Kinkora High School Convocation Exercises

The Closing Exercises of Kinkora High School were attended by the usual beyond capacity audience. The program opened with the Chorus, "O Canada". Grades 1 and 2 gave a short Choral Recitation. A Graduation Play, "A Pyramid of Life" presented by the Graduates and some Senior pupils gave a graphic picture of the basic requirements for success in life based on a foundation of education and crossed with a beautiful rendition of the song, "Just For Today". The Girls' Choir then sang the "Salve Regina", a Gregorian chant number for which they had been awarded second place in the P. E. I. Music Festival. A group of small boys and girls sang the folk song "O No John". The final number of the program was a group of selections by the Grades 3,4,5, Rhythm Band recently established with the aid of the Kinkora Home and School Association.

Eighteen Graduates of the Grade Eleven Class then took their places on the stage and were presented with a beautiful basket of flowers by little Dwight Peters and Jeanne McCabe. Certificates and prizes were awarded according to the list given below, and presented by Reverend Francis McQuaid, Miss Margaret Smith, who had been chosen by her classmates as Valedictorian, then read the farewell message of the Class of 1951. The address to the Graduates was delivered by Lt. Col. Leo F. MacDonald of Charlottetown. In sincere and eloquent words he exhorted the students to appreciate the privileges that are theirs, to make careful choice of their vocations in life, remembering that happiness will come only through diligent effort, and that they must never let their school down by an unworthy word or deed. Congratulatory remarks were made by the Pastor, Reverend Francis MacQuaid, who reminded the pupils of every grade that all those who have worked sincerely during the year are prize-winners and worthy of special commendation. Reverend Richard Bilsforth spoke briefly on behalf of the clergy present expressing congratulations to the students of Grade XI and to all the pupils for their successful year's work. Mr. E.P. Foley, Summerside also congratulated the pupils, parents and teachers for their progress in the educational field. A vote of thanks to Col. MacDonald, Father McQuaid the donors of prizes, and all who assisted in the successful Closing of the school year was moved by Mr. E. V. Duffy, seconded by Mr. John R. McCabe and presented by the Chairman, Mr. P.L. Morris. The singing of God save the King brought the very enjoyable evening to a close.

The Graduates were as follows: Isabel Blaquiere, North Rustico; Janet Bradshaw, Searlestown; Joan Bradshaw, Searlestown; Marion Brennan, Kinkora; Catherine Craig, Middleton; Francis Craig, Middleton; Joan Craig Middleton; Doreen Cusack, Tracadie; Noreen Duffy, Kinkora; Norma Gallant, Bloomfield; Noreen Hammill, Central Bedouque; Frances McCarville, Kinkora; Patricia McGinn, Kinkora; Elva McKenna, Borden; James Maters, Kelly's Cross; Margaret Ness, Cape Traverse; Margaret Smith, Kinkora; Una Trainor, Kinkora.
