Saints Rugged Rearguards

Jack (Miner) MacDonald of Antigonish and Arnold (Kayo) Mullins are two of the bulwarks of S. D. U.'s vaunted blueline forsome. Some observers unhesitatingly pick the Saints defense as the best in the Island League. While followers of the Basilica Youth Club may be prone to argue there is little doubt that the Saints belting ade is a solid one and has been one of the reasons for their great success both in Island and Intercol legiate play.

Flyers Increase League Lead Dropping SDU 5-2

The Parkdale Flyers made it seven in a row and lengthened their lead in first place over the Basilica Youth Club to 6 points as they dropped St. Dunstan's University 5-2 in an Island league game at the Sports Arena last night.

The Flyers spotted the Saints a 3-goal lead but picked up steam as the game wore on and fired 5 consecutive goals in the last two periods without a reply from S. D. U.

It was a cleanly played game of hockey with referees Moe Goodwin and Brian MacCallum handing out only 7 penalties, 4 to Parkdale. Kip Ready of the flyers drew a misconduct in the final frame when he protested a penalty given him by shooting the puck against the boards in close proximity of referee Goodwin.

No player on either team got more tha one goal. MacInnis and Mullins counted for S. D. U., while Jim MacLeod, Pete Hi,. Ralph Josey and Skip and Allie Carver were Parkdale's snipers.

Frank Roper played a stellar game for Parkdale turning aside 23 drives. Wilf Gillis was off form and appeared a little shaky in the Saints cage. He was a little slow in clearing the puck when Pete Hill got in on him in the second period and the Parkdale defenseman rapped in the rebound for the tying score. And less than two minutes later he fanned on Josey's long shot from near center ice.

SAINTS TAKE LEAD

The game was 12 minutes and 42 seconds old when the Saints jumped into a 1-0 lead on Rodney MacInnis' marker. MacInnis whipped a shot from the side of the net that slipped under Roper's pads and just rolled over the goal-line before defenseman Junior MacLeod cleared it away. The goal judge apparently didn't see the puck going over the line and failed to run on the red light. But referee Moe Goodwin was right on top of the play and ruled a goal.

St. Dunstan's were playing a man short with Burns serving time for holding when Arnold Mullins broke up a Parkdale attack at the Saints blueline and raced away weaving his way through three Parkdlae players before depositing the puck behind Roper for a nice goal and a 2-0 lead for S. D. U.

However the Flyers weren't long in replying to that tally as Jim MacLeod, standing uncovered in front of the Saints cage, sank Josey's pass from the blueline only 20 seconds later.

At 8:14 Pete Hill made his solo dash to tie things up and at 10:05 Ralph Josey scored his first goal of the year when he lobbed a long shot from well outside the blueline that bounced through the pads of Gillis.

For 15 minutes of the third period it looked as if the Saints were going to be the first Island League team in many days to keep Allie Carver off the scoresheet. But only five seconds after the 15 minute mark Carver stole a puck away from Miner MacDonald at the Saints blueline and sailed in on Gillis all alone. Carver neatly deked Gillis out of position and shot his 29th goal of the campaign.

A little more than a minute later Skip Carver put the contest on ice when he salted away Dunn's pass.

Moncton Hawks Trim Ramblers

MONCTON (CP)— Defenceman Fred Weaver and rightwinger Orin Carver fired a brace of goals apiece Tuesday night as Moncton Hawks trimmed Amherst Ramblers 6-3 in a hard-hitting Atlantic Coast Senior Hockey League tuessle.

Wingers Ivan Houle and Lorne Hennessey tallied the other Moncton goals. Emmett Kennedy, Hank Therrien and Lou Kiley shot the Amherst markers.

Amherst, playing without the services of newcomer Frank Liscombe, Copper Leyte and scoring star Pierre Brillant, shot into a 2-1 lead in the first. They faltered under a driving Moncton attack as Hawks nudged into a 4-3 lead in the second and fired a pair of unanswered goals in the final period.

