CRICKET MATCH.

Being Played Between Charlottetown and Moncton.

A cricket match is being played at Victoria Park today between eleven representing Charlottetown and Moncton. The crease is a good one, and much interest is being taken in the game.

Stumps were pitched about 10 o'clock. Moncton went first to bat and in the innings made a total of ninety eight runs. Of these R. W. Simpson made 23; L. G. B. Lawson 20; George Ackman 12 and C. G. Moore 11.

Charlottetown followed and at one o'clock when adjournment for lunch was made seven wickets were down and nineteen runs obtained. Of these F. Hutchinson made 9, L. Robertson 4 and H. Weeks 1. Byes 2 and leg byes 3.

When play commenced after lunch E. Heartz and Dr. H. D. Johnson were batting and J. M. Sullivan and Eric McLean were still to go in.

PERSONAL.
