

MUSIC FACULTY IN RECITAL

Members of the UPEI Department of Music Faculty will be featured in recital this Friday night, March 8 at 8:00 pm in the Dr. Steel Recital Hall. This is the fourth annual recital which displays most of the music faculty in solo performances.

Dr. Frances Gray will be carrying a great deal of the workload on Friday evening as she is accompanying four of her colleagues in their solo repertoire in addition to solo piano music of her own. Her solo feature of works by Issac Albéniz will be among the highlights of the recital. Baritone Carl Mathis, Flautist Betty-Anne Younker, Clarinetists Ruth Simon and Karem Simon, Percussionist Dave Sheppard, and Tubist Gregory (the Great) Irvine will be performing as well.

Together with pianist Frances McBurnie, Carl Mathis will perform lieder of Johannes Brahms. Betty-Anne Younker will perform Bach's Flute Sonata in B minor. Ms. Younker was recently featured at the University of New Brunswick in a recital of music for flute and guitar. Dr. Simon will perform a Bucolique by Bozza (the clown) and will collaborate with his wife, Ruth, and Dr. Gray in a rendition of Mendelssohn's Concert Piece, Op. 14, No. 2. At the time of this writing, it was not known what Mr. Sheppard and Mr. Irvine were performing but expect marimba magic from Dave and do not expect to hear the Theme from Cannon or the Theme from A&W from Greg.

Tickets for the concert may be purchased at the door. All funds will be donated to the music department's Green Room Fund. Faculty and students may find this to be just a delightful evening of chamber music.

Attention Poets

The National Library of Poetry has announced that $24,000 in prizes will be awarded this year to over 250 poets in the North American Open Poetry Contest. The deadline for the contest is March 31, 1996. The contest is open to everyone and entry is FREE.

Any poet, whether previously published or not, can be a winner. Every poem entered also has a chance to be published in a deluxe, hardbound anthology. To enter, send ONE original poem, any subject and any style, to The National Library of Poetry 11419 Cronridge Dr., P.O. Box 704-1943, Owings Mills, MD 21117. The poem should be no more than 20 lines, and the poet's name and address should appear on the top of the page. Entries must be postmarked by March 31, 1996. A new contest opens April 1, 1996. The National Library of Poetry, founded in 1982, is the largest poetry organization in the world.

Convocation Invitations:

A lot of you are asking how to get extra invitations for convocation... here is our advice:

~All grads are entitled to 4 invitations, which can be picked up during Senior Week registration, or when you pick up your gowns.

~Grads will be asked how many tickets they require, and to indicate by April 12 if they have tickets they can return so that others can have extras.

~Names will be put on a waiting list, and "returned" tickets will be distributed in order, no more than 2 per person.

~Since in the past, no one has "returned" tickets, we suggest you ask around to see if you can get extras from friends, or place an ad in the Panther Prints....or ~Wait until 4pm on the 10th, at which time any left over will be distributed.
