This Is The Record Night For The Edmonton Eskimos

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

This is record night for Edmonton Eskimos. They'll set a new Western Interprovincial Football Union mark almost every time they get hold of the ball in their home game tonight against British Columbia Lions.

The Esks have already cracked five WIFU team and two individual records. Tonight their Tennessee terror, Jackie Parker, is gunning for the individual scoring mark.

For the Lions batting for a third-place playoff position in the five-team league, the outlook is discouraging. Not only are they up against the rampaging Esks but their hopes may go glimmering in an afternoon game at Regina between Calgary Stampeders and the tail-end Saskatchewan Roughriders. A Calgary win would give the Stamps third spot and put them in the playoffs ahead of the Lions.

EDMONTON CINCHED FIRST

Edmonton has already cinched first and Winnipeg second.

Stampeders will wind up their 16-game schedule Monday night at Winnipeg. The schedule ends next Saturday when Edmonton is at Regina and Winnipeg at Vancouver.

Eskimos already have established the over - all yardage - gained-from scrimmage record with a net 6,138 yards passing and rushing; the total first-downs mark with 355, the scoring record with 423 points; the rushing grecord of 3,907 yards; and the first downs rushing mark of 246.

Fullback Johnny Bright holds the league's individual rushing record of 1,501 yards and can increase it every time he carries the ball. End Joe Mobra also has an individual record, his 46 point-after-touchdown kicks surpassing the previous mark of 42 set a 1951 by Annis Stukus.

Tonight's action also could see Parker resume the scoring leadership and conceivably surpass the league record of 110 points held by former Calgary end Bob Shaw. Parker now has 91 points, nine behind Gerry James of Winnipeg.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Our good friend, W. R. (Reg) Jenkins, who with Mrs. Jenkins, has been holidaying in Europe, writes from Paris, France. "I am enclosing the report by the Herald - Tribune of the Longchamps Centennary Race held here Sunday afternoon. I always maintained I would not go to see a running race, but I changed my mind and thoroughly enjoyed this one — it was a thriller. Of course the setting was beautiful, as well as the weather — sunny and very warm. The pomp, color and ceremony was something to see, and also to remember. I have taken a few pictures and hope they will turn out satisfactory.

"You would be surprised to see the number of good fox furs worn at the track and elsewhere. You can readily see by the article that many dignitaries of France and other countries were in attendance. I was not on the winning horse, although Mrs. Jenkins picked Aly Khan's horse in a previous race and he was an easy first. We are enjoying our trip very much and will leave Paris this morning for Amsterdam."

Reg enclosed a clipping from the Paris Herald-Tribune with an account by Frank Kelly of the above races. A four-year-old colt named Oroso, a 50-1 shot, upset all the experts by winning the International Arc de Triomphe race, one of the world's richest stakes, before a fashion-plate crown of 100,000 persons celebrating the centennary of Paris's famed, rolling Longchamps track.

Oroso stepped away from a field of 24 thoroughbreds to triumph by half a length over Denisy, a three-year-old filly, and brought his owner, Raoul Meyer, a tidy purse of 40,000,000 francs, ($114,000), plus another 10,000,000 ($28,00) in entry fees. Serge Boullenger rode Oroso to victory in 2 minutes, 33 seconds over the 240-meter (one mile and a half) course in the sunswept Bois de Boulogne.

LOTTERY TOO

The totalizer showed a record of 499,000,000 francs in bets and the special government lottery collected 1,696 billion francs, from which they paid off 100,000,000 francs to a winning ticket holder. At the track, Parisians drank champagne and watched models in second-Empire gowns strolling about the enclosure in its first Century birthday.

After the race, Prince Aly Khan sold at auction those horses remaining from his late father's racing stable. Prince Aly said after sales totalling $70,000 that he owned all the other horses from his father's stable from private purchases that must have run into millions of dollars.

