

Youth.

Youth is nothing more than health. A prominent Montreal physician says: "I have found Abbey's Effer- vescent Salt particularly beneficial in the treatment of derange- ments of the liver and digestive organs, and consider that the regu- lar use of a prepara- tion of this nature has a decided tendency to prolong life."

His Smoke in the Dark.
"I am convinced of the truth of the old theory that the pleasure of smoking resides more largely in the taste than it does in the sight," said a business man of this city who recently underwent a minor operation for granulated eyelids. "I had to sit for three days in total darkness, and, being a confirmed smoker, I longed for the solace of a cigar. The first difficulty I encountered was in getting a light, and I wouldn't confess my helplessness until I had burned off half my mustache. Then I let my wife hold the match, but I kept complaining that the tobacco wouldn't ignite. My wife would assure me that it was burning like a furnace, but I couldn't taste a thing. "One of the main pleasures of the habit, although we don't realize it, is to exhale the smoke gently and watch it curl up into the air. I caught myself straining after that sight a hundred times, and there was an overwhelming sense of something missing. Except when I inhaled the smoke it was absolutely impossible to tell whether the cigar was going, so I got some cigarettes and inhaled every one. But it was a poor substitute. I felt instinctively that I was getting only a morsel of the old delight. "When they took off the bandage, I grabbed my pipe with an avidity that surprised the entire household. I have been trying to catch up ever since."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Struck by the System.
A peddler the other day found him- self in an office building occupied wholly by lawyers. He went up to the first flat looking for a customer, but he found all the doors locked. Then he went up to the second flat, and there he found everybody absent, and so at last he went to the top flat. Here he espied an open door, and, looking in, saw a man busy writing at his desk. The peddler began telling of his wares, but the lawyer interrupted with, "No, I don't want any." Still the peddler continued, and again the lawyer protested. "I tell you I don't want anything. Get out!" But the peddler persisted so that the lawyer, thoroughly angry, quickly arose and threw the intruder down the stairs. Just as he landed the lawyer's partner appeared, and, taking it for granted that there was good reason for such action, he seized the poor man and threw him down the next flight. Strange enough, the janitor of the building saw the second landing of the peddler, and the fact that he was a peddler was enough to cause him to seize the victim and throw him down the final flight of stairs. Here the unfortunate man picked himself up, and, rubbing his bruises, observed, "Well, this is the first visit I have made to this building, and I must say they have got a perfect system."—Detroit Free Press.
