The Scott Act in Drummond.

The Montreal Witness referring to the recent vote in Drummond county repealing the Scott Act says, the prohibitionists, though regretting the result of the vote, were not unprepared for it.

We hear the opinion frequently expressed that if light wines from France and beer from England were imported duty free, people would use those beverages to a great extent in preference to those of a more harmful character.

The following is an extract from the article referred to: "In most of our hamlets the drunkard, who was formerly the exception, has multiplied by contagion."

The Canadian Gazette says it is heartily glad that Mr. Blake is to "give English men an opportunity of seeing the kind of stuff of which Canadian citizenship is made."

Our temperance friends in King's county did the right thing when they refused, as an Alliance, to become the Government prosecutors.

to the official prosecutor, it would be manifestly unwise to assume his duties, even if by so doing they were to free the Government from the discharge of an unpleasant and difficult duty.

THE LEGISLATURE

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEBATE.

Hon. Mr. ROGERS.—It remains for the hon. member to prove his statement. He has made the statement at random but failed to prove it.

Mr. CAMPBELL.—His honor the President has used a stronger argument against the Bill than I have.

The clause was agreed to. The title of the Bill was agreed to. The President took the chair and the Chairman reported the Bill agreed to.

FRIDAY, April 22nd. MORNING SESSION. Mr. DODD presented a petition from the Water Commissioners of Charlottetown, praying for an amendment to the Waterworks Act.

Mr. MACKENZIE presented a petition from certain persons, asking for an Act of Incorporation for a Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

Hon. Mr. LAIRD.—It is a question whether this Bill does not infringe on the standing rules of this House. There are certain estates in this Island less than the area of five hundred acres, and there is no provision in the Land Purchase Act to purchase them.