Island trotters and pacers made a splendid showing in the races at Sackville Downs last Saturday and Monday nights. On Saturday night, in races 1 and 4, Bald Dean (L. Walker) was 1-3, New Forest by Emmett Bernard Scotland's Ace (J. MacGregor) 3-2, times 2.13 2-5 and 2.14 1-5—a new record for New Forest. Bold Dean is owned by the L. and G. Smith) 1-2; Royal Train (Chappell) 3-1, Sir Joseph (MacGregor) 2-5, Danville Delegate (G. Turner) 4-3, times 2.11 2-5 and 2.14 4-5; Gay Spirit is owned by R. D. and D. M. RECORD PURSE

The writer had a short conversation with Ingham Palmer, race secretary of Saint John Raceway, on Wednesday and he said they will continue racing twice a week and wind up the season on November 11th. He says that T.O.P. looks like the biggest money winner so far this season.

In 38 starts, most of them over Saint John Raceway, he has been first 11 times and that their purse distribution will be in the vicinity of $100,000, which would be a record for a Maritime track.

The final race meet of the season was held at Moncton Raceway last Saturday afternoon and some excellent times were made. The pacer, Johnny Russell (Horsman), pacing the 5th dash in 2.08 4-5 with My Darling winning the 8th dash for driver Joe Hennessey in 2.06 3-5. My Darling's time was only two-fifths of a second slower than her race record made prior to her coming to the Maritimes. She has been a wonderful campaigner every season, but particularly this season and we extend our congratulations to owner Senator G.H. Barbour.

In the 1st and 4th dashes of the above meet, Captain Morgan, owned and driven by Marne Kennedy of O'Leary, was 1-1, Brother Tal (R. Steeves) 4-2, Princess H. (Horsman) 2-5, Jolly Mark (Furness) 3-3, times 2.15 and 2.14 3-5. The 2nd and 6th dashes - Flying Hawk (M. Grimes) 1-7, Suffolk Chief (M. Kennedy) 4-1, John Frederick (J. Gogueu) 2-2, Touti's Boy (Barrieau) 3-6, four other starters, times 2.14 2-5 and 2.13 3-5.

The 3rd and 7th dashes- Booknor (Grimes) 1-1, Jollity Leigh (H. Stead) 3-2, Just Barbara (G. Willis) 3-4, Sona Hal (Taylor) 6-3, four other starters, times 2.12 2-5 and 2.10 4-5. The 5th and 8th dashes - My Darling (J. Hennessey) 2-1, Johnny Russell (Horsman) 1-5, Jolly Jim (H. Cormier) 4-2, Peter Federal (H. Stead) 3-3, times 2.08 4-5 and 2.06 3-5.

WINNING STREAK

At Saint John Raceway on Saturday night, fast time was made in the 4th and 8th dashes, with T.O.P. (Wood) winning in 2.10 3-5 and Ben Brooke C. winning in 2.11. The latter was driven by W. Carr, who has been piling up wins and places in the last few weeks. Kahla Byrd (E. Kirkpatrick) was 2-7 in the above race, Holbert Grattan (A. Davidson) 3-5, Mac Dale (M. Coughlan 5-3. The first dash on the program was won by Gady's E. Lee (J. Lang) Abbe's Pride (Queen) 3, Applejack (C. Wood) 4, time 2.15. The 2nd and 5th dashes - Rita Key (M. Coughlan) 1-1, Gay Music (O. Morrissey) 3-6, Jimmy Hal (E. Kirkpatrick) 5-1, Scott Dolly (C. Wood) 2-3, Guy Adam (E. Kirkpatrick) 7-5, Kattie Direct (M. Coughlan) 3-4, times 2.15 and 2.16 1-5. The 6th dash was won by [illegible] (A. Davidson) 3, [illegible] latter race was one and one-half miles, time 3.27. Winner owned by the Downey Stables, Saint John.

CANNY SKILL

The many friends of Willard M. Carr are greatly pleased with his consistent driving and canny skill in piloting winners at the Saint John Raceway track. A recent release states that he has been 35 times first to the wire up to the end of last week, with Millett Coughlan a close second with 35 wins, and Art Davidson with 21 wins. Other drivers are also well up in the Saint John ratings - Len Queen has 19 firsts, Tom Scovil 17, and several others have 10 or more wins. We are looking forward to a complete report on the season's racing from Ingham Palmer, race secretary. Willard Carr was born at Saint John, N.B., on April 20, 1923, and last season horses driven by him won $6,616. Millett Coughlan was born at Blackville, N.B., on March 4, 1916, and last season horses driven by him won $5,[illegible].