The third period was highlighted by a penalty box battle between Fred Weaver and Lou Kiley. Banished for roughing, the two defencemen continued their feud in the box. Both were given 10-minute misconducts and the privilege of an early shower.

Amherst goaltender Paul Leclerc was kept on the hop, halting 31 drives. Nick Pidsodny, who blocked 18, made his toughest stops in the early stages. Seven

Caps-Beavers Play 5-5 Draw

FREDERICTON (CP) — Berie MacDonald's second goal of the night put Fredericton Capitals into a 5-5 tie with Saint John Beavers Tuesday night and the deadlock remained unbroken during an overtime session.

The single points left Beavers leading Amherst Ramblers by 12 in the Atlantic Coast Senior Hockey League while Moncton Hawks advanced to a third place tie with Fredericton.

Caps took a 10 lead in the first period but Saint John had a 3-2 edge after the second.

Doug McPhee, Ralph Miles and Buck Whitlock added to MacDonald's brace for Fredericton. Both Mark Boileau and Wally Kullman shot a pair for Beavers in addition to a single by Ron Rubic, John Leclerc and Frank Dorrington helped MacDonald each time.

Penalties proved costly to Fredericton in the second period when Beavers scored twice while Caps were a man short.

Trophy Field Narrows In Quebec Curling Bonspiel

By BRIAN SELWOOD
Canadian Press Staff Writer

QUEBEC (CP) — The trophy field narrowed Tuesday for the 600 Canadian and American curlers taking part in the 43rd annual province of Quebec International bonspie.

Four rinks from Ontario, three from the Maritimes, and nine from Quebec City and district made up the 16 rinks left in the all-important third round of the two open ing events—the Chateau International trophy and the Omega International trophy.

Third-round winners of these events or of the Francois Jobin gold cup contest not only enter their quarterfinals but are also eligible for the main event of the week-long bonspiel—the Lieutenant Governor's trophy competition.

Rinks which lost their first round games in the Omega and Chateau automatically entered the Francois Jobin contest, thus giving them an additional chance to compete in the main event.

The Francois Jobin competition entered its second round Tuesday, with rinks from Detroit, St. Andrews, C. C. of Saint John, N. B., Edmundston, N. B., Toronto Granite, Kingston, Ont., and Quebec C. C. among the early winners.

Sailer Proves Himself Best Alpine Skier In The World

By KEN METHERAL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

CORTINA d'AMPEZZO, Italy (CP)—Toni Sailer, handsome 21-year-old Austrian plumber, proved himself the best Alpine skier in the world as he won his second gold medal of the winter Olympics Tuesday with a sensational victory in the men's special slalom.

Sailer, who somewhat resembles actor Tyrone Power and is an idol of the women fans here, twisted down the treacherous Canalone slope in runs of 1:27.3 and 1:47.4 for a total time of 3:14.7 to win easily, matching his spectacular victory in the tough giant slalom Sunday.

Russia, which has won four gold medals in the 13 events completed, was slowed in its race for unofficial team honors. Soviet athletes earned only four points Tuesday although the Russian team still is far in front with 89. Austria is second with 46 and Norway, which gained 22 points, is third with 41, followed by Sweden, 39, Finland, 28, and Switzerland, 18½. Canada, in 15th place, has a single point, and the United States is ninth with 9½.

Sailer's feat in winning two gold medals is all the more remarkable because he doesn't consider the slalom his best event. He prefers the downhill and is favored to win that on Friday.

The day was also noteworthy for the fact that someone finally beat the Russians in speed skating. Soviet athletes had won the 500, 1,500 and 5,000 metres before Sweden's Sigge Ericsson, 26-year-old all-round world champion, won the 10,000 Tuesday in 16:35.9 with a Soviet skater third.

NORWAY GETS MEDAL

A third gold medal went to Norway's Sveree Stenerson, 26, who overcame a Russian lead to win the Nordic combined — a double-barrelled event which includes ski jumping and a 15-kilometre cross-country race.

