SPEAKS AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Dr. O. E. Daniels, Associate Sec-etary of the Baptist Foreign Mis-sion Board of Canada, making his first visit to the Maritimes, ad-dressed a meeting representative of the various groups in the Bap-tist Church last night. Dr. Daniels led his listeners in an exposition on the types of faith, from the type that selfishly asks, to the higher faith that answers, and faith that addresses. In his challenging mis-sionary message he related several in-spiring examples of self-sacrificing service on the part of converts, at the same time stressing the very real need of support in this great work. Rev. J. D. Davison, the pas-tor, introduced the speaker and also pronounced the benediction

Tuesday, Dec. 15, 1953, Mrs. John Redmond in her 73rd year. Her remains were transferred yester-day afternoon from the Charlotte-town Funeral Home to her late residence from where the fun-eral will be held on Friday morn-ing to St. Ann's Church, Hope River for Requiem High Mass at 9:30. Interment in the church cemetery.

MACGILLIVRAY

In Montreal on December 14, Mrs. Annie MacGil-livray of Blooming Point. Her remains will arrive in the city by train this evening and will be conveyed to the Hennessy Fun-eral Home where they will rest un-til Saturday morning when they will be transferred to St. Bon-a-venture's Church, Tracadie, for Requiem High Mass. Burial in the church cemetery.

Campaign For Safer
Holiday Season Traffic

Most of the street and highway traffic accidents that will mark the approaching holiday season could be avoided if those who give or attend Christmas and New Year's parties observed one simple precaution, according to a statement issued today by the Attorney General's Department.

That precaution, easily observ-able either in homes or in public places, is simply to make a strong cup of coffee the "one for the road" instead of another round of alcoholic beverages. Scientific tests conducted by university and medi-cal researchers have demonstrated the effectiveness of coffee as a sobering element and practical re-sults have been attained where safety organizations have adopted "one for the road" campaigns.

During the holiday season, the Hon. W. E. Darby, Q. C., Attorney General stated, thousands of Cana-dians in every town and city will be taking part in holiday festi-

HOLMAN STORE NEWS

THE FETCHING FASHION of filching "little boy" shirts will go for the girls at Christmas as well as at any time of year for sport wear. . . . and the Little Shop in Charlottetown along with the Sportswear Department of Holman's in Summerside are catering to this smart whim. "Little Boy" style SHIRTS are made of fine printed cotton in either neat spriggy patterns or bar checks on a snowy white background. The three-quarter sleeves are cuffed and you may have your choice of an artistic type or neatly pinned and rounded collar. Sizes are from 12 to 18 and the price is only 2.98. Come see these "Little Boy" Shirts—they're fine for Gifting or for yourself—they're in the Little Shop and in the Sportswear at Holman's.

DAINTY HANKIES made just for Christmas are a "must" to tuck into milady's stockings! Imported beauties of the finest of lawn are embroidered with gorgeous flowers and are priced anywhere from 39 to 98 cents each—by the way, they're from Switzerland. Chinese embroidered linen Hankies are really lav-ish, they're 98 cents. Net edged Hankies with Irish linen cen-tres are marked 75 cents each. Now let me tell you of the truly lovely boxed Hankies in pastel shades or white with colored floral embroidery, these are from 39 cents to 1.75 a box. You'll find just the Hankies you'll want for Christmas Gifting in the Accessory Department at Holman's.

SHINING HEADLIGHTS for the Holidays! The Millinery Sec-tion has a really terrific collection of glittering HATS to add a holiday air to your Winter Outfit. . . . Believe me, there will be a more than slight pause while people see how pretty you look in yours! Flattering shell shapes of felt with sequins and veil trim are 5.95—silver lame with velvet and veiling are 7.95 and wee shells completely adorned with sequins and mysteriously veiled are 6.95. Jewel colors and gorgeous sparkle give these Hats a "stoplight" quality. Come make the loveliest of these Shining Headlights your very own today. . . . They're in the Millinery Section at Holman's.

Sunset Lodge

Santa Claus made his annual ap-pearance last evening at Sunset Lodge and in co-operation with the ladies of the Rainbow Club under the leadership of Mrs. Ruby Houle, C.D.A., and brought an enjoyable hour to the guests in residence there, around the gaily decorated Christmas tree.

Treats were distributed by Santa from his well filled pack during a break in a well-balanced pro-gramme of entertainment which included a piano solo of exceptional merit by Senior Major Henderson, "Christmas Chimes," a vocal solo "The Gift" by Mrs. N. D. MacLean, and a reading by Mrs. G. Ballingall titled "Christmas Greetings". En-joyable Christmas carol singing was also a feature in which the guest took a lively part. Mrs. J. A. MacNair and Mrs. Milton Stewart were pianists.

Mrs. Houle in which she extended Christmas greetings to the lodge guests and expressed the pleasure of the Rainbow Club at being hosts to them, prayer was offered by Senior Major Henderson. The Scripture lesson was read by Major Stevens who also gave an inspir-ing address on the theme "No room at the Inn".

GROWING CITY
SASKATOON — (CP) — The lat-est estimate of Saskatoon's popu-lation is 60,000, according to the post office and the city tax col-lector. The official 1951 census fig-ure was 53,268.
NEW MALDEN, England, (CP) — Television, radio and movies ap-arently haven't affected the read-ing habits of children in this Lon-don suburb. More than 1,000 youngsters turned up at a book exhibition at the local library.