Earl Avery, head trainer for the Clearview Stable at Winthrop, Maine, which is owned by Norman Woolworth of the famous Woolworth chain of stores, has quite some very promising two-year-olds to be trained for the big stakes next season. At the Lexington Sales, Mr. Woolworth bought a yearling full-brother to Charming Barbara, 3, 2.00 1-5, that has been winning consistently and ten days ago was the $50,000 invitational for three-year-old trotters at Roosevelt Raceway. HUNTER'S CORNER

There's More Hunting Than Shooting When After Huns

The crimson and gold of autumn had vanished from our hillsides. Wind and rain have denuded most of the hardwoods of leaves but a few beech trees are still clinging to their scanty covering. In the alder swales dying leaves rustle underfoot and indicate the whereabouts of scurrying ruffed grouse. Ferns and other growth are fast withering and the grouse hunter will capitalize on the efforts of Jack Frost to give them better vision in their quest of the elusive ruffed necks. The heavy foliage has prevented grouse hunters so far from securing many birds for the game pockets of the time honoured hunting coat. The questing hunting dog flushes one from beside a wood road and the hunter has a momentary glimpse of a richly barred breast as it vanishes behind a leaf screen. Grouse hunters luck is expected to pick up during the last week of the season which ends on October 31st. Huns and pheasants are legal game until November 11th.

Some disturbing reports are being circulated about hunters wiping out covey's of Huns in the last bird. One such incident has to do with a party of three Nonresident hunters who covered a district that held two coveys—one of fifteen and the other of fourteen. According to the report I received they secured their legal quota of fifteen—five birds each—the first day and then went back the next morning and shot the remaining fourteen. Experience has taught me to take such stories with a grain of salt—it's not that simple. Now don't misunderstand me. It has been done with coveys that lost their covey leaders at the first rise. I have witnessed members of such a covey becoming so confused they'd only make short flights and when separated would chirp their heads off and locating them was as easy as rolling off a log—in a mill pond that is. It doesn't always happen with every covey that loses its leader [illegible]

Through [illegible] them, the Huns have developed new strategy in their fight to outwit gunners this season. They are more inclined to break up formation after the first flush. In other words it's a case of every Hun for himself or herself as the case may be. This season they are also more prone to sit tight even after a portion of the covey takes wing. Sometimes twelve or fifteen will take off and five or six remain on the ground. If the hunters move up quickly after the shot this group of stragglers stand better than an even chance of getting away with their ruse.

I never knew of Hun coveys scattering in singles after the first rise so consistently as they do this season. On Thanksgiving after our successful goose shot we picked up Gipsey and Champ and started after Huns. The first bunch of seven we found had all the signs of having been gunned before. They split up in singles and pairs and headed into the middle of a dense juniper swamp. Two of my partners tried long snap-shots and had better have saved their ammunition. This covey was definitely out of circulation so far as this particular hunt was concerned. After lunch we started for the back of a farm where the farmer told me on Sunday a covey of twenty hung out. Stopping to let down some bars a covey of fifteen flushed from some stubble close by the cars. They alighted in a potato patch about 50 yards from a bunch of potato pickers. Extreme care had to be exercised in the follow up and no shooting was allowed on the 2nd rise. The covey alighted in a corn patch after being driven out of the potatoes and flushed wild the minute the dogs rustled the corn in their Quartering.

NEVER FOUND

They skimmed over a shallow alley and so far as we could see dropped down in a bush covered slope. In 20 minutes steady hunting in this sector we started two singles about 10 minutes apart and bagged both. We never found any of the other 13 Moving on after the 20 covey we entered a section of grown over farms. Foot high ryegrass and scattered scrub spruce hardwood covered the terrain. The dogs took a [illegible] again. I finally came upon them with the covey planted down in a [illegible]

Queen Charlotte Ruggers Win 3-0

Queen Charlotte High School defeated Queen Square School 3-0 in a fine exhibition of English rugby at the Q.C.H.S. field yesterday afternoon. The game was the second in a series of the best-out - of-five to determine the championship which was won last year by the Queen Square squad.