Russia's Yry Moschkin had been ahead after last Sunday's jumping but Stenerson beat him by eight minutes in the cross-country Tuesday and won easily while the Russian finished out of the first 10.

In the women's figure skating, world champion Tenley Albright of Newton Center, Mass., and Carol Heiss of Ozone Park, N. Y., continued 1-2 after completion of the five school figures. One or the other is certain to win the championship barring accidents.

Carole Jane Pachl, 17-year-old Canadian champion from Montreal, remained in sixth place after the school figures and Ann Johnston, 19, of Toronto moved up from eighth to seventh.

The compulsory figures, last two of which were held Tuesday, account for 60 per cent of the over-all scoring, the remaining 40 per cent coming in the free skating which will be held Thursday.

In the speed skating, Ralph Olin, Calgary policeman, skated the six miles, 373 yards in 17 minutes, 59.2 seconds to finish 31st.

B.Y.C. Practice

The B. Y. C. will hold a practice tonight at 10 p.m. following the skate at the Sports Arena. All players are requested to attend.

Dutchmen Have "No Alibis" For 4-1 Defeat

CORTINA d'AMPEZZO, Italy, (CP)—James Dunn of Winnipeg, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, said Tuesday night Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen have "no alibis' for their 4-1 loss to the underdog United States entry in the Olympic hockey tournament.

"The Canadians had more than 60 per cent of the play but they didn't get the puck into the net and that's what counts," Dunn said after watching the Dutchmen suffer Canada's first Olympic defeat in 20 years.

"The Americans got the jump and played a fine game. Their goalkeeper was outstanding."

But Dunn added:

"One thing you can tell the people of Canada for me is not to give up. Our boys are out there fighting and this tournament isn't over yet—not by a long shot."

Montague Midgets Defeat G'town

The Montague midgets defeated the Georgetown Midgets 4-1 in an exciting exhibition hockey game played at Montague last night. During the first session Georgetown laid down a strong attack which netted the only goal of the period when Solomon scored from close in. Peardon tied the score for Montague a few minutes after the second period got underway and E. MacLure added two more before the period ended.

In the final session Georgetown forced the play once more, but were unable to crack the Montague defence, and on a neat passing play D. Moore scored the final marker for Montague.

Buck Weaver Died Tuesday

CHICAGO (AP)—George (Buck) Weaver, famous third baseman for Chicago White Sox from 1912 through the Black Sox Scandal of 1920, died Tuesday, apparently of a heart ailment. He was 64.

Weaver was stricken on a south side street and was found there by police. He was pronounced dead upon arrival at a hospital.

Weaver hit .300 for the Sox in 1917 and .296 in 1919—two pennant years -and .333 in 1920.

Weaver was among eight Chicago players barred from baseball in 1920 when it was established that the 1919 World Series between the White Sox and Cincinnati was fixed.

Weaver always maintained his innocence in the affair and several attempts were made to clear him.

No Title Fight Until September

NEW YORK, (AP)—Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing Club, said Tuesday he had the impression that Rocky Marciano isn't going to defend his heavyweight title until September.

Norris, arriving at his office from Florida to discuss several boxing problems, said he had no scheduled conferences with Al Weill, Marciano's manager or the champ and did not plan any.

"I guess it's up to us to come up with a suitable opponent," he said. Norris said he would try to match Floyd Patterson of New York and Johnny Holman of Chicago, recent conqueror of Bob Satterfield, with the survivor to meet the winner of Friday's Bob Baker-Hurricane Jackson match at Madison Square Garden.

Will Not Play Unless Expenses Are Guaranteed

By KEN METHERAL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

CORTINA d'AMPEZZO, Italy (CP)—Canada served notice Tuesday that she does not intend to continue footing the bill for sending a team to the world hockey championships in Europe.

James Dunn, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, told a special meeting of the International Ice Hockey Federation that a Canadian team will visit Moscow next year only "if all expenses are guaranteed."

