N.J. School Will Be Named After Former Island Man

A former Island man, Dr. William J. McGinn, is to have a school named in his honor in the Kramer Manor area of New Jersey.

The announcement was made by the Scotch Plains - Fanwood Board of Education, which will hold a referendum on a $935,000 bond issue on the proposed 19 classroom school June 22.

The school board president said the school name was selected to honor Dr. McGinn's "service to society in so many extraordinary ways for so many years." He praised the doctor as a "humanitarian" and lauded his "selfless devotion and gentle ways."

Dr. McGinn was born in Enysvale, P.E.I. in 1894. He lived on the island for about 25 years and was a student at Prince of Wales and Saint Dunstan's University. His first profession was teaching and he also was a policeman.

It was during World War I while serving with the Canadian Army that he decided to become a doctor. He was graduated from McGill University in Montreal in 1924.

He started his practice in New Jersey in 1927 when Scotch Plains and Fanwood were without a physician to serve their combined population of about 5,500.

For more than three decades, Dr. McGinn has been school physician and has served as township physician for 37 years. He also served many years as a member of the board of health.

A communicant of St. Bartholomew the Apostle Church, he is a member of his Holy Name Society. He and his wife, the former Bertha M. Beaumont, who is active in civic organizations, have a daughter, Sister Mary Polycarp, and two sons, James and William Jr.

Dr. McGinn has two brothers Ben, in Mass, and Dan in Charlottetown and two sisters Mary (Mrs. James Clarkin) and Catherine (Mrs. Annes Clarkin) both of Charlottetown.
