Watch Attention

That will cause your watch to mark the hours and minutes exactly.

As you value your time piece, do not allow it to run on without attention from year to year. Such treatment will soon ruin the finest watch.

It's economy to have it examined regular intervals. I am sure I can do it to your satisfaction.

A GOOD IDEA.

Mr. Mackie, senior partner of the firm of Mackie & Co., of Glasgow, advocates the formation of a benefit fund for the widows and children of those soldiers who have fallen or may fall in the Transvaal war. He proposes that a shilling subscription be at once instituted, so that every person can give a mite, and offers to subscribe 1000 shillings towards the fund. The idea is set forth at length in a better written to the Glasgow Herald by Mr Mackie. It is hoped the idea will be acted upon at once.

ILLEGAL PROCEEDINGS

THE Government organ, of Wednesday, has the following editorial item:

"Railway Superintendent Sharp is at Southport and Lot 48, this afternoon, securing rights of way from the farmers along the surveyed portions of the Belfast and Murray Harbor railways."

We invite all honest men in the country to read and ponder this item. Why this wonderful promptness in securing rights of way? What about the amount of compensation that must be fixed before the right of way is signed? Is Superintendent Sharp actually negotiating regarding compensation with landowners, some of whom are the electors of Belfast and others of whom are in a position to use influence in the coming elections?

The whole business smacks of fraud and corruption. Not one inch of ground will be required, under any circumstances, until the snow melts in April. Therefore any dickering just now with the question of right of way is to serve some ulterior purpose.

Superintendent Sharp would be much better employed in discharging the legitimate duties of his office than in engaging in what, under the circumstances, must be regarded as partisan work.

Earncliffe Notes.

Thrashing the grain has been the order of the day here for some time past; thrashing the grain may come next on the programme.

The China Point wharf, otherwise known as the "warm depot," has been at length repaired; and now we are asking the same question the EXAMINER asked when Laurier was shouting loyalty at the Queen's Jubilee: "Aye, but will he stay fixed?"

Mr. Robert Young paid his friends here a pleasant visit recently. Mr. Young has been railroad ng in Seattle, Montana, and Skagway since he left here, nearly two years ago.

Mr. Robert McRae, Seal River, sold his valuable farm recently. Mr. McRae will be very much missed, as his intelligence and geniality made him a general favorite.

Misses Mary McLeod and Lina Gillis, of Orwell, spent a few days this week with their Earncliffe friends.

A question that is engrossing the minds of the young ladies in many parts of this province is—"Why don't the men propose?" and in view of the results of its solution, is more important than Uncle Sam's "what will we do with the Philippines?" and no wonder the girls are puzzled: for they are nice, very nice, pretty, very pretty, and are excellent housekeepers. My old woman tells me it is an open secret amongst the girls that "the way to reach a man's heart it through his stomach;" so our girls have made a special study of the art of cooking; and now they can cook a chicken so well, or bake a pie so light as to be fit for the gods. Still the young men do not propose; and it cannot be owing to cold or faint hearts; for broken ribs, broken watch crystals and wagon springs are eloquent testimonials to the ardor of their affection. Come boys, hurry up, don't be so slow; don't leave the last rose of summer to pine on the stem; leap year will not be here till 1904, and the girls are continually going to the States, echoing as they go the cry of their sisters at home,

Why don't the men propose, mamma?
Why don't the men propose?
Each seems just coming to the point,
And then away he goes.

Have You Catarrh?

If you are troubled with Catarrh and want to be cured, use Catarrhzone, which is a guaranteed cure for this distressing disease. There is no mystery about Catarrhzone; though its effect is magical. Ointments and snuffs cannot reach the diseased parts and have thus proved useless, but Catarrhzone is carried by the air you breathe directly to the diseased parts, where it volatilizes, killing the germ life and heal the sore spots. It cures by inhalation. No danger, no risk, sold by all druggists or by mail, price $1.00. For trial outfit send 10c in stamps to N C POLSON & CO. Box 540 Kingston, Ont.

HUNTING ADVENTURE

Nicholson and the book-keeper are just back from the North. They didn't kill many deer, they say, but they had all the fun they wanted.

