

Joe Blake Will Return With Habs Next Year

By PAUL RIMSTEAD
DETROIT (CP)—Joe Blake will definitely be back as coach of Montreal Canadiens next season but only because the team made a poor showing in this year's Stanley Cup semi-final.

Here to watch the final series between Toronto Maple Leafs, who eliminated Montreal off games to one, and Detroit Red Wings, Blake said in an interview.

"Mr. Selke (Frank Selke, managing director of the Canadiens) said this would be a poor time to quit."

Blake said after the semi-finals he didn't feel he was

"getting through to the players."

"I still don't feel I was getting through to the players," said Blake Tuesday. "When you coach so long it's hard to reach them. I don't think it's a good coach this year."

Blake said if he had quit coaching it wouldn't necessarily have meant the end of his hockey career.

"I might have gone into another line in the business," he said. But he didn't say whether this would be an upstairs job with the Canadiens or with another National Hockey League team.

League team.

RIMORS RIFE

One story here said Blake wants to go off to a winner and that if Montreal should win the Stanley Cup next season, he would definitely quit.

Another rumor here Tuesday was that Hrvie Kerec, a former coach of the Leafs, would replace Billy Plouffe at Chicago, Plouffe, coach of the Black Hawks, is again centre of the annual speculation about the Hawks.

"Ridiculous," said Meeker, also in town for the final. "I can't understand anybody being interested in me. I've lost contact with the game."

BRUNSWICK DOWNS PROTESTS

MONCTON (CP)—A protest by Brunswick Downs of Moncton, along with nearly all Maritime race tracks, has been made to Ottawa over the letting of a contract for photo-finish services to Exacta Films of Montreal instead of Godfrey Racing Services of Charlotteville.

Ingram Palmer Jr., general manager and president of Brunswick Downs, said Tuesday that a telegram from Agriculture Minister Hamilton had been received by Brunswick Downs.

He quoted the telegram as saying: "Tenders received for photo finish camera service from W. R. Godfrey. However, in accordance with government policy tender awarded lowest bidder, Exacta Films. Fine service of Mr. Godfrey in past is appreciated and will be given every opportunity to quote on further requirements."

Palmer said "apparently the Minister of Agriculture shows little concern over giving a Maritime firm complete control of business and giving the business to a Montreal firm, just to save a few dollars each race night."

Palmer said he would be given every opportunity to quote on further requirements.

"I don't think that's the way to run the business," he added.

"There's been full employment for five Maritimers at a seasonal employment for at least 30 more."

"Now it is gone... Mr. Godfrey has invested a great deal of money in equipment that's now useless."

"I don't think that's the way to run the business," he added.

Palmer said he would be given every opportunity to quote on further requirements.

Golf Tourney To Be Richest

TORONTO (CP)—A $300,000 annual golf tournament, the world's richest, was announced here Tuesday. First prize money is $55,000 and the inaugural tournament will be held in the United States in August, 1964.

C. O. Dalton of Toronto, president of Carling Breweries Limited, announced at a press conference that the tournament, known as the Carling World Open, is open to professionals and amateurs around the world, and will be a four-day, 72-hole stroke-play affair. Amateurs will receive trophies.

The 1965 tournament also will be held in the United States. In 1966 it will be staged in Britain and in 1967 in Canada. Venues and dates have not yet been decided.

Elimination tournaments will be held in a number of world zones where golfers must qualify to enter.

The $200,000 purse is $51,000 more than the present world richest—the $119,000 U.S. Masters.

Jim Gagin, tournament director of the Professional Golfers Association, said the tournament would be the richest ever staged.

Hawks Bow Out

MONCTON Hawks have bowed out of the Allan Cup picture but not before giving a great account of themselves in three diverting games.

The Hawks ousted Kempenfile — Prescott Combines three games to one and then took the overnight games. They were measured to best Windsor Bulldogs in overtime in the opener before dropping the next four to the powerful OHA champion.

Moncton has surely done splendidly. It undoubtedly will have a greater interest in the Nova Scotia Senior Hockey League than any other team in the other ranks, especially Halifax Tartans, will be trying their utmost to come up with a club that will seriously challenge them for supremacy.

Naturally the Hawks surely would have liked to have won that series with Windsor and brought the Allan Cup back to Moncton. Things would not have been so jammed around that Moncton Stadium if the Hawks could have faced the Cup finals in the Hub City. No spot do they draw more fans than that Maritime club.

THE Hawks' management had a tough time of it financially since entering the Allan Cup picture. Of course, they made some money in the series with the Combines but it wouldn't be nearly enough to take care of the payroll. You surely must remember energetic hockey workers such as Hawks had. They worked mighty hard to see that it was possible to keep the team in the Allan Cup action until last Monday night.