Don Kelly carried the ball across the line after taking a pass from MacAusland inside the Q.S.S. twenty yard line in the first half. The ball was grounded near the touch line and the kick for goal was unsuccessful from a difficult angle.

Queen Square had been presiding strongly during most of the game up to that time. The Queen Charlotte team booted out of their own twenty yard zone and the Q.S.S. fullback failed to handle the ball. The ensuing scramble for possession resulted in a scrum deep in Q.S.S. territory from which the scoring play originated.

The losers pressed hard through the greater part of the final half. They came close at times but they could not make the last few yards into scoring territory.

Veteran rugby fans enthused over the fine ball handling, passing and the running attack which both teams developed at times.

It was the first time in two years that the Q.S.S. had yielded a point to their opponents, so the Queen Charlotte players and fans were celebrating the victory as the final whistle ended the encounter.

The game was capably handled by Frank Jelks, coach of the team in English rugby. That was the Abegweit squad that took the title by defeating the Acadia University varsity squad in a sudden death game here two years ago, to complete an outstanding season in Maritime competition.

Following are the lineups:

Queen Square—Forwards, Mickey Peters, Brian Morris, Frank Callaghan, Eugene Hayes, Beaver Arsenault, R. MacKinnon Colin MacMillan; halves—Ronnie MacDougall, Malone, Leonard Stull, Emmett Beagan, Freddie Burke, Steve Connolly; Fullback—Allan MacDonald.

Final Wrestling Card On Friday

Calling all wrestling fans. Don't make any dates for next Friday evening. The final wrestling card of the season will be staged at Civic Stadium in Summerside, and it has all the earmarks of one of the best. The Fortin brothers who have been very popular in Summerside because of their spectacular drop-kicking and other wrestling tricks will take on the Smith brothers who are known across Canada for their ability to keep fans in a constant uproar. They are new to Summerside, but it is a foregone conclusion that they will be popular. A new quartet of midgets will head up the card this time. Sky Low Low and his partner will tangle with Little Beaver and his troupe. They are direct from Hollywood TV and are supposed to be among the most exciting of the little fellows. Their fame vies with that of Little Beaver and his troupe. If you want to see the wrestling season go out like a lion and a couple of roaring tigers, make your way to Civic Stadium next Friday night.

Moncton Rink Goes To Top

SPORT NOTES

Hal Patterson, Montreal Alouettes star who hails from Kansas, was almost bowled over by surprise yesterday when his father and mother walked into a luncheon honoring the brilliant end was being honored.

The occasion was the presentation to Patterson of an oil painting of himself. Reproduction of the painting was used on the cover of the current issue of a magazine.

When Mr. and Mrs. Guy Patterson were ushered in to be introduced, the football star was flabbergasted. The parents came to Montreal from their Rozel, Kansas. home for the occasion.

It was learned yesterday that the Dodgers plan to move their Pacific Coast League League franchise from Los Angeles to nearby Long Beach.

The PCL franchise in Los Angeles was acquired by the Dodgers early this year from the Chicago Cubs. Now that the Dodgers have moved to Los Angeles from Brooklyn themselves, they must relocate the PCL club if they want to keep it operation —and they say they do.

Al Lopez remarked yesterday "It's a high honor and I'd like to thank the writers" when told he had been voted the American League manager of the year for 1957 in the annual Associated Press poll.

Lopez received 88 of the 180 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers Association of America. Paul Richards of Baltimore received 70 ballots; Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees got 25 and Pinky Higgins of the Boston Red Sox received two.

Looking ahead to next year Lopez said—"We are trying to make a couple of trades. We can use another good pitcher and if we can strengthen our staff I think we can stop the Yankees."

Cats Can Clinch First Place This Afternoon

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Hamilton Tiger - Cats could clinch first place in the Big Four Football Union today, but it depends on victories by the same teams that won last Saturday.