"We went out one day," says Nicholson, "determined to kill a deer, or know the reason why. The guide guessed we'd know the reason why."

"We sat all day on a runway while the guide took his two half-starved, half-bred colliers away somewhere on a trip of his own. Sitting in a log camp drinking whiskey and playing poker beside a big fire is different kind of hunting to waiting all day on a runway. I began to get chilly. Before I was through I was frozen stiff."

"Long about the middle of the afternoon a big mouse-colored thing went by me like a flash. I had the rifle up to my shoulder but the muzzle was doing fancy circle and little geometrical do-tunnys. It shook so fast I couldn't see the last six inches of the barrel. I let her fly anyway, but Lord only knows what I hit. There was no reason for this deer to worry about it anyhow."

"How about the book-keeper?" was asked.

"Oh! him—he was worse than me. He was over on the other runway. He had a chance, but he couldn't find the trigger of his rifle. Says it was the most extraordinary fit of the shakes you ever saw."

Both Nicholson and the book-keeper have to stand a lot of geying now-a-days. Nicholson says it was the whiskey. The book-keeper says it was smoking too much. But it amounts to the same thing; if you want steady nerves the "morning after," use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets the "night before."

Souris Notes.

The missionary meeting in the Methodist church on Tuesday evening was well attended. The speaker was the Rev. J. J. Teasdale, who, in his usual vigorous style, spoke on the subject of missions. A collection was taken up at the close of the meeting, and two collectors appointed, Miss Muttart and Miss Elia Matthew, to solicit subscriptions in the village.

The Presbyterian church social came off in St. Patrick's hall on Wednesday evening. The inimitable commercial ambassador Ellis presided as chairman, and fully maintained his reputation as being the funniest man on the road. His solo took the house by storm. All who took part in the entertainment did well. The sum of $120 was realized. The ladies of the congregation as well as the popular pastor and his estimable partner in life reserve to be congratulated on the success, social and financial, that crowned their efforts on this occasion.

The steamer Lunenburg did not get back from the Magdalen Islands until last Thursday morning. She left Souris just before the wind hauled round, and must have had a lively run of it to, Pictou, for it blew a gale here all the afternoon.

The Canadian Contingent is now well on its way to the Cape. Yet about one month ago Sir Wilfrid Laurier caused to be published in the Globe a statement in which he said:—"I do not see how we could send troops. How could we do so without Parliament voting the money? We simply could not do anything. Parliament would have to be summoned before a soldier could be enrolled. And so it is that we have not offered a Canadian contingent to the Home authorities. The Government has not discussed the question." It looks a little as if the Premier had not after all very much to say about the Government of this country."

The old story of Prometheus is a parable. Prometheus was on terms of intimacy with the gods. From them he stole fire, and gave to men. For this sin he was bound to the rocks of Mount Caucasus, and vultures were set upon him. They only ate his liver. This grew again as fast as it was pecked away. Are his sufferings to be imagined?

Take a modern interpretation of the parable. There is cooking without fire. In cooking and eating the mischievous stomach is overtasked, the bowels become clogged, they cannot dispose of the food that is given them. The impurities back up on the liver. Then come the vultures—the torments of a diseased liver. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is more than equal to the vultures of dyspepsia and its kindred diseases. There is no more need of suffering from dyspepsia than there is of hanging one's self. Sold by all medicine dealers the world over.

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT has been used and indorsed since 1810, to relieve or cure every form of Pain and Inflammation: Is Safe, Soothing, Sure. Otherwise it could not have existed for almost a Century.

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT
Is strictly a family remedy for Internal as much as External use To cure Colds, Croup, Coughs, Catarrh Cramps and Colic it acts promptly.

ORIGINATED BY AN OLD FAMILY PHYSICIAN.

There is not a medicine in use which possesses the confidence of the public to a greater extent than Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. For almost a century it has stood upon its intrinsic merit, while generations after generations have used it. The best evidence of its virtue is the fact that in the state where it originated the sale is steadily increasing. You can safely trust what time has indorsed.

I. S. JOHNSON, Esq.—Fifty years ago this month, your father, Dr. Johnson, left me some Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. I have sold it ever since. I can most truly say that it has maintained its high standard and popularity from that time to the present.
