest triumph of all. Some foolish men who call themselves Catholics say the Orangemen surrendered to the Catholics. The Orangemen did nothing of the sort. They surrendered to good sense. They surrendered to Christian charity, to the suggestions of law and order, and to the dictates of an enlightened humanity; and we are bound to accept their noble act of self-denial, and we do accept it, in the same generous spirit that prompted it.

The Irish World's utterances are worthy of the race which it represents.

THE NEW YORK "HERALD" AND THE RIOTERS.

We extract the following from an article in the New York Herald of the 24th:—

If they have really an organization and know how to formulate their grievances, we advise them to issue such a general statement at once. The movement has now assumed such proportions that the public wants to know definitely and authoritatively what it is about.

We believe these rates have since then been reduced ten per cent., and on this reduction followed the strike. It should be understood also that the strikers claim that they get, at these rates, only about three or at most four full days' work in the week, and are much away from home and on expense.

Gov. Williams has issued a proclamation commanding an enforcement of the laws, and calling upon the sheriffs to use their utmost endeavors to prevent violence and preserve peace.

Judge Gresham, of the United States Court, has issued orders to the Marshal to protect property in charge of the courts.

A telegram received at the War Department, this afternoon, from General Pope, announces that the danger of mob violence at St. Louis is lessening hourly.

CHICAGO, July 26, 1.20 p. m. At 7.14 o'clock p. m. the artillery left their quarters for the scene of the conflict, which is now at the corner of Halsted and Sixteenth streets.

There has been no battle in Cuba in which six to eight hundred Spaniards were killed, as reported on the 15th instant.

BALTIMORE, July 26. George Raynes, of Montreal, was arrested here to-day with $2,390 in fresh ten dollar bills of the Consolidated Bank of Canada.

LONDON, July 25. The following are the total scores in the competition at Cambridge for the selection of the international team, to compete in America: Ferguson, (Scotch team) 595; Rigby, (Irish team) 568; Humphrey, (English eight) 561; Col. Fenton, (English eight) 559; Evans, (of former English Eloho team) 555; Dunlap, (London Scottish) 551; Piggott, (English eight) 541; Young, (Irish team) 531; Gilder, (of Harrow) 524; Frazer, (of Cambridge University) 526.

Berlin, July 25. The subterranean telegraph line between Berlin and Mayence was completed on Monday. The line comprehends seven circuits, and is 80 German miles long, and unites Mayence, Frankfurt, Leipzig, Cassel Halle and Berlin.

LONDON, July 26. In the House of Commons, this afternoon, the Marquis of Hartington said he thought if Sir Stafford Northcote, to-morrow, moved resolutions modifying the standing orders, it might be expedient to discharge the resolution suspending Mr. Parnell (Home Ruler) from service in the House until Friday, and upon which the debate stands adjourned.

Under these circumstances the railroad managers naturally desire to economize; but their workmen reply, "improve and purify your management."

THE NORTHERN LIGHT. Considerable trouble was experienced in getting at the seat of the last discovered leak in the Northern Light.

Several ringleaders have been arrested, and warrants for 100 more are out. The mob are almost hopelessly broken up, and many are hiding in hills around the city, while others have fled.

At St. Louis three large crowds proceeded to compel the closing of all manufactures. There was no violence offered, but obedience was enforced.

Of six railways centering at Washington, only one is now blockaded by the strikers. There are extensive strikes among the colliers in Pennsylvania. Thousands are going idle. Revolt is dreaded.

Several ringleaders have been arrested, and warrants for 100 more are out. The mob are almost hopelessly broken up, and many are hiding in hills around the city, while others have fled.

The consequences of the strike and of almost complete blockade of railroads is beginning to crop out in several localities; towns and small cities are threatened with scarcity of breadstuffs, and trouble in this direction may be next in order.

RIOT IN THE STATES.

(Special Dispatch to Daily Examiner.) NEW YORK, July 26.

At St. Louis three large crowds proceeded to compel the closing of all manufactures. There was no violence offered, but obedience was enforced.