Should Hamilton beat Montreal Alouettes in Montreal and Toronto Argonauts win over Ottawa Rough Riders at Ottawa, the Ti-cats will be assured of top slot for the first time since 1953 when they tied with Montreal, and took first spot in a playoff.

Ticats' four - point lead over Montreal and Ottawa would be sufficient to give them the bye in the finals.

Kitchener - Waterloo Dutchmen tackle Sarnia Golden Bears in an Ontario Rugby Football Union game.

The Lords, leaders by a point over Kitchener, are idle.

BIG DEFENCE

The university of Western Ontario Mustangs, whose defensive unit has allowed only 13 points in three Senior Intercollegiate League games, move into Toronto against University of Toronto Blues.

Queen's Golden Gaels meet McGill Redmen at Kingston. Western leads the league with a two-point margin over the Redmen.

Hamilton, whose defensive unit was largely responsible for last week's 18-15 victory, are counting on the same men today. A win would ensure them three weeks without pressure while their rivals, Ottawa and Montreal, battle through a bitter semi-final struggle.

Assured of the first-place spot, the Ticats could coast along in their two final games against Ottawa.

The Ticats are reported in good shape and will be missing only guard Art Darch. The Als, harassed by the flu bug, are quoted as six-point favorites, their shortest home odds in years.

Montreal needs to win this game to stay in the running for first place.

Busso Outpoints Gale Kerwin

NEW YORK (AP) — Favored Johnny Busso of New York spoiled substitute Gale Kerwin's big time boxing debut Friday night by outpointing the Ottawa lightweight in a bristing television 10 - rounder at Madison Square Garden. Busso weighed 135¾, Kerwin 139½.

Promoted from the semi-final after first Paolo Rosi and then Ernie (Sonny Boy) Williams were stricken by the flu, Kerwin was eading until he ran into a flashing left and right to the chin that dropped him for a nine-count in the sixth round. The more experienced Busso, ninth ranking lightweight contender, then kept his rally going to win the unanimous decision.

Amerks Shut Out Providence

ROCHESTER (AP) — Gerry McNeil turned in the first shutout of the American Hockey League season here Friday night as Rochester Americans beat Providence Reds, 2-0. The victory boosted the Amerks into a tie for second place with the Reds.

Rochester's first goal was scored at 3:48 of the second period by Ab McDonald. It was a 1-0 game until only 27 seconds remained in the last period. Then with Providence pressing, Ed Mazur picked up a pass from Ronnie Hurst at the centre line, sped in, faked Paille out of position, and scored.

Find Expected To Win The Canadian Championships

TORONTO (CP) — Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt probably will be $44,900 richer late Saturday afternoon because he owns Find, a seven-year-old gelding. At least, that's what the form charts say.

Find is everybody's choice to run away with today's $60,000 Canadian Championship, the country's richest horse race, at New Woodbine. Eleven other horses, including seven Canadian-owned, are entered but the chalk eaters figure they may as well stay in the stables or shoot for the money for second, third or fourth place.

There was a flutter of excitement the other day when Pink Velvet, a three - year - old filly owned by Bill Beasley of Toronto, galloped 1⅛ miles in 1.51.1. The hubub soon died down and the finger was put on Find to take it all.

The reasoning is simple. He is one of the most consistent horses in North America. He has piled up more than $650,000 for Vanderbilt in 32 starts and has finished worse than third only twice in his career. This season alone he has banked nearly $250,000.

Ticket Holders In Sweepstakes

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Nearly 300 Canadians became eligible for prizes of between $1,000 and $140,000 Friday when their Irish Hospitals sweepstakes tickets were drawn in Dublin on the Cambridgeshire, classic horse race to be run Wednesday in Newmarket, England.

Of the 85 horses originally entered, Canadians drew tickets on 82, assuring each of at least the $1,100 prize for drawing a non-starter.

Of the 293 whose tickets were drawn 112 held tickets on 82, assuring each of at least the $1,100 prize for drawing a non-starter.

Of the 293 whose tickets were drawn 112 held tickets on 37 of the 39 horses which, up to Friday night, were still listed as starters. They could win up to $140,000 first prize.

Second place is worth $56,000 and third, $28,000
