

Local and Other Items.

There will be a meeting of the Licensing Board this afternoon.

The steamer "Carroll" arrived from Boston last night at 11 o'clock.

OUR STANDING QUERY—"Why were the street lamps not lighted last night?"

The number of additional lamps which have been erected in different parts of this city add materially to the safety of the pedestrian.

CITIZENS residing in the vicinity of St. Peter's Road are complaining that the City Council has not ordered oil lamps to be placed in that part of the city, as well as at Brighton.

We learn that over $3000 worth of Senator Howland's property at Alberton changed hands yesterday, leaving the greater portion of that valuable estate still in the market.

ROBBERY—The salesroom of Fenton T. Newbery, Esq., on Water Street, was entered by way of a back cellar hatch on Monday night. The thieves then broke open Mr. Newbery's desk, and searched every hole and corner of the office. Their is such a large variety of articles in the store, that it is impossible to say what was taken, but it is supposed to be no small amount. As yet there is no clue to the robber. A keg of Mr. Newbery's tobacco was found in the back yard of a Mrs. Goodman residing at the East end of the city.

THE CHALLENGE, which will be found in another column, pretty effectually does away with the Journal's supposition that "Charlotte-tonians are afraid to meet the Summerside boys." With regard to the "Base Ball" match, it was the Summerside boys who backed out in this instance; for after having sent a challenge and received an acceptance, they raised an objection as to the age of the players, which was not contained in the original challenge, and the match fell through. "Putting these two together," as the Journal does, in this instance, amounts to nothing,—mathematics to the contrary notwithstanding.