The CAHA paid out more than $30,000 last year to send Penticton Vs to the world hockey champion ships in Germany. It is estimated the current tour of the Kitchener Waterloo Dutchmen, Canada's Olympic hockey entry, will cost the CAHA the same amount.

Russian delegates at the meeting offered to pay travelling expenses for 20 Canadians from the Russian border to Moscow and return plus all living expenses for 12 days in Moscow.

RUSSIA WANTS CANADA

Dunn replied that Canada "would not even consider sending a team' to the Moscow world championships unless all expenses were guaranteed from Canada to Moscow and return.

Russian hockey officials said last week that they would be "bitterly disappointed" if a Canadian team did not participate in the 1957 tournament.

The federation also decided to adopt a uniform set of rules based mainly on the CAHA playing code. Only exceptions to the CAHA rule book will be that each federation branch will be allowed to make its own regulations regarding overtime in the event of a tie game, use of linesmen and body checking.

A motion by Dunn that the 1958 world championships be awarded to Vienna, Austria, was approved.

Only 2nd Olympic Loss For Canada

B. KEN METHERAL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

CORTINA d'AMPEZZO, Italy (CP)—A team of United States college players scored one of the greatest upsets in Olympic hockey history Tuesday night by defeating Canada's Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen 4-1.

It was the first time a U. S. entry has ever defeated Canada in world hockey competition and the first loss suffered by the Dutchmen in the current tournament.

A three-goal effort by Johnny Mayasich of Eveleth, Minn., and superb netminding by goalie Willard Ikola, also of Eveleth, were mainly responsible for the American victory.

The underdog Americans joined Russia in first place in the tournament standings, each with two victories and no losses.

Canada dropped into a second-place tie with Sweden with a 1-1 record and trailed the Swedes in goal average, which will determine placings in the event of a tie at the end of the five-game final series.

HAVE HANDS FULL

The defeat left the Dutchmen a sizable task in their remaining three games if they hope to retain Canada's Olympic hockey title.

They must not only win from Germany, Sweden and Russia but also have to whittle down the tremendous Soviet advantage in goal average—the Russians had scored 12 goals and had one against them after their 8-2 victory over Germany Tuesday night while the Dutchmen's record stood at 7-7.

At the same time the Canadians must hope for at least one substantial U. S. defeat in their remaining games.

Ikola, voted the outstanding netminder of last year's world tournament, was almost unbeatable as he stopped 15 Canadian shots in the first period and picked off 14 more in the second.

The 23-year-old U. S. Air Force navigator, one of the few non-collegians on the team, enjoyed a thorough revenge for the 12-1 pasting he suffered at the hands of Canada's Penticton Vs in last year's tournament.

ONLY SECOND LOSS

It was only the second Olympic hockey defeat in Canada's history. The last one, a 2-1 loss by Port Arthur Bearcats to Britain in the 1936 Games, cost the Canadians the title.

Defenceman Jack McKenzie, the Canadian captain, was the only man to beat Ikola but his tally at the 13-minute mark of the second period came after Mayasich had given the winners a comfortable lead with two first-period markers.

Canada — Goal: Brodeur; defence: Martin, Lee, Hurst, McKenzie; forwards: Logan, Knox, Rope, Klinck, Theberge, Brooker, Scholes, Whiet, Laufman.

United Staes—Goatl: Ikola; defence: Meredith, McKinnon, Dougherty, Sampson; forwards: Campbell, Christian Cleary, Matchefts, Mayasich, Olson, Purpur, Anderson, Petroske.

Referees—Kurt Hauser and A. Bernhard, Switzerland.

Summary

First period: 1. United States, Mayasich 1:58; 2. United States, Mayasich (Dougherty) 9:23. Penalties: Hurst 4:15, Meredith 6:35.

Second period: 3. Canada, McKenzie (Logan, Knox) 13:00. Penalty: Hurst :09.

Third period: 4. United States, Mayasich 3:56; 5. United States, Olson (Matchefts) 7:40. Penalties: McKenzie and Purpur majors 14:58.