Of six railways centering at Washington, only one is now blockaded by the strikers. There are extensive strikes among the colliers in Pennsylvania. Thousands are going idle. Revolt is dreaded.

The consequences of the strike and of almost complete blockade of railroads is beginning to crop out in several localities; towns and small cities are threatened with scarcity of breadstuffs, and trouble in this direction may be next in order.

At San Francisco, during the night, many fires were kindled in lumber yards, causing considerable loss of property. The fire was started near Mill Dock, and a crowd of 10,000 assembled on top of an adjacent hill.

All the freight trains are running at Albany, and everything is quiet. At eleven a. m. a mob, in Chicago, is holding the police in check, and regiments have been ordered to their assistance.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 26, 2.30 p. m. Gov. Williams has issued a proclamation commanding an enforcement of the laws, and calling upon the sheriffs to use their utmost endeavors to prevent violence and preserve peace.

Judge Gresham, of the United States Court, has issued orders to the Marshal to protect property in charge of the courts.

LABOUR TROUBLES!

FLOUR, & C.

(Special to the Daily Examiner.) MONTREAL, July 27.

The Orange and the Green troubles are completely overshadowed by the general strike in the States. It is feared that the Communist fever may reach Canada if not speedily checked on the other side of the border.

The politicians are on their holiday tours and there is a dearth of political news. The wholesale business is beginning to revive and a good fall trade is looked for.

Flour flat and inactive. English market easier, but prices are not likely to go higher at present:—

Table with 2 columns: Flour type and Price. Rows include Superior Extra, Extra Superfine, Fancy, Spring Extra, Superfine, Strong Bakers', Fine, Middlings, Pollards, U. C. Bags per 100 lbs., City Bags (delivered), and Oatmeal.

WAR DESPATCHES.

(Special Dispatch to Daily Examiner.) LONDON, July 27.

There are ninety thousand troops on their way to reinforce the Russian Ciscaucasian army.

The Russian headquarters in Bulgaria have been removed from Tirnova to Beila. This indicates that the invaders are not making rapid progress towards Adrianople.

Five Turkish steamers and two monitors in going from Rastchuk to Silistria on the 23rd, were attacked by Slobosia batteries. Three of the steamers were burned and one sunk.

VIENNA, July 25. The Political Correspondent, supposed to be semi-official organ of Russian and Austrian Governments, publishes the following from St. Petersburg:—In leading Russian circles steps taken by England relative to reinforcements are regarded as a demonstration of not much significance.

It is firmly believed, England being isolated, will avoid any warlike step. An eventual English occupation of Gallipoli could only lead to collisions of British troops were they to unite with the Turkish army, but non aggressive landing of British troops at Gallipoli would simply be ignored by Russia.

BUCHAREST, July 25. Grand Duke Nicholas has issued a report denying that the Russian soldiers committed any cruelties; he says foreign correspondents and attaches can bear witness to the same effect, but he admits possibility of isolated and unpreventable acts of vengeance by the Bulgarians.

He charges Turks with great barbarities and particularly mentions that heaps of Russian heads were found in the Shipka Pass after Turks evacuated it.

A Russian official despatch from Tirdova, concerning the defeat at Plevna, gives Russian loss at two co onels and fourteen inferior officers killed; one general and 36 inferior officers wounded, and 1878 placed hors de combat. General Schuler has retired to Bielaroad.

John Bright, speaking in Bradford, after the unveiling of the Cobden Memorial Statue, argued that to prevent Russia from approaching Constantinople would be to deprive her of one of the commonest rights of belligerents.

England had no ally in this matter, and he sometimes feared our demand would provoke a European combination which would baffle and defeat us.

A London special says ten thousand men are under orders to leave England for Gallipoli, and steamers are now ready to take them.

Officers of the English Engineer Corps who have examined the position at Gallipoli, assert it capable of being made as strong as Gibraltar in ten days.

ROME, July 25. The Liberta says since yesterday an exchange of views has been proceeding between the Powers, the object of which is believed to be the concerted action of fleets to prevent isolated action of any power, and protect foreigners in Constantinople.