Naturally the Hawks surely would have liked to have won that series with Windsor and brought the Allan Cup back to Moncton. Things would not have been so jammed around that Moncton Stadium if the Hawks could have faced the Cup finals in the Hub City. No spot do they draw more fans than that Maritime club.

Make Good Impression

THE play of the Hawks brought plenty of favorable comment from sportswriters outside the Maritimes who were impressed with their performance for the first time. They indeed were worthy Maritime champions and caused plenty of trouble before bowing out of the picture. Probably next season the Maritimes champions can do equally as well.

Proud Of Alex

NEWFOUNDLANDERS surely must have been thrilled Sunday night when Alex Faulkner scored two goals to give Detroit Red Wings their 32nd victory over Toronto Maple Leafs.

They really are proud of Alex in Canada's new province. There is a wings on nights on the regular schedule, every sports fan in Newfoundland wants to know what Faulkner did. Newspapers and television stations set out hundreds of calls regarding Alex's doings.

Detroit surely made no mistake when they grabbed Alex when he left his unrecruited home. Has more than repaid them for their expenditure. The other Maritimer on the Wings' lineup has come through with a great season. Of course, we are referring to Red Kelly. He has made his mark by enjoying his greatest season in the big time. And don't for a moment think that folks in Cape Breton are not proud of Parker's achievements.

Red Wings may not have enough ability to out the Toronto club in the work of Faulkner. But they would have surely caused the Queen City outfit loads of trouble.

And this series isn't over yet.

Race Films Tonight

WE remind all harness racing followers of tonight's Gold Cup and Sauer-Film night at PWC auditorium.

Two great films, "Fire Away" and "The Best of Greyhound" will be shown. A feature film, "The Best of Greyhound" will be shown. A feature film, "The Best of Greyhound" will be shown. A feature film, "The Best of Greyhound" will be shown.

This surely should be a most entertaining evening for race fans and PWC gym should be crowded for the action.

There are many that discuss on the 1963 classification will follow the films. The matter of early closing dates will also be aired.

There is no admission charge for tonight's films but a silver collection will be taken up and will be used to help on transportation costs as well as prizes for next August's Gold Cup and Sauer-Film parade.

An added attraction tonight will be the piano playing of Max Selzer. Things get moving at 8:30 sharp.

Improvement in Night Inter-School Sports

Schedules, officials and facilities were among the major discussion points at the annual meeting of the provincial interscholastic athletic association held in Charlottetown yesterday.

A motion was passed unanimously to allow players to register for the registration date of the inter-school Athletic Association. The motion was passed unanimously to allow players to register for the registration date of the inter-school Athletic Association.

Two major changes were made in the province's track and field season. Until this year there had been two classes for both boys and girls: Open and Junior. A motion was passed to create three classes, Senior, Junior and Elementary, in both the boys and girls divisions.

Two events, the high jump and the broad jump, will be introduced to the elementary school level in both boys and girls divisions.

In the morning the discussion was devoted to the various sports of volleyball and cross country as well as scheduling playoffs in relation to snow and the province.

The big outcome of the meeting was the decision to hold a clinic in the coming fall in an attempt to clarify official's codes and players' records, the various rules and restrictions of the association.

PLAYER ELIGIBILITY

The main feature of the afternoon's meeting and always topical was the decision by officials come together in such a meeting, was the discussion on the eligibility of school hockey players.

Jack Kane of Charlottetown said that to limit players to only school hockey, "The schools must be able to give the player more and better hockey than he would get with either a MAAA team or an out-of-town team."

"The only way we can meet the problem," said president

Leafs Torment Wings 4-2; Have Keon Scores Winner

By BILL MacDOUGALL
DETROIT (CP)—A third-period goal by Dave Keon tied the superior performance by Detroit Red Wings Tuesday night as Toronto Maple Leafs scored a 4-2 victory over the other Toronto goal. Howe and rookie Ed Joly got the Detroit goals.

Toronto goaltender Johnny Bower had his busiest night of the series, and the player who burst out of the doldrums that had characterized some of his earlier Stanley Cup final play. George Armstrong scored the other Toronto goal. Howe and rookie Ed Joly got the Detroit goals.

Leafs' superior performance in the game, however, was not the most of the best players on the ice, had to assist on Joly's goal. He was busy all night either shooting or setting up teammates for shots at the Toronto netminder.

Bower, at an official 38, the oldest player in the league, performed did nothing to encourage defending rumors that he is more than 40.

Detroit goaltender Terry Sawchuk was less busy with 29 saves.
